The Way of a Maid. She teld him not to come, and then, Because the poor wretch stayed away, Jeered at the faithlessness of men.

She told him that he must not stay, And then, because the poor man we Would scarcely speak to him next day, went,

She told him he must never dare. To kiss her, and when he obeyed. She wept because he did not care.

These be the strange ways of a maid. That make men old before their time, The mighty weak; the brave, afraid. -Theodosia Garrison, in Puck.

Society is in a diversified state just now, combining as it does both the infomality of the summer season and the formality necessarily attendant upon the most fordings were exceedingly numerous last week Ryan has quite a load to carry during schools. and also of wide interest.

This week the wedding in which society most interested will be celebrated in the east. The wedding of Mr. John Wood Redick, son of Judge and Mrs. William A. Redick, to Miss Florence Heap of Williamstown, Mass., will take place Wednesday at high noon at St. John's church at Williamstown. Mr. Elmer Redick will be beat man and two of the ushers will be from Omaha-Mr. O. C. Redick and Mr. Milton Dean Hill of Illinois, who was Mr. Redick's roommate at Williams college, and Mr. at the wedding.

One of the largest of the events will be the Colo. reception which the Omaha High School alumni will give at the Field club Monday class of 1910.

day, June 27, must be in by June 23 in order that drawings may be made and the play and more interest is evidenced and it is certain to be an interesting meet.

The call of the summer home is being society people. Many are leaving this week for these summer places, which promise all the joys and none of the trials of the much sung season. Others have decided summer at the Peru State Normal. upon the dates of their departures, and their plans may be expressed in the general term, before the Fourth. It is no longer considered unpatriotic to plan to substitute quiet country home observances for the noisy city expression.

Mackinac Island, which is one of the most attractive and exclusive of the country's summer beauty spots, is the Mecca of three of Omaha's families. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze last year purchased a home in the island and will leave with their children today to take up their summer residence there. Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Burgess have taken a home in the island for the summer, and they and their children will leave today. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, who have a beautiful summer home in Mackinac Island, will leave with Misses Alice and Florence Cudahy and Mr. Edward Cudahy, the first of July

Mrs. W. B. Millard has already gone to Sault Ste. Marie, where she has an attractive island estate. Mrs. George Paterson, who will visit Mrs. Millard this summer, has gone to Duluth to meet her son, Mr. Kenneth Patterson, who comes from Andover college, and who will accompany her to Sault Ste. Marie.

Lake Okoboji is another resort popular with Omaha people. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Clarke and family are already established in their cottage, "Ohless," Omaha beach. Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cameron expect to leave the last of this week for their cottage, "Camerola," Fort Dodge beach. Mrs. H. G. Streight and children also leave this week for their cottage on Omaha beach. Mrs. Annella Gilmore, Miss Grace Gilmore and Mrs. George Gilmore go to their summer home, "Lincoln Lodge," this week.

Many of the Okoboji summer colony, however, will not take up their residences there before July. Among these who expect to leave then are Mrs. Eva Wallace and children and Miss Alice Kennard; Mrs. J. W. Carpenter and children; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clark and daughters, Miss Helen, Mary and Virginia Clark; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Guild and children; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kake and Miss Hake.

Many changes will take place in army circles within the next few weeks. The officers and ladies of the Sixteenth infantry at Fort Crook plan to leave the latter part of the week for Seattle, where they will sail for their new stations in Alaska. This regiment has been one of the most hospitable and all of the hops at the post have been attended by guests from Omaha. Several cotillions have been given and these have been among the most brilliant functions of the social season. It is much re gretted that the Omaha people say farewell the officers and ladies of this regiment.
