DRINKS POISON FOR MINERAL WATER; DEAD

H. H. Morton of Council Bluffs Dies at Atlantic City Through Drug Clerk's Mistake.

H. H. Morton, 420 South Eighth street Council Bluffs, died in Atlantic, Ia., Tuesday morning after drinking a glass of formaldehyde given him in mistake for mineral water, by H. B. Sears a clerk in the Moore drug store of that city. The polson took effect at once, and Morton lled within seven minutes after it. Drs. Widner, Graham and Burke were called, but they were unable to counterct the poison

Mr. Morton was married, but according to Robert Bacon of McCord-Brady of Omaha had no children. He was a traveling salesman for McCord-Brady and Sunday evening he and Sig Schavland a commercial traveler, went to Atlantic, Mr. Schavland said that Morton left him, saying he was going to a drug store to get a drink of water, and the next he heard of him was the news of his death. Sears is said to be an experienced druggist and to have been employed at Moore's
