ATTACKS METHOD OF BOARD

Fred Hoye Declares Saloon Licenses Have Not Been Reduced. HE BLAMES THREE MEMBERS. Fire and Police Commissioner Announces He and Hunter Were Only Members Who Sought to Fulfill Duty. Fred Hoye, fire and police commissioner, discussing the fact that as many saloon licenses have been issued this year as in 1909, said: "The present board was elected, as I believe, on the distinct understanding among the people that the number of saloon licenses would not be increased, but on the contrary would be decreased if the opportunity offered itself. The opportunity to reduce the number of saloons did present itself, because of revocations, the dropping out of two or three old saloons and from other causes. Backed in several instances by Commissioner Hunter, I urged the board to refuse to grant any new licenses whatever and to also refrain from revoking licenses to places at which they had been revoked. In this we were defeated, the vote always standing 3 to 2. Warned Board of Rumors. "Further than this, in an open meeting I warned the board that rumors were circulating about the city to the effect that money could be secured from this board what otherwise could not be secured. I did not say this rumor was true, and I do not believe there is any good basis for it in fact, but it has been going around just the same, and the board suffers in public estimation. The granting of some of these later licenses has, in the minds of many people, given a shadow of color to the assertion that improper influences have been at work, and this I regard as very regrettable. "Commissioner Hunter and myself had hoped to cut down the number of saloons in Omaha, and we made the effort honestly, but we have not succeeded in our aim. The number could have been wisely reduced, in my opinion, and with benefit to all concerned."

Hummel, Has New Solution for the Viaduct Problem

Plans Completed for Securing This Site for Aviation Meet. WORK IS TO START AT ONCE. Street Car Company Offers Large Bonus, Which Gives Sufficient Funds to Start the Stands for Spectators. The committee on arrangements for the Omaha aviation meet will proceed at once to get the Creighton pasture in condition for the event. Building a grandstand will be the principal work to be done, although considerable fencing must be put up and some leveling of ground from which flights will start. Plans for the stand will be drawn at once and probably put in the hands of contractors for bidding early next week. The expense of holding the meet will be considerable, but, on the other hand, receipts from the gate will undoubtedly be large and some good sized subscriptions to the fund have been promised. The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company offered $3,000 if the meet was set for the Creighton pasture, and this money is now assured by the selection of the site at Forty-fifth and Military avenue.

Harney Street Property Sold

Twenty-two feet on Harney street and 1/2 width has been sold by R. E. Westcott to T. J. McShane, who gets the property for $8,000. The land is unimproved. East of it is the property recently bought from the Millards by F. P. Kirkendall.

Produce Exchange Meets

Organization of the Produce exchange has probably gone over until fall, the last meeting having failed to develop a program. The project has not, by any means, been abandoned, but the hot weather has rendered some of the members less enthusiastic.

Novak Will Contest

The contest of the will of the late Mrs. Mary Novak, leaving an estate valued at $4,500 to Ernest P. Dirck, was commenced in county court before Judge Leslie Tuesday morning. The contestants claim the will was signed by Mrs. Novak on her death bed and that undue influence was brought to bear by Dirck.

Jelen as a Judge

James Jelen of City Clerk Butler's staff, has been honored with appointment as one of the judges of the athletic contests to be held by the southern division, Tel Jed Sokol at Granger, Tex., July 3, 4 and 5. This division is composed of the Bohemian athletes of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. Mr. Jelen will leave for Texas on July 1.

Secured Heart Picnic

Rev. Father Judge, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, gave the children of the Sacred Heart Sunday school a trolley ride to River-view park Tuesday morning. There were four big cars and they were packed with happy children, who carried lunches and everything which goes to make up a first class picnic party. The cars left Twenty-fourth and Binney Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and returned from River-view park at 5 p. m.

Must Pay Tax on Autos

The County Board of Equalization will adjourn its annual session Thursday. Those having grievances have only two more days in which to make complaints. Some misunderstanding has arisen regarding listing automobiles for taxation. Many persons have the idea that automobiles purchased since April 1 are not subject to assessment. The board holds that all machines received up to July 1 are taxable and will list all known to have been received up to that time.

