

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD BOREWATER

VICTOR BOREWATER, EDITOR

Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (including Sunday) per week...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER: Evening (without Sunday) per week...

ADVERTISING: Single copy, one year...

OFFICES: Omaha—Twenty-fourth and N. Council Bluffs...

CORRESPONDENCE: Communications relating to news...

REMITTANCES: Remittances in postal order payable to The Bee Publishing Company...

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA: State of Nebraska, Douglas County...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: For the week ending May 29, 1910...

Net total: 3,315,888; Daily average: 49,758

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 1st day of May, 1910...

Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them...

Despair not! June may yet warm up to us...

Perhaps that Guild Hall speech was just a trick to see if he could arouse the English...

Thomas A. Edison tells us that ether is the power of the future...

Now Rudolph Spreckels says he will reform Chicago...

Uncle Sam seems to have put the ball on those railroad rate raisers...

Kentuckians think congress too indifferent to its requests...

Light now is the time to ask if the Interstate Commerce commission will have control of the airship traffic...

Will not some lover of science put up a prize for an aviation trial from Esopus, N. Y., to Fairview, Neb.?

Anyone else want to buy $4,500,000 of Omaha 4 per cent water bonds...

Officers of the Anti-Saloon league refuse to be diverted...

Governor Harmon should take courage. Men always fall in the estimation of Mr. Bryan...

A man traveled from Germany to Chicago in seven and one-half days...

The present status of the rate-raising business is another reminder...

The preacher who uses signboards to advertise his church...

It remains to be seen whether that long distance telephone will work...

A Cincinnati girl climbed down a rope to reach her lover...

The prosecution of the Beef trust will now ask the supreme court...

Thomas E. Watson says he is again a democrat...

Secretary of State Junkin has proved by official statistics...

Control and Not Destruction.

The fallacy of the theory that demands destruction of the whole institution of private property...

There is no danger that socialism will ever triumph so long as the people keep their faith in a popular government...

The Example of Darius Green.

According to the mother of Charles K. Hamilton, one of the ambitious aviators who will compete in the flight from New York to St. Louis...

But before we proceed too far in our marveling over the wonderful feats that are being accomplished, it might be well to go back into history...

A Congress of Activity.

The present congress will go down in history as one of the busiest and most prolific of results...

It is well that the republicans and democrats have come to a working agreement in taking up these measures...

before adjournment, whenever that may be. The people may rest reasonably assured now that they will secure the enactment of laws on these subjects...

By the time congress adjourns and the members go home to seek endorsement at the polls, there will in all probability have been written upon the statute books at Washington ample material in the form of long-demanded laws...

What Ails Royal Europe.

The recent death of one European monarch and the serious illness of three others prompts a solicitude of broader scope than just personal anxiety...

Today the crown prince of Sweden is conducting the affairs of the nation because King Gustavus is too sick to do so...

Not a single ex-governor at the funeral of ex-Governor Mickey, although Nebraska has five living ex-governors...

Living Up at the Finish.

Senator Cummins now says that he will vote for the administration railroad bill, as amended...

Business Men and Public Office.

Four business men selected by business men to run the legislature in Indiana, excused themselves on the ground that they were too busy...

Lamentations Now Due.

With the supreme court sustaining a freight rate reduction, an injunction to prevent a freight rate increase...

HE GATHERS THEM IN.

Activities of "the Western Kill-Joy" Democracy.

When the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota was in the flesh Mr. Bryan held him in high regard...

PERSONAL NOTES.

English men of letters have treated Roosevelt with consideration, but Kipling threatens to write a poem about him...

In Iowa.

The political spotlight is right now on Iowa, where the impending primaries will soon tell who's who in the Hawkeye state...

Mrs. Charles Netcher of Chicago is acting manager and owner, with her children, of one of the largest department stores in the world...

Our Birthday Book

Ralph E. Valentine, assistant manager in Omaha of the American Bureau of Information, was born June 7, 1882...

her observance of woman suffrage, "I have no time to vote after I have done my duty to my children to whom I have devoted my life."

