THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1910.

Saturday Commencing at 8:30 sharp

reception hall was bright with bouquets

aved by an orchestra in the conservatory

I the first of the wedding party to dead the stairs were the two groomsmen

plain Campbell Babcock and Licutenant

Women Compete in Tennis Tournament at Field Club Sward, Eather Nordeen, Florence Cox, Adrien Cone, Mabel Doty, Jessie Doty, 102 1124

eph,

sweet peas.

and Mr. Earl Gannett.

leep pink peonles

June 27 is announced as the date of the third annual women's tennis tournament for the championship of the city, The event will take place at the Field clui starting Monday, June 27, and communithrough the week. At that time most the young women will be home from set and college, and they as well as the you women of the Omaha High school an. Brownell Hall will be given an opportunit; enter the tournament.

Miss Kate Moores has been chosen chair man of the executive committee and will be assisted by a number of young women. A meeting will be called as soon as the committee is selected. Those who will assist Miss Moores will be Miss Elizabeth McConnell, Miss Hortense Clarke and sev eral others, probably Mrs. J. M. Cudahy and Miss Helen Buck. Miss Buck is a high school student and will take charge of the high school entries.

The tennis committee of the Field club will lend all the assistance possible to make the affair as successful this year as it has been in previous years. This comincludes Measrs. Conrad Young, Samuel S. Caldwell, William N. Wood, Harry Koch, Arthur Scribner and F. N.

Much interest is being taken in the coming tournament and each of the country ciubs will be well represented by players. Mrs. N. P. Dodge, jr., the present champion, may not be in the city for the tournament, as she is planning an eastern trip. Mrs. Hugh Weed of St. Louis, formerly Miss Faith Potter of this city, won the championship at the first tournament, held

two years ago

Hillside, one of the oldest and most at tractive homes in Omaha, was the appropriate setting for the event in which society has taken a keen interest, the wedding of Miss Bessie Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates, to Lieutenant Charles C. Allen, Thirtleth Infantry, U. S. A. The ceremony was celebrated Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Dean George Beecher officiating, assisted by Rev. Robert B. H. Bell of Des Moines.

In addition to the natural beauties of the sister, Miss Florence Curtis, and Mr. Ralph home, elaborate floral decorations of shaded Glenn Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. peonies, giving the tones from white to Adams. The marriage lines were read hy deep pink, made the scene one of exceptional beauty. The ribbons stretched from going away gown of tan colored silk and christ and Mrs. William K. Jones. a white Grecian urn at the foot of the carried a large bouquet of swansonia and stairs to two French windows in the drawwhite sweet peas. Little Miss Gertrude ing room where four white pillars, on which | Campbell, dressed in a dainty white dress, were baskets of pale pink peonles, formed carried the ring in an Easter lily. Miss an aisle for the wedding party. The large Ida Schoolman was maid of honor and Merrill, Margaret Mulvihill, Margaret pearls.

scellaneous shower Tuesday evening for Miss Helen Sward, a June bride. Miss Sward was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were Misses Helen Sward, Eather Nordeen, Florence Cox, Esther Swenson, Helen Burkett, Gwendolli Worthington, Anna Jacobberger, Julia Grossman, Winnie Swenson and Gerda Swenson. Mesdames L. D. Fullington and C. E. Sward, Messrs, Paul Secord, Ernes Sward, L. D. Fullington, George Swensor The "Lohengrin" wedding march was and C. E. Sward.

The Alternate Card club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hooper. Prizes in the card gam were won by Mrs. J. E. Carmach, Mrs. F and Michaelis, wearing full dress uni- L. Armstrong and Mrs. W. A. Hoope The guests were Mrs. J. E. Carmach, Mrs. Muss Stella Hamilton, bridesmald, came J. F. Foyer and Mrs. T. Jones. The club ext and Miss Carolyn Johnson of St. Jo- will meet again in two weeks with Mrs.