Roosevelt Writes to Governors

The board of governors is in receipt of a letter from Theodore Roosevelt, tendering his very cordial thanks to them and to the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben for their kind message of welcome. This letter makes no mention of the letter of invitation and as it notes that Mr. Roosevelt is overwhelmed with correspondence, undoubtedly he has not yet reached the letter, which of course he received later than the telegram. The board is still hoping for a favorable consideration of its invitation.

SUMMER OPERA IN HOMES OF THE PEOPLE

Every Resident of This City Can Hear the Greatest Arias Without Leaving Home. While the new list of Victor Records is always of interest to music lovers, the July list is of unusual interest because it contains a new Caruso-Scotti duet. Certainly no event of the year in musical circles—not even the production of a new opera at the Metropolitan or Manhattan—can equal in importance the issuing of a new Victor duet by these great singers. Comparatively few could hear the new opera production, but music lovers all over the world will soon be enjoying the exquisite blending of these two great voices—not once merely, but as many times as may be wished. This wonderful record Caruso and Scotti have made is the duet, "Love or Fancy," which occurs in Act I of "Madama Butterfly," and the number closes with a splendid climax as Lieut. Pinkerton (Caruso) recklessly pledges the "real American wife" he hopes to meet some day. Fryor's fine new march, "The Arcade Girl," is brilliantly played by Fryor's Band, and this famous organization also renders the melodious "Flying Dutchman Overture," which is in fact a complete miniature drama of Wagner's opera. The ever popular "Glow Worm" is among the offerings in the double faced records. This number is played in a most charming manner by the Vienna Quartet, and the other side of the record contains a new ballad, "My Heart Has Learned to Love You, Now Do Not Say Good Bye," sung by Harry Macdonough and the Haydn Quartet. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is quickly relieved by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This Liniment is equally valuable for muscular rheumatism, and always affords quick relief. Sold by all dealers. Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued: Name and Residence. Age. Merle E. Hollingsworth, Council Bluffs, 25. Alice Jones, Omaha, 20. John H. Madsen, Omaha, 25. Augusta Dellaidotti, Omaha, 20. Howard L. Yerkes, Lawrence, 25. Eleanor L. Marshall, Omaha, 20. Charles Belohavek, Kalston, 25. Marie Winther, David City, 20. Gustava Karsch, Omaha, 20. Margaret S. McDevore, South Omaha, 20. James C. McLeer, Greenback, Tenn., 25. Anna Pollock, Omaha, 20. Orin L. Palford, Savannah, Ill., 25. Ethel Shearer, Savannah, Ill., 25. Hot Weather Suits to order, 24 McCarty-Wilson, 304 South 19th St.

Foundry Moves Its Plant Here

A. E. Shortill Company of Marshalltown Decides to Move to Omaha. The A. E. Shortill company of Marshalltown, Ia., a foundry concern employing 150 men is to be moved bodily to Omaha. Decision to remove has waited only on an endorsement by the Omaha Commercial club, which, through its executive committee, acted Tuesday noon, following careful investigation. The preliminary work was conducted by the industrial committee of the club, J. M. Glass, chairman. The sum of $150,000 in stock is to be placed on the Omaha market, and it is believed that there will be no difficulty in securing this, owing to the excellent condition of the company at the present time and its future prospects.

Elevator Cable Snaps, Man Hurt

Andrew Thompson, Carrying Eggs, Receives Severe Injuries in Fall at Storage Plant. While taking a load of eggs down the freight elevator at the Omaha Ice and Cold Storage company's plant, Andrew Thompson, 315 Marcy street, head butter maker for the firm, was severely injured by the breaking of the cable. Fred Sage, another employe, was on the elevator at the time it fell and escaped uninjured, while Thompson's left arm was broken, his back badly wrenched and his face cut. The man was taken to the Omaha General hospital, where his wounds were attended. It is not thought they will prove serious unless internal injuries develop. The shock threw Thompson upon his back and arm. While not in an unconscious condition he was suffering intensely when reached by his fellow workmen.

