THREE DESPERADOES DO WORK

FOUR ARE WOUNDED BY BANDITS

Hundred Passengers Are Relieved of Valuables and Contents of Safe in the Express Car Are Carried Aways.

OGDEN, Utah, June 27.—Three masked bandits held up the second section of Oregon Short Line train No. 1, northbound, which left Ogden at 1:30 o'clock this morning at second street in the northern part of this city. All of the passengers in the train were relieved of their valuables and the express messenger was compelled to deliver over the contents of his safe. The exact amount the robbers obtained has not been ascertained. Two passengers and two trainmen were injured. The robbers drove to second street from Ogden in a buggy. They stopped the train by placing railroad torpedoes on the track. When the engineer brought the train to a stop the lead brakeman went forward to ascertain the cause of the delay and was struck with a revolver by one of the robbers. He was then taken at the point of a gun to the express car and compelled to call to the messenger to open the door. As soon as the door was opened one of the bandits crawled in and commanded the messenger to open the safe. After rifling the safe the robbers turned their attention to the coaches. As they started for the coaches Rear Brakeman N. B. Franklin was met as he was on his way forward. The bandits commanded him to halt, but he disregarded the order and two shots were fired at him. He then stopped and one of the bandits knocked him down. Franklin rolled into a ditch, where he feigned unconsciousness. After seeing that he was not watched he jumped up and ran three blocks to the home of Deputy Sheriff John Hutchens, whom he aroused and informed of the robbery. The deputy hurried to the scene, arriving just as the train pulled out for the main.

The train robbers went through each coach with a deliberation and calmness that showed they were not novices at the game. When Conductor H. L. Williams left the train, he was covered by one of the robbers and ordered back into a coach. While one of the desperadoes stood guard over Engineer Kirkwood, the other two with revolvers drawn, went through the train, ordering each passenger to hand over her valuables. One woman, Mrs. J. H. Hall, was relieved of a pair of diamond earrings, which were torn from her ears. A foreigner, whose name was not learned, was assaulted by the robbers. The man did not understand what was going on and was brutally beaten with the butt of a revolver. After the train had been robbed the desperadoes fired a fusillade of shots in the air to terrify the passengers, got into their buggy and drove away. Sheriff Wilson, together with a small posse, started in pursuit. There were nearly 200 passengers on the train, every one of whom lost something. Officers have been busy all forenoon rounding up suspicious characters. Two suspects are under arrest.

Demand Decree Be Withdrawn Before Negotiations for Concordant Are Resumed Starts Rioting.

MADRID, June 27.—The Vatican's latest note to the Spanish government is regarded as practically an ultimatum. Stock Market Off Two to Four Points

Rumor of Morgan's Death Discounted by His Appearance at Office, but Fall Continues.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The stock market developed a very weak tone today, the explanation not being obvious in any of the known events of the day. Rumors were circulated early that J. Pierpont Morgan had died suddenly or was seriously ill, but the appearance of Mr. Morgan at his office caused it to be assumed that bear activities were responsible for the downward course of prices. This assumption was weakened when the fall in prices was renewed with even greater violence. The stock market was 2 to 4 points lower than their closing prices of Saturday by the middle of the afternoon. The spring wheat crop was the subject of continued solicitude. The unexpected weakness of the market gave rise to a feeling of dread that some bad news was hovering over the market which had not yet become known.

Two Chinamen Dead, One Hurt, Seven Arrested

Deadly War Between Four Brothers and on Leon Tong's Breaks Out anew in New York.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Two Chinamen are dead and one is badly wounded in a homicide which is being investigated by the police. The four brothers, one of whom is the leader of the Tong war, were gathered in forces in Mott street near the intersection of the renewal yesterday of the Tong war in the never-dying Tong war.

Long Island laundryman, was in to succumb to the wounds of a fusillade of shots broke in the street. Four brothers, one of the Tong war, were gathered in forces in Mott street, and the On Leon Tong's, their rivals sore over the murder recently of one of their number, were gathered in forces in Mott street near by and are alleged to have raided the arriving banquets.

