CHICAGO, June 15.—New wheat from Oklahoma began to be sold here today and is under contract to be delivered in this city the first half of July. The effect was a proper lowering of the relative value of nearty options and at the same time an improvament in the quotation for the December over September whomed out to be significant to be seen to be seen

Row in Cheyenne City Council

Judge Re-Seats Councilmen Ousted by Mayor Cook-Move to Depose Executive on Foot.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 15-(Special.)-By an order of Judge D. H. Craig, of the Fourth Judicial District, who assessed all costs in the cases against Mayor P. S. Cook, Councilman Henry Sweet (rep.) and H. E. Gates (dem.) are restored to their seats and rights in the city council, from which they were ousted by Mayor Cook several weeks the democratic majority of the council over the city's plans for an enlarged water system, and Sweet had joined the democrats in preventing the mayor carrying out the plans in some respects. Mayor Cook created a sensation about six weeks ago by declaring the seats of Sweet and Gates vacant and instructing Marshall Manwall to escort the deposed aldermen from the council chamber. The mayor justified his action on the ground that Sweet and Gates had removed from the wards from which they were elected, and cited an opinion of Attorney General Mullen to bear him out.

Sweet and Gates petitioned for a writ of mandamus, which, in allowing, Judge Craig cited authorities and a previous decision of the state supreme court. He declared Sweet and Gates are entitled to their seats in the council and ordered Mayor Cook to recognized them. All costs of the case are assessed against the mayor.

It is rumored today that the democratic majority of the council, aided by Sweet (rep.) may depose Mayor Cook and elect an acting mayor in his place. It is not known on what grounds the democrats will base this action, if the step is taken.