W. S. Rowe. Mo., maid of honor, preceded the Miss Zerlina Dreyfoon, whose wedding i bride and her father. The bride's attend-Mr. Louis Hiller will take place next Wedants were gowned alike in white margulnesday, was the honor guest at a lunch sette over white satin, trimmed with handcon and silk hosiery shower today give embroidered bands in pink design at the oot of the skirt and on the corsage. The by Miss Minnie Hiller and Miss Florenc gowns were made decolette and they car- Hiller at their home. Pink and white peon ried pink roses, with a shower bouquet of les decorated the table and from the dom above the table was a shower of pink

The bride wore a handsome costume of hearts. At each guest's place was a miniawhite charmeuse satin, with hand em- trunk filled with bonbons and at the place broidery on corsage and skirt. Real point place of the bride to be was a small trunk lace and tuile trimmed the neck and sieeves filled with silk hostery. The trunk was and the long tulle vell was held in place appropriately tied with white ribbons and with pearls and illies of the valley. She had several labels as "Just Married," and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white similar ones. Those present were Mrs. Daniel Korn of New York, Mrs. Maurice roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's Bonner of Syracuse, Mrs. Stanley Hartman gift was a diamond drop pendant. Captain Eldred Warfield served as best Mrs. Justin Sarbach, Miss Dreyfoos, Miss nan to Lieutenant Allen and both wore Evelyn Bergman, Miss Blanche Rosewater full dress uniforms. The ushers were: Mr. Miss Elsie Goetz, Miss Minna Meyer, Miss Rossina Mandelberg, Miss Minnie Hiller H. W. Yates, jr., Mr. Randali K. Brown and Miss Florence Hiller. A farewell reception was given last even-Following the ceremony there was a reception for the wedding guests. The din- ing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred ing room was decorated with white roses Armbrust, 704 North Twenty-fourth street, South Omaha, /Neb., in honor of their and lighted with candles in silver candlesticks, tied with white tulle bows, with daughter, Miss Wilhelmina Armbrust, who sliver and crystal shades. The out-of- leaves for Europe Saturday. Those present town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. were Misses Hazel Mahannah, Dora Koop-Elizabeth man, Margaret Koopman, Stephen, Edith Jespersen, Gertrude Frost, Florence Frost, Rose Kuntze, Hattie Kuntze, Irma Hinkhouse, Gertrude Wilson, Hulda Armbrust, Laopal Zaugg, Genevieve Zaugg, Katherine Kocher, Marie Kocher Messrs. Homer Wheeler, Charles Tobey Mrs. Yates wore a gown of pastel blue ver iridescent silk. The bride's sisters, Harry Tobey, Irving Cowdry, Mr. Grapen Mrs. Morgan was gowned in pale blue mes- grieser, Mr. Ross, Albert Wilson, Forest Mr. Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Dennie, saline with trimmings of lace, Mrs. Voss wore white voile trimmed with bands of Zaugg, Mr. and Mrs. Holyoke, Mr. and Mrs. Armbrust. Mrs. William K. Jones entertained at luncheon today at the Hotel Rome in honor of Mrs. Frederick A. Smith, wife of the commanding officer of the Department of the Missouri. Mrs. H. M. Lord assisted and covers were placed for Mrs. Frederick A. Smith, Mrs. H. M. Lord, Mrs. Cornellus

Miss Gladys Peters was hostess at Garden, Mrs. J. M. Baumester, Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, Mrs. William P. Burnham, Mrs. Omar Bundy, Mrs. Chase Kennedy, Mrs. James Erwin, Mrs. Henry Gilchrist, Mrs. The graduating class of St. Berchmanns' academy were entertained at luncheon yesterday by Miss Mary Welch. Covers were placed for Misses Helen Bristol, Mildred wore a beautiful lingerie gown of white. Kelly, Catherine Carrick, Maud McArdle, Mr. Sylvian Burkenroad was best man. The Theresa Peterson, Winifred Donahue, wolding march was played by Mrs. Merrill, Edith Beckman and Mary Welch.