The second victim was Sen Jong, shot in front of a store at Mott and Pell streets, where the heaviest shooting occurred. Jing died early today. Chu Pan, the third man to be struck by the flying bullets, is expected to recover. He is under guard in the hospital.

The trouble was unexpected, but the police arrived in time to confine it to the immediate locality, and believe that among the men they grabbed during the melee they may be able to find some guilty participants.

The two dead men were of the Four Brothers and the recent killing of Chow Fook Yuen is said to be considered by fellow Tong members of the dead man among the On Leongs to have been adequately avenged.

Immediately after the shooting a big force of police was thrown into Chinatown and today the district is being strongly guarded to prevent a renewal of the quarrel.

Desperado Kills Three Men and Wounds Three

W. H. Bostwick of Occilla, Ga., Who Defied Officers for Hours, is Finally Killed.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 27.—W. H. Bostwick, the desperado, who killed three men and wounded three at his home near Occilla, yesterday, was found dying in his barricaded house early today when the Fitzgerald company of the National Guard captured the house. He expired within an hour. The five children who were in the house with him were not unharmed. It is supposed a bullet fired during the fight with poses last night struck him. Sheriff J. P. DeLois died today.

The soldiers today kicked in the door and, with drawn revolvers, entered the house. Bostwick was found on the floor, unconscious. The children, terrified, huddled near. It was reported at first that guardsmen had killed Bostwick, but this was denied later.

The affair began Sunday afternoon when an officer went to arrest Bostwick. Later in the afternoon Sheriff McInnis and a posse went after him. After Bostwick killed Chief of Police Steve Davis and Deputy Sheriff Sheffield of Occilla Sheriff McInnis and two deputies fell badly wounded.

A new posse was formed and another attack made. It was known that Mrs. Bostwick had fled with one child, but the father kept the remaining five in the house with him. One of the children he sent out to get the revolver that the dead police chief had dropped, knowing that the posse would not fire on the lad.

The posse of local citizens kept up a fire on the beleaguered man all night. The injured victims of Bostwick's bullets are expected to recover.

Surrender of Prisoner to Rome is Matter of Diplomacy.

FINE LEGAL POINT IS RAISED

Foreign Office at Rome Has Often Refused to Return Italian Citizens Wanted for Crime in This Country.

ROME, June 27.—The foreign office today decided to follow the provisions of the Italian-American extradition conventions and to seek for the extradition of Porter Charlton, leaving it with the American authorities to accept or refuse the request.

With this decision the Lake Como murder case enters the realm of diplomacy, and the outcome of the exchanges between Rome and Washington will be followed with an interest quite outside that attaching to the murder of Mrs. Charlton. As soon as it was known here that the confessed slayer was under arrest in the United States, the ministry of justice recognized the unusual situation in which the Italian authorities were placed and referred the whole matter to the foreign office.

Fine Legal Point Raised. Extradition between the United States and Italy is provided for in the conventions of 1888 and 1894, but Italy has always held that these treaties did not cover the cases of Italian citizens, who, having committed crimes in the United States, escaped to their native country. In such instances the government has insisted that the accused be tried in the courts of their countrymen. Several times requests for extradition of Italian criminals from the American State department have been refused.

In the present case the government determined to put the matter up to Washington. Should the American State department follow the precedent established by this country and refuse the extradition of Charlton, its action will be construed as a recognition of the equity of the Italian interpretation of the extradition conventions providing, of course, that the refusal is not based on the grounds that the prisoner is insane or for any reason other than that he is an American citizen.

Charlton in State of Collapse. NEW YORK, June 27.—Italy's decision to apply for Porter Charlton's extradition, announced today, is believed here to be likely to hasten a decision on the pending question of his mental condition.

Coincident with the news from Rome, word comes from Jersey City, where the confessed wife murderer is confined, pending his arraignment tomorrow on the charge of being a fugitive from Italian justice, that the young prisoner's breakdown of yesterday had been followed by a night of sleeplessness with frequent spells when the youth seemed to lose control of himself and to break into sobs and moans.

