Sunday School Association in Convention at Beatrice.

ELABORATE PROGRAM PREPARED

Last Sunday School Party of Season at All Saints' Church Will Be Given Friday Afternoon and Evening.

The forty-third annual convention of the for the Modern Woodmen of America; Nebraska State Sanday School association, Organ prejude .. which meets at Beatrice, Tuesday, Wednesple of Beatrice prepare for at least 1,500 delegates. Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, a talented speaker, will talk in a practical manner upon several different phases of manner upon several different phases of Sunday school work for children. Rev. William A. Brown, who is at the head of the missionary department of the international Sunday school work, will deliver an address upon the work of the Sunday. an address upon the work of the Sunday school as a missionary agency. The music will be in charge of Prof. L. P. Elchorn of Denver. Rev. J. M. Kersey and E. P. Dennison of the Young Men's Christian association will represent Omaha on the program, both of them having prominent places.

There is a rivairy between different coungies as to which county shall receive the largest number of miles traveled. This gives the small delegation from the farther counties the same opportunity to win the flag as the nearby counties with their large delegations. Cass county has fifty delegates, while Otoe and Nemaha hope to outdo this number. Douglas county does not expect to be left behind and twentyfive or thirty delegates are already assured. and the probability is the number will reach near fifty. Further away counties. such as Dawson, Antelope and Custer, are endeavoring to reach the fifty mark.

All Sunday schools are entitled to repre sentation. The Beatrice people will give lodging and breakfast free. The convention proper opens on Tuesday afternoon and byterian church Thursday at 8 p. m. will close Thursday night.