Omaha's great cloak and suit house will again demon strate its power of buying ability by placing on sale a big special purchase of high grade wash dresses that would regularly sell for up to $12.50 at about half, and in many less than half regular price. The dresses are made of French lawns, silk mulls, Zephyr ginghams, chambrays, dimities, plain linens and percales. Both high and low collar styles, long or three quarter length sleeves, in all colors and sizes. Every one of the dresses are made to sell for $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50on sale Saturday for-

Mr. J. B. Orkin, our resident New York buyer, fortunately buys over 800 tailored linen suits from a prominent New York maker at an unheard of low price. The suits are here and will go on sale Saturday for the first time at the biggest bargain prices ever offered. The immense quantity and the low price ought to make this sale famous. Just think of buying right at the beginning of the summer season high grade suits, made of linen rep, linen crash, Indian Head linen and poplins-in all sizes and styles; actually worth up to $15.00-on sale Saturday at-

Maker, Worth up to $15,

on sale Saturday

$5.95

Every woman in search of quality, style and economy will be here and this will be the busiest spot in Omaha. Come early, at 8:30 if you can.

BRAIN-WORKERS

Horsford's Acid Phosphate is especially recommended for restoring brain force or nervous energy, in all cases where the nervous system has been reduced below the normal standard by overwork as found in lawyers, teachers, accountants and brain workers generally.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

POWDER

DAY

at BEATON'S

SATURDAY

50c Pozzoni's Powder-Saturday, 25c

25c Ricksleker's Golf Queen Talcum

50c La Dorine Powder and Puff-Sat

50c Java Rice Powder-Saturday 29c

Saturday at20¢

25c Swansdown Powder-Sat., 12c

25c Powder Papers-Saturday .. 12c

1-lb. cans Wilbert's Talcum Powder-

75c Tivoli Rice Powder, Pinauds

some in their bungalow at the Rod and Gun club The wedding of Miss Zerlina Dreyfoos and Mr. Louis Hiller will be celebrated next Wednesday evening at Metropolitan club at 6:30 o'clock. Rabbi Frederick Cohn will officiate and Mr. Lester Kirschbraun of Chicago will be best man. Miss Florence Hiller will be maid of honor and Mrs. Justin Sarbach matron of honor. Miss Minna Meyer will be bridesmaid. The ushers will be Messrs. Nathan Heller of Milwaukee, Walter Mandelberg, Joseph Newman and Morton Hiller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiller will entertain Sunday evening for the wedding party.

Pleasures Past

Social Events of Note at Which

Congenial People Meet and Mn-loy Themselves to the Utmost.

lace, Mrs. Edward Smith, black embroidered gown over white satin embroidered in

After an eastern wedding trip Lieutenant

A pretty home wedding which took place

Thursday at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. T. W. Curtis was that of their

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have gone on a short and Mrs. Allen will reside in Atlanta, Ga.

who will be a June bride. Lavender, sweet peas and white carnations formed the table decoration and covers were placed for Misses Eleanor Jaquith, Agnes Weller, Katherine Powell, Eloise Jenks, Josephine O'Neill, Martha Daie, Dorothy Morgan,

Louise Lord, Alice Cary McGrew, Elizabeth Pickens, Eunice Howell, Miriam Patterson, Gladys Peters, Mesdames Jaquith, Rulph Crandall and M. C. Peters. For the Future

> Events of Interest That Are On The Local Social Calendar That Much of Pleasure.

Miss Marion Funkhouser will entertain at address the club. cards Saturday afternoon at Happy Hollow.