His condition today was considered worse than last night, when Warden Sullivan sent in a hurry call for physicians.

Already Charlton has been examined by the group of alienists (Jersey City, where the father, Judge Paul Charlton, to determine his mental state, and Dr. W. J. Arlitz, who saw the prisoner when he was in his state of collapse, declared himself confirmed in the opinion he had previously expressed that Charlton was suffering from a form of dementia.

CUMMINS CALLS BILL GOOD

INSURGENTS LEAVEN IN LUMP

Iowa Declares They Made Railroad Bill Good—Disclaims Any Credit for Postal Savings Act.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 27.—Special Telegram—Senator Cummins, who returned to his home today, said that in his opinion the work of the congress just closed on the whole was excellent and that many good measures are to its credit, though there are some that are not.

"The one measure for which the stand-patters are entitled to full credit is the postal savings bank bill," said Senator Cummins, "and they can have it."

"I think it is fair to say that to the persistent and hard work of the progressive republicans is due the railroad bill, which, as it passed, is good," continued Senator Cummins.

"The bill in its regular form was vicious. It was so constructed as to repeal the anti-trust law; mergers could be effected under it and the old over-capitalization, which has been fought for ten years, was made possible again.

"As to the withdrawal bill and the campaign publicity bill, there were really no serious differences of opinion; every one was for them. The publicity bill is good as far as it goes, but in the opinion of progressives it does not go far enough."

The senator has a number of speaking engagements at chautauquas, but may be compelled to give them up, owing to ill health.

Senator Dolliver is expected to go to Arizona for his health.

Will Test Iowa Coal. The State Board of Control has become convinced that a great saving can be effected in the coal bill of the state by placing testers at some of the state institutions so that the coal received may be tested as received. The state buys 95,000 tons of coal a year. At present there is no way of determining whether the state received its money's worth in coal. At the last bidding the offers were all regarded as too high and a new set of bids will be secured in the hope that the state will save about $10,000.

Rifle Contest in Next. The coming week the state rifle contest of the shooting teams of the Iowa-guard companies will be held at the state rifle range near this city. About 200 members of the guard are expected here to compete in the contest. A large number of trophies are at stake and cash prizes for individuals.

Two Browne Jurors Disagree About Merits of Big Pugilists

CHICAGO, June 27.—At 11 o'clock this forenoon the jury which is considering the Browne bribery case had been out sixty-seven hours. There was no sign of an agreement so far as outward indications showed.

Even in the isolated jury room, where one of the most momentous verdicts in the history of Illinois is being considered the Jeffries-Johnson fight is not forgotten. This developed today when Judge McBurney called the reporters to him.

"Boys," said he, "it is quite useless to guess how the jury stands. Nobody knows. I don't know myself. I see by one of the papers that the jurymen have been engaged in a flat encounter. As a matter of fact there was nothing to it. Two jurors who are agreed as to the verdict got into a friendly argument as to the relative merits of Jeffries and Johnson. This developed into a wrestling match. It was not serious."

Asked how long the jury might stay out, the judge said: "I want to leave the city with my family tomorrow. If they stand six to six at next Friday, probably I will discharge them. If it is eleven to one, or ten to two—something like that—I may hold them still longer."

LEWIS PRAISES THE ROADS

Pathfinder Says Farmers Are to Be Complimented on the Manner in Which They Care for Turnpikes.

The 190 Gliddens raced into Omaha last evening at the end of the longest day's run since the automobile began. Baked by the heat, covered with dust on their mud had later landed and dried, tired, thirsty and ravenously hungry, these automobile enthusiasts were eager to plunge into bathtubs and afterward to eat and sleep. They did not sit around frolicking after the cars were parked their scores turned in and their outer man attended to. The tourists arrived approximately on time.

But although it was a long ride, it was not the toughest, according to the statements of Dal Lewis, the official pathfinder, and others, for the roads from Leavenworth to Marysville proved unusually good.

