A Skeptic.

A Skeptic. Orville Wright, at a banquet in Dayton, told of an obstinate old Daytonian who, looking up one still afternoon at the Wright biplanes circling smoothly and steadily through the air, said: "When people first told me about this here flyin' I called 'em liars. Then, when I read about it in the papers, I said it was a fake." The old man, as he watched the biplanes moving in great curves like lazy birds, shook his head thoughtfully. "By crinus," he said, "I ain't what ye mout call convinced yet, nuther."--Wash-ington Post.