Mrs. John Kuhn has issued invitations for a bridge luncheon for next Thursday at the Field club. Miss Adelaide Funkhouser will enter-

Mrs. Seymour H. Smith gave a beautitain about seventy-five young people Mon- Mrs. C. Bauserman, Mrs. William Maler, fully appointed luncheon Thursday at her day at Happy Hollow. home on South Tenth street. The color Complimentary to Mrs. H. M. Lord, Mrs. Clara Burbank and Mrs. I. Connor. scheme was carried out in pink-peonles C. E. Johannes will entertain at an afterbeing used in the hall and living room and noon tea Monday afternoon at her home roses in the dining room. During the afterfrom 4 to 6 o'clock. ioon a musical program was rendered by Colonel and Mrs. D. E. McCarthy will Lincoln chapter, nas invited the members Mr. Frank Mack, violinist, who recently returned from Prague, and Mr. Charles deis, when Mrs. Fiske, in "Becky Sharp," tion to be given Friday afternoon, June 17, 25c Sanitol Talcum Powder, Sat., 10c Lang, barltone. Covers were laid for will be the attraction, and their guests will R. V. Cole. L. L. Fisher. D. H. Ledwich. C. E. Goodman. S. H. Smith.

Seasonable Recipes

Mrs. Lord. Beware. Beware of the man who laughs at all the June 13.

jokes you tell. He's preparing to let you Misses Winnie and Gerda Swenson gave | lend him money.

lines, the equipment only varying with the essiern trip, and after June 15 will be at beautifully appointed luncheon today at funds available, that of Chicago being exher home in honor of Miss Eleanor Jaguith, eptionally well equipped.

> Miss Dorsey, "is the instructing of the mothers in the care of the bables. All these camps have found that this can be ccomplished best by having the mother remain at the camp and by there teaching hem." The association will hold its reglar meeting Wednesday and will then consider further details for the Omaha camp which it is at present planned to have open about the first of July.

The newly organized Woman's Suffrage club plans to hold meetings once in two weeks to consider the topics of interest and importance to the women who desire fashionable modistes. Her entire trousseau to vote. This decision was reached at the is being prepared in this country, although meeting held Wednesday afternoon with many ideas have, of course, been procured Mrs. Ward Shafer. The club did not then complete organization, but expects to do painted in Paris. o in the near future. A part of the plan of work is to have prominent speakers Already the membership is: Mrs. Charles affected, but more like what the French Vollmer, temporary president; Mrs. Shafer, temporary secretary; Mrs. A. B. Lathrop, Mrs. C. P. S. Tobin, Mrs. Burd be very simple and girlish, and will depend Miller, Mrs. J. G. Iverson, Mrs. H. C. Freeman, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. A. Ginsburg, Mrs. L. J. Quinby, Mrs. George Covell, Mrs. Addison Alexander, treasures highly be-

The Deborah Avery chapter of the Following the fashion of English brides. Daughters of the American Revolution, the Miss Alexander will wear a tulle vell, which give a box party this evening at the Bran- of the Omaha chapter to attend the recep- will be fastened with the usual orange from 3 to 5 o'clock in honor of Nebraska's will be attempted with the flowers-just be General and Mrs. Smith and Major and vice president general, Mrs. A. K. Gault, a few sprays will be used in the most art-Those who will be able to attend are reless and natural manner.

quested to notify Mrs. Doup, corresponding secretary, not later than Monday, ideas regarding her "Corbeille de noces,"

The board of directors of the Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Alexander ordered all her daughter's house-Revolution will hold a social and business meeting Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, on Fifth avenue, and ever since the most with Mrs. A. W. Clark. This will be the last meeting of the board of 1909-1910, as its employed embroidring it. tenure of office closes with the chapter meeting, Monday, June 13.

The National Congress of Mothers and any. Some hand-embroidered cloths with the Parent-Teachers Associations, opened inserts of French cluny and fillet lace cost their sessions in Denver today. "The Value of Parent Organizations;" educational factors in the first twelve years of a child's simple dinners figured up about $30 apiece life, home, church, street; mother's responsibility in prevention of infant mortality; social life in high schools and universities; causes of crimes of children and prevention; a same Fourth of July, and college domination of preparatory schools, are just a few of the important topics to be rate floral patterns. discussed. In connection with the congress The bed linen is quite as beautiful a symposium is to be held at the Women's club, at which four deans of college women are announced to speak: Miss Stoner, University of Wyoming, Laramie; Mrs. Grace C. Torrey, University of California, Berkeley; Miss Mary Stewart, University of Montana, Missoula; Lucille Dora, University of Oklahoma; Miss Luella Carson, president of Mills college, Oakland, Cal., and Miss Ogin, University of South Dakota, Mitchell, will also speak.

