

H. S. ALUMNI AT FIELD CLUB

Association Will Hold Meeting, Reception, Reception and Dance.

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED ALUMNI

High School Building is Entirely Inadequate to Accommodate All and the Field Club is Secured.

The annual meeting of the Omaha High School Alumni association will be held at the Omaha Field club on the evening of June 20. Owing to the absence of President Burnett...

An enthusiastic meeting of the alumni is expected and a large attendance is assured. An executive committee, which is composed of Nathan Bornstein, Otto Baum...

While the scene of the meeting will be removed from the old familiar halls of the high school and the scholastic atmosphere may be missing...

A reception committee will be appointed to see that every one is made welcome. Traveling will be indulged in at 1.30 o'clock.

There are about 2,600 alumni of the Omaha High school and it is hoped that a big majority will realize this opportunity of meeting once again as schoolmates and renewing acquaintances.

The notice of the meeting is being given early so that the alumni may keep the night of June 20 an open date, so that this may serve as a type of the future meetings of the association.

wedding is a chapter in a pretty romance which began with the bride's visit to her grandmother in Poughkeepsie last year. Both the bride and her attendant, Miss Marjane Funkhouser, wore light cloth suits.

The wedding party of Miss Beatrice Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Yates, and Lieutenant Chas. C. Allen of the Thirtieth U. S. Infantry, whose marriage will take place Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yates, "Hillside," will include Miss Carolyn Johnson of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Stella Hamilton, pupils of honor; Captain E. D. Warfield, best man, and the ushers will be Captain Campbell Babcock, Lieutenant Otto Michelson, Mr. Henry W. Yates, Jr., Mr. Randall Brown, Mr. Earl Gannett, and Mr. Edward C. Smith of Kansas City.

Miss Olivia G. Hitchcock, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, of No. 17 West Thirty-sixth street, was married to Mr. S. Hinman Bird, a son of Mrs. Charles T. Cook, of No. 4 East Thirty-ninth street, St. Peter's church, Narragansett Pier, Saturday afternoon, June 4. Mrs. Albert J. Akin was matron of honor.

For the Future. Mrs. A. D. Lane will give a dancing party at Happy Hollow June 17.

Mrs. Charles B. Keller will give a luncheon Tuesday for Mrs. Lawton of Houghton, Mich.

Mrs. Robert Anglin will give a luncheon at the Country club Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Lawton of Houghton, Mich.

Mrs. A. L. Reed will give a dance at her home the evening of Tuesday, June 14, for her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Reed.

Mrs. A. C. Fennell will leave Sunday afternoon for St. Louis, to attend the Tercentenary of the Sisters of the Visitation.

Mrs. Edward Mahoney will give a luncheon Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. E. J. Fellow, of Sioux City.

Mrs. Winifred Wilcox will give a miscellaneous shower at her home Tuesday evening for Miss Florence Mason, one of the June brides.

Mrs. Marichal and her sister, Miss Bertha Shackelford, have gone for a trip through Yellowstone park. They will also visit the Pacific coast before returning.

Mrs. Edgar Scott will give a picnic Tuesday at "The Orchard" in Council Bluffs, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Scott, in celebration of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Miss Eleanor Scott.

The Rod and Gun club will have the mid-week dinner dance on Thursday evening during the summer months. The dancing pavilion has been enlarged for the dancers and a large veranda built around this for the spectators. A table of photo dinner will be served at the club every evening from six to eight o'clock.

Commencement Notes. Miss Dorothy Stevens was graduated from Miss Temple's school, New York City, and has returned to Omaha.

Miss Helen Cudaby and Miss Elizabeth Pickens were members of the class which was graduated from Mrs. Somers' school this year. Miss Pickens has returned to Omaha. Miss Cudaby is a member of a party of graduates who sailed today for a summer in Europe.

Miss Margaret Vaughn and Miss Margaret McPherson were members of this year's class at St. Mary's school, Garden City. L. I. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Vaughn, Mrs. T. B. McPherson and Miss Louise McPherson went east to attend the exercises. They are expected home this week.

The commencement exercises of the Omaha High school will be held Friday evening, June 17, in the Crighton Orpheum theater. Festivities for the members of the class have already begun. Yesterday the class was entertained at a picnic held on the campus and in the woods north of Bellevue college.

Miss Elizabeth Sweet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sweet, and Miss Myra Breckenridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Breckenridge, have received what is considered a clinical honor at Smith college, in being chosen among forty juniors from a class of 306 to participate in the Ivy day exercises, June 13, which are part of the graduating festivities. Miss Sweet and Miss Breckenridge will also act as ushers at the commencement exercises, which occur June 13.

The commencement exercises of Brownell Hall will be held Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Church of St. Mathias. The attendant events, as they are named in the cards of invitation are sermon to graduating class by the Bishop of the diocese, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in Church of St. Mathias, reception for graduating class, Brownell Hall, Monday evening from eight to eleven o'clock; recital of music department Monday evening at 9 o'clock.

The class of the Omaha High school for 1897 will be welcomed into the Alumni association June 21 by the annual reception which is to be held this year at the Omaha Field club. The club has been chosen by the organization because of the size of the association. The officers of the association are Miss Fannie M. Pratt, 1883, acting president; Miss Louise Northrup, 1908, secretary, and Geraldine Gifford, 1908, treasurer. The other members of the executive committee are Mr. Otto Bauman, chairman, 1890; Mr. Samuel Reynolds, 1891; Mr. Nathan Bernstein, 1888; Mr. Chandler Trimble, 1891; Dr. Abbie Holmes, 1890; Anna Marples, 1887; Gertrude White, 1908; Marie Hodge, 1909; Florence McHugh.

Following the annual business meeting which was held yesterday morning at Brownell Hall, the Brownell Hall alumnae welcomed the new alumnae, the members of the class of 1910, with a luncheon. In opening the business meeting, Rt. Rev. Arthur L. Williams, Bishop of Nebraska spoke of the ideals of the school. Mrs. George Tilden was chosen as president of the alumnae; Miss Mary Mellor of Wayne, vice president; Miss Helen Davis, treasurer; Miss Melona Butterfield, secretary; Misses Forbes, Bess Baum and Carolina Barklow, executive committee. At the luncheon over were placed for sixty-five. The decorations were pink and red points. The singing of class songs and giving of informal talks was the after luncheon program.
