ANOTHER HOTEL FOR OMAHA

Plans Drawn for New Hostelry on South Fourteenth Street.

TO BE MODERN IN EVERY WAY

With a Beautiful Front the Building Will Rise Five Stories in the Air—Will Have Forty Rooms.

Omaha is to have one more hotel. Though of small size, comparatively, it will be of high class construction, and will fit in at present unobtrusively blank in the building line on South Fourteenth street. The new hotel will be at Nos. 418-20 South Fourteenth, on the lot between the Medlar building and the Storz building on the corner of Fourteenth and Howard. It will be 40 by 40 in ground dimensions and five stories in height. It will have forty rooms, with a fine cafe on the first floor. The cost will be $50,000.

Enamelled brick will be used for the front of the new building, which will be of fire-proof construction and elegantly finished in every respect.

Work will be rushed on the excavation and the permit for the basement was taken out this afternoon by F. E. Goff, agent for the owners of the property, who are non-residents. The basement permit calls for an expenditure of $4,500 and as soon as this is well along the contracts will be let for the upper part of the building. J. Jeffrey Davey is the architect for the building and says the plans call for a modern structure in every particular, with some features that will be new in this section. It is to be finished in the late fall.

Aged Man Runs Away from Home

John M. Ritter Leaves Family Home and Disappears—Sought by Police.

John M. Ritter, 75 years old, ran away from his home, seven miles north of Florence, because he was unhappy over the fact that his children were growing up and leaving home. The aged man left his home on the morning of May 22, without a word to his wife or the other members of the family. He is thought by relatives to have possibly gone to New York.

Ritter had $30 with him at the time of his departure. Anxiety of the family has led them to report the case to the police.

ARTHUR AYCRIGG NEAR DEATH

High School Senior in Last Illness on Eve of Commencement—Opera House Unavailable.

Arthur Aycrigg, a member of the senior class of the Omaha High school, is lying near to death at Clarkson Memorial hospital. The young man, who has recently undergone a series of surgical operations, hopes of his recovery has been abandoned. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Aycrigg of Omaha. He is the second of the senior class to have mastoid trouble. Miss Margaret Fahn died from the same complaint.

RUBEL KEEPS OPEN HOUSE

Large New Furniture Establishment Opens Saturday Morning.

FIVE STORIES OF NEW THINGS

Souvenirs for All Who Attend—Music and a Large Force of Attendants—Cut Flowers and Ferns.

Saturday morning the Rubel Furniture company will open its new store at 1315-1315 1/2 Howard street, to the public. Work has been progressing for weeks for the occasion and when the doors are thrown open one of the largest and most complete establishments of the kind will be launched in Omaha's business world.

Five floors are devoted to furniture and household goods. The first floor is used to display a complete line of mission furniture. Almost every piece of this style of furniture manufactured is to be found here and is attractively arranged. The second floor is used as a salesroom for dining room furniture and carpets. Bedroom sets, iron and brass beds and dressers are to be found on the third floor, while parlor furniture is to be found on the fourth floor. The fifth floor is to be used for a store room. In the basement will be found stoves and household goods.

FRANK D. RUBEL, President of the New Concern.

Special arrangements have been made for the big opening. A large handstand has been erected in front of the building and Kiplinger's military band will give concerts during the day. The inside of the store will be decorated with cut flowers, palms and ferns. Each woman who attends the opening will be presented with a handsome cut glass table bell as a souvenir of the occasion. The force of salesmen and clerks will attend to the wants of the visitors under the direct supervision of the members of the firm. The big store has been remodeled and re-decorated, with the result that it will rank as one of the finest establishments devoted to home furnishings in the middle west.

Andrews May Ask Nomination

Auditor of the Treasury Considers a Fling at Race for the Governorship.

William E. Andrews of Washington, auditor of the United States Treasury department, has been spending a couple of weeks in Nebraska, resting and looking over the political situation. He was at lunch Friday, a guest of W. L. Yetter. This evening he goes over to Iowa, where he is to officiate as commencement day orator at one of the big schools.

