SACRIFICES WIN FOR OMAHA

Cadman and Schipke Save Day in Twelfth Inning.

Keeley's Single Also Contributes Toward Victory Won from Wichita by Score of Eight

Schipke's fly to center in the twelfth, just at the time when it would do the most good, brought in the winning run for the Rourkes yesterday afternoon and gave Omaha the closing game of the Wichita series by a score of 8 to 7.

The first few innings were common ordinary base ball, without any of the excitement an audience pays its good money lo witness, but along about the seventh things began to happen and it was tooth and nail from then on. Keeley and Jarnigan, twirlers for twelve acts, both did good work and kept a steady gait all the way through. Jarnigan had the better of the argument according to the dope sheet, but Keeley held the Jayhawkers in the pinches and won out in the strenuous finish of the twelfth inning. Wichita had tied the score in the eighth by making two runs, and from that time to the end neither side had been able to get a man across the plate; although it looked mighty shaky for the Rourkes on game and many a fan stayed until nearly seven bells and then had to square himself at home. Wichita was first to but in the last inning and made one run. With two down Shaw singled and when King let the ball slide through his legs, he went on to third. Jarnigan hit what looked like the winning ball when he landed a hot one into the middle garden for two sacks, scoring Shaw. But the collegian was soon caught napping and it was Omaha's turn. Gonding, who had taken Kane's place at first, his safe, his second in the half game. Cadman executed a sacrifice, putting Shotten, who ran for Gonding, on second. Thompson drew a pass and Keeley hit a long single which scored Shotten and tied the score. Singger Bill was next up and he hit a long fly to Belden. Shotten waited until the ball was caught and then scooted for home. It was a close race, but Mulin was saved the necessity of makin a decision on a close play when Shaw missed the ball on the bound and the game was over. The score: AB. R. H. O. A. E.

Notes of the Game. Denver comes today.

Jarnigan demenstrated that he could but as well as pitch, and hit two pretty doubles, when they counted. Keeley was hit hard, seventeen safe ones in all, but got out of some tight holes, when the crowd was yelling for Pa to send in a new thrower.

Welch made another of his pretty throws to the plate, catching shaw in the tenth and saving the game. He has improved wonderfully on that throw of his. Kane was hit by a pitched ball on the right arm and retired in the fifth in favor of Gonding, who put ginger in the team by his chatter around the initial sack.

It looked as if King's error in the twelfth was fatal, when he let Shaw's single scrot by him and roll on to the fence, but the family rallied to the rescue and got the run back. Jarnigan made a miscue after he had hit his second double. When Keeley passed Belden, Jarnigan got it in his head, he was entitled to go to third and was caught leisurely strolling along.

Manager Bill made a wise move, when he put Shotten in the run that tied the score it was his first appearance for over a week.
