Trading this week was listless, but there was a steady gain of strength. The old-time drops which were wont to characterize harrow markets were missing.

Upon the return of Mr. Morgan hinges the program for the Equitable Life Assurance society. The question of renewing the trusteeship to replace George Westinghouse and Mr. O'Brien will be settled within the next fortnight. It has been reported in financial circles for some time that Mr. Morgan aims to put the Equitable upon a mutual basis. The fact that he has a project for this gigantic enterprise is pretty shrewdly guessed, but with characteristic faciturnity Mr. Morgan has refused to give an inking of it to the public.

It is pretty certain that Mr. Morgan intends to draw up another voting trust agreement by which three financiers of national prominence will be selected to administer the affairs of the company. The number of the new trustees are not known, but it is believed their tenure of office will not extend over a year. When we come to realize that the gross assets of the Equitable are more than $50,000,000, we grasp the sigantic importance of the enterprise in business and financial circles.

On the present week's currency movement banks gained $8,108,000. On operations of the stack of the company. The ment banks gained $8,108,000. On operations of the control of the enterprise in business and financial circles.

Boys Garden for Valuable Prizes

Two Hundred Youths Engaged in ·the Annual Y. M. C. A. Competition.

The Boys' Garden club, which is conducted under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association, opened its annual exhibition Saturday afternoon at the association headquarters, and over 200 boys have entered vegetables in the prize competition. Sixty dollars in cash and three membership tickets in the Young Men's Christian association are offered as prizes. The members of the club are boys who attend the graded schools of the city, and they must have the sole care of their gardens. Members of the association and outsiders can offer suggestions, but all of the actual work of planting and taking care of the vegetables must be done by the boy who takes part in the contest. The vegetables raised by the boys consist of lettuce, beans, peas, onions, radishes and beets Ten $1 prizes are offered for each vegetable 200 and the membership tickets will be given 200 to the three boys having the best all around 5,000 exhibits. The exhibit opened Saturday afternoon and will remain open until 9 o'clock in the evening. Those who saw the specimens on exhibition say that this year's vegetables far surpass those entered in last year's