Mr. Andrews says some of his friends have urged him to submit his name at the primaries as a candidate for governor. He has not made up his mind as to what he will do. His inquiries as to the political situation have been such as to encourage him. He thinks the outlook for the republicans in this state is excellent.

TO BUILD INDIAN WAREHOUSE

Buskirk Will Put Up New Structure at Eleventh Street and Capitol Avenue.

The Indian warehouse at Omaha will soon be installed in new quarters at Eleventh and Capitol avenue. The building is to be erected by A. C. Buskirk, president of the Builders' exchange. The old warehouse became unfit some time ago when the walls crumbled.

The great sale starts Saturday morning promptly at 8:30.

Babel Rules in Battle of Words

Two Interpreters Interrupted by Two Jurymen on Translations.

Near babel rules in Judge Redick's court room and the intelligent auditor must be a polyglot sort of person.

Walter Kasprick, whose ancestors were Teutons, is suing P. Rojnickie, whose forebears came from the land of Pulaski and Kosciusko. Two German jurors got on the jury. Likewise two Poles. The rival attorneys figured this would be a standoff.

The services of two interpreters were required. The German interpreter began first. He had gone a little way when one German juror suddenly exclaimed:

"Here, he is not telling what the witness says."

"Why, yes he is," cried the other German juror.

Soon the Polish interpreter was at work. Up spoke a Polish juror.

"The interpreter is not translating correctly."

Then the other Polish juror came to bat.

"He is doing fine," cried he.

The suit involves $24 for the digging of a well. Much language of various sorts threatens to be used up before it is ended.

FISHING FEVER SEIZES CAMPEN

Wierd Tales of John M. Tucker Houses City Official to the "Call of the Fish."

John M. Tucker, county attorney of Cherry county and city attorney of Valentine, was in Omaha yesterday on legal business and incidentally calling on fisherman friends. He reports that anglers in his county are catching bass and crappie "till you can't rest." As a result, Assistant City Engineer Campen is pleading with Engineer Craig to help him to take a day off, so he can boast of catching at least a few fish this year.

"Tucker's talk drives me nervous," said Campen, "and I want to get at 'em. I know there is fish in Hackberry lake, near

S. S. S. PERMANENTLY HEALS SORES & ULCERS

Old sores remain open and chronic ulcers refuse to heal because they are kept constantly irritated and infected by impurities in the blood. This impurity of the circulation comes from various causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, the retention of refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a continued malarial state of health, inherited bad blood, etc., are usually responsible. But whatever the cause of the infected circulation, the sore or ulcer CANNOT heal until the blood is purified. S. S. S. heals sores and ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes into the circulation and removes the impurities and polluted matter which are the means of keeping the sore open; then the sore is bound to heal. S. S. S. is the finest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation but it adds the necessary healing qualities to the blood, and in this way assists nature to quickly cure sores and ulcers. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., can do no permanent good toward healing an old sore because such treatment does not reach the blood. These external applications may be soothing and cleansing, but the healing must begin at the bottom, and this is just what S. S. S. does by first purifying the blood, and then furnishing nourishment and health to all the flesh tissues. Book on Sores and Ulcers free to all who write and request it.

Do you know the GENUINE red-and-white label? You ought to; because it stands for the best thing of its kind made in the world—

Campbell's Tomato Soup

The little cut at the bottom of this advertisement shows you just how this label looks, except for the color. That's red above, and white below.

You can't mistake this distinctive Campbell can if you use your eyes. And you couldn't mistake the delicious flavor inside of it even with your eyes shut. Don't be deceived. Get what you ask for.

REFINED COFFEE

Have you tried it? If you have you are still using it. If you have not, it's time to get busy. It is very different from the old style crushed coffee with its dust and chaff. We have the only machines in Omaha for producing steel cut sifted coffee. It's better flavored; it's easier to make. No egg necessary—it settles itself. And it costs no more than the common kind—Mocha Mixture, 35c—3 lbs., $1 Excelsior Blend.....25c