Mme. Faisey-Lanmennier is the first woman to be appointed a mail carrier in France. Her route is in the little town of Chappelle-sur-Aveyron, and it is said that if she performs her duties satisfactorily other women will get similar places. She makes her rounds on a bicycle supplied by the government.

Foley's Kidney Remedy may be given to children with admirable results. It does away with hed wetting, and is also recmmended for use after measles and scarles fever .- Sold by all druggists, morning Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gulou will leave shortly for California to reside in the fu-"An important part of the work," said ture. They have recently sold their house at 2121 Douglas street to Dr. Gustav Hahn. HER TROUSSEAU MADE HERE "Teddy," Jr.'s, Bride-to-Be Would Not Go Abroad to Obtain Her Wedding Finery.

True little American that she is, Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander, who, on June 20, becomes the bride of Theodore Roosevelt, jr., is having her wedding gown made here in New York, not many miles from the Waldorf-Astoria, by one of our most abroad, and her bridesmaids' frocks were

Miss Alexander's wedding dress naturally is of white satin of the softest variety -not the old-fashioned kind brides once now call "satin souple." The dress is to on its long graceful lines for much of its charm, although some wonderful old family point lace, which her mother, Mrs. Henry cause of associations and traditions, will adorn it. The lace will be used on the bodice and sleeves.

blossoms, but nothing stiff or conventional

Miss Alexander has some old-fashioned and no French bride who prides herself on her linen could have a more generous supply than she has. Months ago Mrs. hold linen at the Grand Maison de Blanc expert needlewomen in this city have been

There are dozens and dozens of everything, table and tea cloths, luncheon cloths and dollies, to use on the polished mahogabout $150 each; less elaborate ones $75. and rich damask cloths for breakfast and without the embroidery, which, of course. is very elaborate and beautiful and correspondingly costly. Some of the simpler damasks are in striped designs, and have napkins to match, while many are like bits of gorgeous satin brocade, showing elabo-that procured by Mrs. Alexander for her daughter's table. These are piles of snowy bit above the hems. sheets of sheerest linen, woven and embroidered in France, to which the bride's a trace of color on them, are heavily emmonogram was added here. Some of the broidered with the same device in white sheets have a scalloped edge, with a sort of embroidered beading about two inches lets are also embroidered in a similar way. below, while others show a sort of vine edge, with a foliated border underneath.

The pillow slips match, and, like the nap-kins and table cloths, are all embroidered

The army of dally workers who do light with the bride's monogram, a curious cyhousekeeping in the morning is innumerpher, composed of her three initials, able, and breakfast usually consists of hot E. B. A., set in a circle. This circle is coffee, a cold roll and an egg-no way to that will not run in the washing, but will divided into three sections, one for each heat the roll without allowing the egg to come from its tubbing looking like new. letter, which, in a clever sort of a way, become coid, or vice versa, with a single

Lop.

-New York American.

squares the circle, perhaps not mathema- burner gas stove. Few people know that an A porch cushion of extremely coarse, tically, but that is about the only way the egg popped into boiling water and allowed square-reshed buriap is finished with a design can be even vaguely described. The to stand off the fire for six minutes is round medalilon containing the bride's cy- cooked in the same degree and much more spiderweb pattern of dark raffia, held in pher is small for the napkins and is delicately than one anower to not business has just enough color to look an article wrought in the center of these, while for for three minutes. The canny business has just enough color to look an article wrought in the center of these, while for the three minutes. The time her among the other porch cushions. The pher is small for the napkins and is delicately than one allowed to boil furiously place with red slikateen. It is durable and the sheets still larger, and placed on the matutinal err is cooking busily in its hot raffia ends can be thrust through the malatter in the center on the jurnover on water bath off the fire to heat her roll terial, thus hiding rough points.