"The best stretch we have struck yet," said Lewis, "I want to compliment the farmers on the way they have been keeping up the roads. You take and drag a gumbo road and pay a little attention to it and it's great. Why, it was just like slipping along a boulevard."

The fact that nearly all the cars were in Omaha by 7 p. m. attests the statement that the roads were in good shape, for the run yesterday was 242 miles, which is a fairly considerable distance to negotiate in fourteen hours. The pathfinder car left Kansas City at 5 a. m. and pulled into Omaha at 6:30. St. Joseph was reached by Lewis at 9 o'clock.

Many of the automobileists were eager to talk of the injunction sought by Max Parry of the Parry Automobile company, but a lengthy search failed to find any tourist who sympathized with Parry's effort to tie the trip up by court order.

"It's a cheap attempt at cheap advertising," declared Dal Lewis. Harry Caldwell, the official press agent, expressed himself in similar terms.

"Parry," said Caldwell, "has no kick coming. His two cars were heavily penalized because they could not help but be. This, I suppose, made him angry. A little later the referee, A. L. Whiting, heard Parry talking of being intimidated, and the matter came then to a showdown."

"It appears that Parry had got himself appointed an observer on one of the Chalmers cars, which is a strange position for an entrant to hold, anyway. Then while going into town a few days ago this car on which Parry was riding went out of the course a little. The driver, seeing a crowd ahead and a lot of dust, went around another side of the square."

"Parry asserted the others in the car told him they would 'do' him if he told of this. Subsequently and for another cause the car on which Parry kicked was disqualified."

"But Parry seemed disgruntled when his complaint was through out, and Monday morning officials of the run were served with notice that there would be called up in court before Circuit Judge T. H. Seborn of Kansas City an application for a restraining order. The officials appeared, but neither Parry nor his lawyer showed up. The case was continued, but I don't suppose anything more will come of it now."

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 27.—The Glidden tourists passed through here this forenoon. Dal Lewis arrived at 9 o'clock and the other cars were strung out until 10:30, with smooth running. No stop was made here.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 27.—At 5 o'clock this morning the Glidden tourists left here for Omaha, where they expect to stop tonight.

The run today, 242 miles, will be the longest they have made during their trip. Circuit Judge Thomas H. Seborn today declined to grant an injunction against the Glidden tour officials sought by Max Parry of the Parry Automobile company on the grounds that his court had no jurisdiction in the case.

In his petition for an injunction Mr. Parry charged that the officials in assessing penalties had favored the Chalmers car at the expense of his own.

A mild sensation was created in Glidden tour matters Sunday when the technical committee put another contesting car out of the running by disqualifying Chalmers car No. 3. When approaching this control yesterday, 240 miles, Chalmers' car No. 3 was granted permission to leave the course while a fender iron was replaced. At the same time Gardham adjusted a spark-plug. The technical committee claimed that this was a violation of the privilege to leave the course, and disqualified the car. All the rest remained close to the hotel today, enjoying their first day of rest.

The total scores to date follow: For Glidden Trophy—No. 1, Premier, 7; No. 2, Premier, 6; No. 3, Chalmers, disqualified; No. 4, Cole, 1,387; No. 5, Parry, 1,199; No. 6, Cartercar, 1,388; No. 7, Parry, 1,199; No. 8, Gilmer, 1,077; No. 9, Ohio, 1,075; No. 10, Ohio, 1,116; No. 11, Pennsylvania, 1,498; No. 12, Cino, 2,133.

For Chicago Trophy—No. 100, Moline, 12; No. 101, Moline, 400; No. 102, Moline, 25; No. 103, Lexington, 1,372; No. 104, Cole, 2,042; No. 105, Parry, 1,011; No. 106, Fall, 1,099; No. 107, Maxwell, 1,011; No. 108, Cartercar, 2,447; No. 109, Cartercar, 1,099; No. 110, Lexington, 1,001; No. 111, Westcott, 1,068.

The two Cartercars, in trouble two days ago, have reached this control and will continue as non-contestants.
