JEFFRIES TRAINING CAMP. RO WARDENNAN, Cal., June 5 .- (Special Telegram.)-James J. Corbett took his first long run on the road with Jim Jeffries today and when they returned, Corbett was 10 nearly all in. It was nearly an hour before he could talk to the reporters and when "Gentleman" Jim gets in that condition he is serious indeed. Finally recovered, he spoke of Jeffries' splendid performance.

"Jeffries is doing everything, and more too, on the road than he said he was doing. I thought I was a pretty husky leg artist until I went up against that human sky-11 scraper today. He is a volcano on wheels. After he had run what seemed like eighty miles to me, I gave the signal of distress and Jeffries slowed up.

"''Here, this ain't the stopping place," erty. New sald he. I told him it was for me. I was just getting ready to stretch out for a rest when I asked Jeffries how much further he intended going.

" 'Ohl several miles or so,' he replied carelessly." Corbett and Choynski were on the road together part of the time and after Jeffries left them in the lurch they started back towards camp discussing old times. They arrived here as chummy as a couple of rich relatives. Jeffries went through his regular stunts today, boxing some stiff rounds with Choynski and Bob Arn.strong. 'The general opinion prevails around the camp now that Jeffries could enter the ring and clean up the champion tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4 .- (Special Telegram.)-Following the hard day which Champion Jack Johnson put in yesterday, finishing up last night with an exhibition off in Dreamland rink, he felt entitled to a rest today in order to prepare for the strenuous week tomorrow. Stories have been published and have been passed from mouth to mouth saying that a compact has been formed to allow Jeffries to beat me. That's a lie all through."