Solid oak, either mission or golden oak finish, 44 inches high and 18 inches wide. The quantity is limited, especially the mission finish, and we will be unable to offer this rack again at the price. Saturdaywhile they last--one to a customer-

$1.95 each First Floor-Main Aisle-Rear

80

Cocoa Mats

for one day only-

75c each

Window Shades Thick, heavy brush, Odd lot of hand made well bound. 30 inches opaque shades, solid colors and duplex --long and 18 inches different colors and wide. An absolute lengths; workroom necessity this muddy, mis its and broken lots spring weather; usual 85c to $1,25 val., Saturday as many as you price $1.35. Saturday like while they last ---

25c each

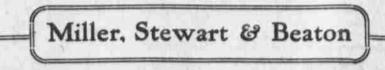

Carpet Department-Fifth Floor | Drapery Department-Fifth Floor

Remnant Rugs

Dropped pattern Carpet Samples from our wholesale and cut order carpet department-yard, yard and a quarter and yard and a half lengths-values up to $2.00 yard, Saturday, your choice-

> 45c each Carpet Department-Fifth Floor.

Store closes Saturdays 9:30 p. m.

The pillow slips are embroidered a or make a bit of toast on an asbestos mat, and has a more appetizing breakfast, The fiercy white blankets which have not

Towels of New Design.

A pretty new guest room towel which is bidding for attention is of soft damask, woven in a dainty scattered design aweet peas, a deep border of the flowers silk, and the white silk down-filled cover-For Breakfast.

appearing at the ends, which are hemstitched.

A novelty in bath towels is a bleached Turkish towel, with a red jacquard border

Porch Cushions.

The Food Drink for All Ages. For Infants, Invalids, and Growing children. Pure Nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates the nursing mother and the aged. A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S.

Not any Milk Trust

WALTED MILK

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. Others are imitations.

hubarb

Mesdames-

R

Strawberry Jam-Take three-quarters of a pound of crushed lump sugar to each pound of dry picked fruit; place the fruit and sugar in alternate layers into a brass or copper pan, bring the contents of the pan to the boil, carefully removing any scum which may rise to the surface, and

Miss Furnas.

Marmalade

boil gently for half an hour, keeping then pot and cover them down. The the fruit well stirred to prevent it above is sufficient for six quarts of from catching at the bottom of the strawberries. pan; then pour it into jars, and when Strawberry Sauce-Put half pound of sugar and one cupful of cool cover the top of the jam with paper, which has been wetted with water into a saucepan. Put it on the brandy and the another paper or bladfire and when it comes to boiling der over the top of the jar, and put point let it stand at the side to simmer for a quarter of an hour. Have ready half a pound of small scarlet away in a cool place till wanted. This jam, if properly made and the above instructions carefully followed, would keep for years. Some persons like a few red currants with strawberry jam. Be careful to gather the strawberries in fine weather, as the jam will not keep nearly so well if gathered after a shower.

Green Tomato Mincament-One peck green tomatoes chopped fine, two pounds raisins, four cupfuls granulated sugar, one and one-half cupfuls peunds rhubarb, cut fine, three pounds sugar, two vinegar, one teaspoonful of any kind of spices you would like in and a pinch of salt. Cook about ten minlarge lemons, cut fine (including rind), one-fourth utes, bottle and seal. Strawborries in Fickle-Place in a jar alternate layers of stalked straw> berries and crushed cloves and cinnamon till the jar is full; pour on to them a syrup made with three pounds of sugar bolled in half a pint of cider or white vinegar for five minutes, and let this all stand for twenty-four hours.

> > Now pour off the liquid from the fruit, bring it to the hoil, pour it back over them again, and again let it stand for twenty-four hours, after which boil the berries and the syrup together for twenty minutes slowly, strawberries picked free from stalks and drop them into the syrup. Let them simmer ten minutes. Remove the berries carefully and add two tablespoonfuls of red currant felly and a wineglassful of sherry to the syrup.

Let it boll and reduce to almost half.

Fut the berries back into the sirup and give one boll up and use as sauce for lamb or mutton outlets.