

THE OMAHA BEE EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORY

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Save Money Print It
Electric Fans—Burgess-Granden Co.
Best Dry Cleaning or garments. Twin City Dye works, 67 South Fifteenth.

1850—National Life Insurance Co.—1910
Charles E. Ady, General Agent, Omaha.

Dr. John J. Foster, Beaumar—Has moved to 516 Brandeis Theater Bldg.

Another Graduate—Through some mistake, the name of John G. Rayley was left out of the list of Omaha High school graduates.

Home Ownership—The hope of every family, Nebraska Savings and Loan association show you the way. 105 Board of Trade Bldg., 15th and Farnam, Omaha.

Into the New Quarter—Payne-Bostwick & Blister Co. have moved into their new office, 618 New York Life building.
The rooms were fitted up especially for the real estate firm, and are among the best appointed in Omaha.

Entertain for Departing Doctor—Mrs.
Charles Thiessen, 2528 Blondo street, was hostess Thursday afternoon, to the Women's Guild of St. John's Episcopal church, the honor guest being the Rev. Dr. Diggs, who leaves for his new charge at New Iberia, La., next Wednesday. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party.

Another Heat Prostration—T. Dic-tometer, a laborer for the city working on the streets at the corner of Sixteenth and Burt, yesterday afternoon was overcome with the heat, making the fourth prostration in three days. When reached by Police Surgeon Loveland, he was in an unconscious condition and was taken to the St. Joseph hospital.

Light Coats for Police—J. J. Donahue, chief of police has ordered that each officer purchase a light weight sarge coat to wear during the hot months. He stated that it would be impossible for the police to attempt to wear their uniforms during the extreme part of the summer, and that they should be provided with light coats by June 25.

Hanscom Park Boys Club—Thrity boys of the Hanscom Park district have organized a club, called the Hanscom Park Boys' club. The charter membership of the club was twelve. All boys over 14 years of age in any part of the city are eligible for membership. The meetings will be held weekly on Tuesdays at 7:30 p. m. The club was organized for the purpose of Bible study and recreation. At the last meeting the following officers were elected: President, Ray Reel; vice-president, John Reel; secretary, Howard Over; treasurer, Ernest Weyerman; ser-gent-at-arms, Walter Weyerman; reporter, Edwin Partridge.

Chris Rasmussen Robbed—Chris Rasmussen, watchman for the Burlington, while on duty last night at the Douglas street crossing, was cut by a colored man and robbed of his watch and chain. According to Rasmussen, who lives at 2707 Q street, South Omaha, the man came up to him and asked the time of the next train to Lincoln. He was about to reply when he was struck and knocked unconscious.
When he recovered he found himself lying in his cabin and his watch and chain gone. The old man was attended to at the police station by Dr. T. T. Harris, and after the cut, some two inches in length, had been dressed was taken to his son's home at 466 Woolworth avenue.

Girl Left Twice
Without a Home

Little Girl is Sent to Orphans' Home as She Has No Home of Her Own.

A little girl, who says her name is Ford, and that she thinks she has a brother named Charlie Ford, somewhere in the world, has just been sent to the home for homeless children in Belleville, Ill. She is but 10 years of age, and has a pitiful little story to tell as one usually hears. It seems that she was born in Omaha and that when she was 2 months old she was adopted by a woman named Jordan. Not long ago the woman died, and for the second time the child has been left alone. She has no idea whether any of her relations are in Omaha or not, but she told Sheriff L. Hawkey of Boone county, Illinois, such a heartbreaking account of her lonely life that he determined to do what he could to help her, and wrote to the chief of police here, to see if some trace of the girl's brother can not be found.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS IN ANNUAL BANQUET

Last Official Gathering of the Year for Students Who Graduate.

Last night at the Paxton hotel the annual banquet of the senior classes of the Omaha High school was held by the graduating class of 1910. The event was the last meeting of the year where the class will be officially together, but only about 150 of the members were present.

The office of brazier was filled by Edward M. Burnham, one of the prominent students, the chief address being given by Principal E. E. Graff of the high school and by Superintendent W. M. Davidson of the Omaha schools. Toasts were responded to by the following:

"History of the Class," Nancy Haas.

"Athletics," Hugh Mills.

"The Family Album," Mildred McDonald.

"Remarks," A. N. Carlsene.

"Our Future," Mary Phillips.

"Unfinished," Philip Payne.

"Our Past," Charles Doud.

"Remarks," Miss Kate McHugh.

"Girls," Warren Howard.

"And Now What?" Richard Barnes.

"Address," Alexander Trimble, president.

Address, Mr. Graff.

Low Rates to the East via Nickel
Plate Road.

New York and return, $25.00. Boston and return, $25.00. Reduced rates to other eastern points. Liberal stopovers. Tickets on sale daily from June 1st. 30-day limit. Inquiry of local agent, or address J. W. Cushing, G. A., 107 Adams St., Chicago.

Counterfeit Dollars

buy trouble, but a genuine quarter buys

Dr. King's New Life Pills, for constipation, malaria and jaundice. For sale by Dr. Weston

Drug Co.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Incidents of the Waning Days of the School Year.

ECHOES OF COMMENCEMENTS

Progressive Projects Outlined for Future Consideration—Proposed

National Aid for Trade Schools.

Harvard university library before going to Boston to the National Education Association. Prof. Crabtree is down for an address before one of the general sessions of the association along with the greatest university presidents in the country. This is a great honor to President Crabtree and to Nebraska, as it is the first time a Nebraskan has ever been on the general program.