Returning to face that judgment for $6,263,295.49, President Barlow of the Water Board says the next problem will be to find the best man to manage the water plant for the city...

It is understood that the authorities at the mounted service school at Fort Riley have been expending some trouble with the class of officers which some regimental commanders recommended for detail at the school...

Despite the fact that the War department has adopted and promulgated a policy which places the joint army and militia maneuver camps of this year on a very practical basis...

The primaries in Pennsylvania, like those in Ohio, indicate almost complete victory for the so-called regular republicans, the insurgents getting but a single look-in in Pennsylvania...

The democratic state committee reissues the advice to democratic legislative candidates to sign up under the Oregon plan...

The infantry officers who have been giving attention during the past year to the equipment and apparel of the foot soldier have been much impressed with a new type of shoe...

Business Men and Public Office.

Four business men selected by business men to run the legislature in Indiana, excused themselves on the ground that they were too busy...

Lamentations Now Due.

With the supreme court sustaining a freight rate reduction, an injunction to prevent a freight rate increase and the railroad bill...

HE GATHERS THEM IN.

Activities of "the Western Kill-Joy" Democracy.

When the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota was in the flesh Mr. Bryan held him in high regard, tempered only by a growing fear that he might have some plutocratic friends...

PERSONAL NOTES.

English men of letters have treated Roosevelt with consideration, but Kipling threatens to write a poem about him...

In Iowa.

The political spotlight is right now on Iowa, where the impending primaries will soon tell who's who in the Hawkeye state...

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Charles Netcher of Chicago is acting manager and owner, with her children, of one of the largest department stores in the world...

Our Birthday Book

Ralph E. Valentine, assistant manager in Omaha of the American Bureau of Information, was born June 7, 1882...

Army Gossip

Matters of Interest On and Back of the Piping Line Gleaned from the Army and Navy Register.

It is understood that the authorities at the mounted service school at Fort Riley have been expending some trouble with the class of officers which some regimental commanders recommended for detail at the school...

Despite the fact that the War department has adopted and promulgated a policy which places the joint army and militia maneuver camps of this year on a very practical basis...

The primaries in Pennsylvania, like those in Ohio, indicate almost complete victory for the so-called regular republicans...

The democratic state committee reissues the advice to democratic legislative candidates to sign up under the Oregon plan...

The infantry officers who have been giving attention during the past year to the equipment and apparel of the foot soldier have been much impressed with a new type of shoe...

Business Men and Public Office.

Four business men selected by business men to run the legislature in Indiana, excused themselves on the ground that they were too busy...

Lamentations Now Due.

With the supreme court sustaining a freight rate reduction, an injunction to prevent a freight rate increase and the railroad bill...

HE GATHERS THEM IN.

Activities of "the Western Kill-Joy" Democracy.

When the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota was in the flesh Mr. Bryan held him in high regard, tempered only by a growing fear that he might have some plutocratic friends...

PERSONAL NOTES.

English men of letters have treated Roosevelt with consideration, but Kipling threatens to write a poem about him...

In Iowa.

The political spotlight is right now on Iowa, where the impending primaries will soon tell who's who in the Hawkeye state...

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Charles Netcher of Chicago is acting manager and owner, with her children, of one of the largest department stores in the world...

Our Birthday Book

Ralph E. Valentine, assistant manager in Omaha of the American Bureau of Information, was born June 7, 1882...

Time Certificates of Deposit $2,034,278.61. 3 1/2% Interest paid on certificates running for twelve months. First National Bank of Omaha.

SEEING OMAHA. Fremont Tribune: Omaha is looking for an easy place to light. The Bee tries to point out that the surprise will be if the census shows more than 100,000.

THE QUARREL. Roy Farrell Greene in Leslie's. She had begged and beseeched me to change my position. To vote the affair in the same light that she had done.

Talks for people who sell things. Follow-up Systems. I remember a song that the College Glee club used to sing, which went something like this: 'I owe ten dollars to O'Grady, and you'd think he had a mortgage on my life.'