CHILDREN'S DRESSES

Bought at an Unusual Sacrifice From an Eastern Maker

An exclusive manufacturer of children's dresses was overstocked and badly in need of money. Brandeis bought all the wash summer dresses he had on hand at just about half their actual value.

Pretty little dresses of neat serviceable wash materials—ages 2 to 14 years—all new styles—with Peter Pan collars, Dutch necks, button and braid trimming—sailor, Russian and belted styles—thousands to choose from.

PEACE HOVERS OVER HOUSE

Amicable Settlement in Sight in Conflict Over Rules.

WAGE FURTHER WAR ON CANNON

Word Passed Around that Withdrawal of Speaker Has Further Been Discussed by the Insurgents.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Out of the three-sided battle line in the house, which has been gradually merging for several days toward a mutual ground of conflict over the question of the reform of the rules, there appeared today the semblance of something like an amicable settlement. After a session of the rules committee which lasted throughout most of the day and two sessions of the "insurgent" republicans of the house, it looked tonight as though tomorrow might evolve a plan upon which practically all parties and factions of parties can unite in adopting a "reform" rule.

The rule committee argued, wrote and drafted for hours over the Clark-Sherley resolution, which seeks to provide a way for a member to bring into the house a measure being "smothered" in committee. Chairman Hays and the other "regular" republican members of that committee, joined with the democratic members in attempting to formulate a rule which would work out the end desired, and was acceptable to the house.

The fact that the "regular" wing of the party exhibited a willingness to join in a "reform" movement was generally commented upon today, as indicating that it was practically conceded that a rule would be adopted before adjournment and they had decided in making it rather than re-jecting its adoption.

The "insurgent" leaders, including Speaker Cannon, Representative Payne of Ohio, Representative Dinkelspiel of Pennsylvania and Representative Smith of Iowa were in frequent conference over the proposed rule during the day. The committee finally adjourned until tomorrow, at which time it is expected it will reach an agreement on the matter.

Flames Scorch Firemen at Big Ice House Fire

Blaze at Omaha Ice and Coal Company Causes Damage of $7,000.

Four firemen of Company No. 12 were painfully scorched about the face while combating wind-driven flames at the Omaha Ice and Coal company, Forty-eighth and Leavenworth streets, yesterday afternoon. The blaze destroyed an ice house of the company and four Missouri Pacific cars, and damaged four other cars, causing a total loss estimated at from $7,000 to $8,000.

The fire-fighters who suffered injury were Gus Bernard, William Ripley, Thomas Gray and David Seldon. The men continued their work at the scene of the blaze until it was out.

PUTS ARM AROUND WIFE, SHOOT HER FIVE TIMES

Chicagoan Drives Seven Children from Home, Fearing Black Hand Society.

CHICAGO, June 17.—"I put my arm around her neck and deliberately shot her. I pulled the trigger of my revolver five times. I planned to kill her two days ago."

OPEN SHOP FOR MINERS IN OKLAHOMA DISTRICT

Operators Say Policy Will Be Adopted Unless an Agreement is Reached.

PORT SMITH, Ark., June 17.—Coal operators of Arkansas and Oklahoma at a secret meeting here today, decided to begin operations under the open shop policy next Monday, if a conference at Kansas City tomorrow between the executive committee of the Southwest Operators' association and President Lewis of the miners' union fails to result in an agreement. Six companies are involved in the decision to re-open the mines.

REPUBLICANS PICK LINCOLN

State Committee Decides to Hold Convention There.

CHAIRMAN HAYWARD RESIGNS
Number of Republican Editors After Committee Meeting Talk Over Coming State Campaign in Nebraska.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, June 17.—(Special Telegram)—The republican state committee last night selected Lincoln for the place of the state platform convention July 23 and based the representation of one delegate for every 150 votes or major fraction of that number cast for G. C. Bell, candidate for presidential elector. The resignation of Will Hayward as state chairman was accepted.

Committee Leptin and Saunders of Omaha, Whedon of Lincoln and Kyd of Beatrice invited the convention to their respective cities. The convention will be composed of 850 delegates, of which Douglas county is entitled to ninety-four. Almost the entire committee was present, the proxies being as follows: W. O. Jones for F. C. Severin in the Twentieth district, P. O. Edgecomb in the Twenty-fourth, H. M. Crane in the Twenty-sixth, H. M. Hooker in the Thirtieth, J. W. Tamplin in the Seventh, W. W. Saunders in the Tenth, J. S. Shaffer in the Twelfth and Victor Rosewater in the Fourteenth.

Other committee members present were as follows: Dr. M. Stewart, Tecumseh; F. E. Helvey, Nebraska City; Henry Schneider, Plattsmouth; W. H. Davidson, Springfield; Charles L. Saunders, Omaha; Otto Lepin, South Omaha; Byron L. Learned, Omaha; Charles McLeod, Stanton; Charles K. Heusinger, Grand Island; J. C. Martin, Central City; F. F. Miller, Utica; C. O. Whedon, Lincoln; Robert R. Kyd, Beatrice; C. B. Anderson, Crete; F. C. Honnel, Hebron; H. G. Thomas, Harvard; A. L. Clarke, Hastings; E. W. Heghtol, Holdrege; J. P. Cordale, McCook.

Our Letter Box

Contributions on Timely Subjects Not Exceeding Two Hundred Words Are Invited from Our Readers.

Are We Downhearted? No! OMAHA, June 16.—To the Editor of The Bee: It is to be regretted that candidates aspiring for congressional honors are so eager to get into the limelight that they will seek to misrepresent at the very outset what will be doing when things are really under way. Quinby has seen fit to rush to Blackburn's aid and thereby trespass upon the space of your paper, mainly to get at us on the democratic side. Does the chancellor not afford him a wide enough circulation to get out of cover? Poor Lebeck and myself have no press back of us, and, of course, start seriously handicapped. Allow me, kindly, through your columns, to refresh at least the memory of my "single tax friend" and call his attention to my challenge issued in the papers to enter into the proper kind of debate on the vital issues, and not impose upon the generosity of the press too much with our individual aims. Quinby says he has been trying to force his democratic opponent to be equally frank. Mr. Quinby, where have you been? Please come out of it, and seal up. Post yourself before rushing into print. Don't start off with the wrong foot. You will surely get tangled up. You need not fear of having Tom Blackburn or any other republican as a foe; better get nominated first, as I may need you myself to handle tickets at the door for me. Read my platform and brush up on the practical side of life, and meet your old friend in a fair way. Don't delude yourself too early in the game. S. ARON LEWIS.