Bullet, Victim Thought Suicide

Antone Martineck is Found Dead in Bed with Wound in Head and Gun Near. Antone Martineck, 56 years old, was found dead with a bullet wound in his head and revolver at his side in bed at his home, First and Spring streets, about 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. Evidence pointed to suicide, but the man's family was unable to tell of any motive which might have prompted him to his act. Martineck was a laborer and in good health. He was discovered by his wife and son. Coroner Crosby took charge of the body and announced he would hold an inquest in the case at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

RAILROAD NOW TO PINGREE

Big Townsite Opening on Second of July to Be Conspicuous Idaho Event. PINGREE, Idaho, June 28.—(Special Correspondence.)—The Oregon Short Line Railroad (Union Pacific) is striving with might and main to complete its line to here before the opening of the Townsite of Pingree next Saturday, July 2d. The railroad company has no hesitancy in saying it will be finished probably tomorrow. Special trains are to be run on the day of the opening. People here are to be placed on the market and figures that are most certain and low. Its people who are wanted here and the best and quickest way to get them is to offer bargains. That's why lots worth considerable right now will be sold Saturday at about one-half their value. Bingham county is the heart of which Pingree is located, took many first prizes of vegetables and grains at the National Corn exposition, the National Horticultural Exhibit and the Alaska-Yukon Exposition. All the surrounding country has been taken up and Pingree will be active from the start. A $2,000 hotel and a $15,000 business block has been completed; 2,000 shade trees are being set out. The Pingree Townsite Company now owns all these 130 lots, but in addition has vast acres surrounding the town which will be disposed of in tracts practically any size desired. Great interest is shown in this immense sale. People realize their big chance to make a small piece of money quickly and turn a good profit.

Drives Mother Out with Dagger

G. Straus Gets Ninety-Day Sentence on Charge of Brutality to Eighty-Year-Old Woman. Upon evidence that he had driven his 80-year-old mother from the house at the point of a dagger, G. Straus, 312 Pine street, was sentenced to ninety days in jail by Judge Crawford, Tuesday morning. Members of the family caused the arrest of Straus Monday night with a story of remarkable brutality. It was alleged that the man had lived at the home of his mother for two years, never working himself to earn any part of their support. He ordered the aged woman out to get something, it was said, and upon her failure to comply, he drove her from the house at a late hour. "You are the most brutal fellow that has come before me for a year," declared Judge Crawford to the trembling prisoner. "I wish I could sentence you to the penitentiary." The testimony of Mrs. Straus, who doesn't speak English, was interpreted by the step-daughter. The defendant trembled so violently he could hardly pronounce his denial.

Asks Change in State Oil Rates

Victor E. Wilson Files Petition that Same Rates as in Kansas Be Made. Victor E. Wilson, a state representative from Polk county has filed a petition with the railroad commissioners of Nebraska in which he makes application for the same rates on oil in this state as are in effect in Kansas. There was a big fight on oil rates in Nebraska a year and a half ago, and after a thorough investigation of the case by the commissioners, the then existing rates were reduced 30 per cent. Railroad men look upon the Kansas rates as absurd and do not think that the commission will seriously consider the advisability of putting the Kansas rates into effect in Nebraska.

Money Packages Are Missing

Two Bundles Containing Six Thousand Dollars Stolen from U. S. Express Company. Officials of the United States Express company are in a dilemma over the theft of $6,000 from the local offices last Friday. It was discovered Friday evening that someone had made away with two money packages containing $4,000 and $2,000, respectively, but no evidence could be found to indicate the identity of the thief. It is believed that an employe of the office appropriated the money and has hidden it in a safe place for his future attention and continues to work at his regular position to allay suspicion. No arrests have been made.

Daughter to Get Krug's Fortune

William Krug Left No Will—Friends Say Estate Amounts to About Five Hundred Thousand. It transpires that William Krug, the wealthy brewer who was killed in an automobile accident last week has left no will and all his property will therefore go to his surviving daughter. Friends who profess to know figure that the estate will aggregate somewhere near $500,000, of which $45,000 will be paid in by insurance companies—$25,000 life and two $10,000 accident policies. The business of the Krug brewery, which is a corporation, will continue as heretofore, the responsibility for the active management in all probability being divided between the two brothers, Fred and Albert.
