

THE BEE'S HOME MAGAZINE PAGE HUMOR

SIDELIGHTS ALONG WASHINGTON BYWAYS

"How happy could I be with either were your dear charmer away?" is the burden of the day of the political troubles of William Loeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York.

On what T. H. has in his mind. On such occasions with recent months Mr. Loeb's discourse has been the perfect illustration of the bit of diplomatic wisdom which always that language was made to conceal thought.

year and a very large increment of glory as a reformer, he is under the necessity of unflinching loyalty to President Roosevelt. To make things about as difficult as they well could be made for an extremely discreet person like Mr. Loeb, he has been selected as "main squeeze" for the occasion of the reception at New York to the returning Roosevelt.

Francis Burton Harrison of New York, who has been responsible for getting into the city the story of his recent notable snub administered by the president. The victim was Representative Charles E. Townsend of Michigan. It happened somewhat in this wise:

period of his service as the official White House goat. A lot of Mr. Loeb's friends have dreamed dreams about running him for governor of New York on his record as reformer of the New York custom house.

But he entirely overlooked the opportunity to present also the Hon. Julius Caesar Burrows, who, clothed in coveted toga and a tailor made suit of senatorial dignity, sat expectant on the platform looking for a chance to get in a word for his own cause.

Flavoring Vegetables, Herbs, Spices, Parsley. It is easy to raise parsley by growing it in a pot in the kitchen window thus to have it always on hand fresh, or the leaves may be kept for a long time if sealed up in a fruit jar and stored in a cool place.

by heating them together in a double boiler, using three tablespoonfuls of cracker crumbs to one and one-half cups of milk.

Fruits and Small Traveling Cases Are Ideal Bon Voyage Gifts. When contemplating giving bon voyage gifts to friends about to sail for Europe, one fact should be borne in mind, and that is that nothing heavy should be presented.

in reducing luggage and keeping down weight will be an acceptable present. For example, silk or cretonne cases for shoes save the traveler constantly searching for brown paper in which to wrap the aforementioned footwear.

As the first impulse is usually to give several new books, the desire must be curbed. Most persons take their own supply of literature, and so extra volumes would be a bother in packing throughout the journey.

Women are beginning to realize the importance of beautifying their eyebrows and understand now that to manicure the nails and massage the face for youthfulness avail little if such important features as the brows are neglected.

WHAT'S THE USE?

COPYRIGHT, 1910, BY THE NEW YORK EVENING TELEGRAM (NEW YORK HERALD CO.). All Rights Reserved.

The Boss of the Establishment He Persuades His Wife She Should Not Be Afraid of Mice.

BY AMERIE MAN. The wife of the Boss of the Establishment was making herself beautiful under difficulties. It is, perhaps, needless to remark that the difficulties were not presented by the lady's countenance.

SHE SAW THE BOSS AND HIS HOST BAWLING MOUSETRAPS.

matrons of which his wife was a proud officer. The Boss knew these functions only too well. There would be music and singing by a young baritone with a cockney accent, whose repertoire was confined to Roumanian or Welsh folk songs.

Large Gloves Will Generally Prevent the Hands from Perspiring

Hands are less likely to perspire in summer if the gloves worn are a little larger than those usually selected. The advantage of large gloves is that the extra size permits of slight entrance of air, which dries the moisture as it exudes.

Things You Want to Know Origin of Famous Phrases.

After a year in the wilds of Africa and a triumphant tour of Europe it may be expected that Colonel Roosevelt has brought back to America a number of new phrases and expressions which will go down in the history of our language as a part of our national life.

Eyebrows Carefully Massaged Give Youthful Expression

Women are beginning to realize the importance of beautifying their eyebrows and understand now that to manicure the nails and massage the face for youthfulness avail little if such important features as the brows are neglected.

Knaw Her Bank Account

"I've not pay your household bills!" Busted the man with the massive head. The fiancee snarled at the threatened his. "Ah, but my love will!" she said.

The Man of Leisure

"When I have breakfast and read such missives as the mail may bring 'This time for golf, Ah, me!' he said. 'This hard work is a tedious thing!'"