A chorus of about 100 voices has been organized and is under the direction of Dr. H. C. House. Mr. House is one of the best musical directors in the state and the organizations under his direction do work of a very high quality. He has also organized a strong glee club, many members of his former clubs being in school.

About 700 students are registered at the Normal and in this number are found many graduate students doing work toward advanced degrees.

Prof. F. M. Gregg gave a lecture at convocation Wednesday morning on the subject, "How to Secure a Headache." Prof. Gregg is a profound student of physiology and hygiene, having written several books on those subjects, and his talk was very illuminating and helpful as well as original.

The Everett Literary society gave the following program Friday evening: Piano solo, Carmie Whifield; reading, Gertrude Ely; vocal solo, Margaret Steiter; sermon, Joseph Goldstein; trombone solo, Gordon Beck.

The June number of the normalite was mailed this week. It has been planned to issue two summer school numbers under the present management.

President D. W. Hayes and Dr. Bart L. Sherrill went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to attend the meeting of the Board of Education.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Tennis club recently Ella Richards was elected secretary-treasurer for the summer. Three courts have been graded and marked off and these hardly accommodate the large number who are ambitious to play this summer.

Prof. Charles R. Weeks of the Department of Agriculture has been honored with an invitation from the president of Amherst Agricultural college of Massachusetts to be one of the speakers at a large rural and educational meeting to be held in Boston during the early part of July.

Normal students enjoyed an interesting spectacle yesterday when one of the stands of bees kept by the biology department swarmed and settled high up in one of the trees in the center of the campus. While those of other countries are under Supt. E. E. Hayes, while those of other counties are under Prof. O. W. Neale of the regular faculty.

The class in supervision and school management is making a careful critical study of administration problems. During the president's absence Dead W. A. Clark conducted the classes. A large number of students were collecting about the scene one member of the department armed with a saw climbed the tree purposefully to remove the branch and lower the bees to the ground. He was just beginning to saw when the branch broke and bees, man, and all fell to the ground. The students scattered, but the bees collected around their queen on the ground and were soon hived.

NOTES FROM KEARNEY NORMAL

Work Progressing Rapidly on North Wing Addition.

Dean W. A. Clark is in Lincoln making arrangements for his daughter, Miriam, who expects to attend the university next year. Miss Miriam is a graduate of the Kearney High school and also of the normal, from which institution she graduated with the class of 1910. She was offered a scholarship in Chicago university, where all the work done in high school and normal will receive full credit. A large number of the present class will attend the university next year and Miss Clark has decided to stay with them in Nebraska.

Then orth wing is progressing rapidly. The building is now ready for the second floor. Twelve masons with tenders are laying brick, and each day concrete floor will require but a few days. The progress of the building is watched with intense interest by students and faculty, as the room it will provide is badly needed.

The large enrollment makes it hard to find suitable rooms for all classes. Beginning early in the morning and working late at night provides reasonable accommodations. An attempt is being made to hold all credit classes down to an enrollment of thirty-two in each division in order to get the best results; this necessitates many divisions. Nine divisions are necessary in the drawing and art department alone. The regular faculty was unable to accommodate the large enrollment and it was necessary to call additional help. Prof. E. M. Husson of Franklin has charge of Agriculture and Civics. Miss Lena Sanders of Lincoln is assisting in the primary model school. Miss Martha Pleas, supervisor of drawing and art in the Lincoln schools is assisting Miss Marion Smith. Miss Sarah Killen, formerly of the Lincoln schools, but recently specializing in Chicago will conduct the rural school observation. Mr. C. R. Gunderson and Mr. Walter Fisher, graduates of the normal, are assisting in orthography and history.

Miss Marion Williams of the Domestic Science department, has a fine class in domestic science for the summer. The cottage is open as in the regular term, and full laboratory work is conducted. This department proved exceedingly popular during the last year. The capacity of the equipment was taxed from the beginning. When the new wing is completed more spacious quarters will be secured.

A large Calkins pottery kiln, Revolution No. 6, has arrived and the work of clay modelling is progressing nicely. Miss Marion Smith secured fine results last year and the larger kiln will increase the effectiveness of the firing process. Miss Pierce is helping in this department for the summer. This work is exceedingly popular with the students. It opens up a new field in Nebraska education.

Mr. and Mrs. John Saunders, who have charge of the boarding department at the Normal dormitory, have plenty to do this summer. They are giving meals to about two hundred and fifty students. They seem in every way equal to the task and are putting up an excellent quality of board at $25 per week. Mr. Saunders has a fine garden, puts up his own lard and is generally prepared for first-class service.

Mrs. Charlotte Lowe left for England

Tuesday evening, accompanying her sister who was visiting in this country, but found it necessary to return home on account of ill health. Miss Lowe's place as primary critic is being taken by Miss Leota Sanders, who is a former graduate of the Normal. Miss Sanders is proving popular as a primary critic.

Miss Edith Lucile Robbins, instructor

in violin music, returned from her home at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her classes at once. Miss Robbins was detailed by the illness and death of her father, Judge A. M. Robbins.

President Thomas returned from the meeting of the board of education on Thursday afternoon. President Thomas made a record run during the last week,

traveling two thousand miles meeting committee engagements and attending the meeting at Chadron, missing only two whole days from school.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instructor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was detailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was de-

tailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge A. M. Robbins.

Mr. Ranken, Mrs. Lucy Robbins, instruc-

tor in violin, returned from her home

at Ord, Monday morning, and resumer her

classes at once. Miss Robbins was detailed by the illness and death of her father,

Judge