MORE RAIN NEEDED FOR PASTURES, LATE REPORT

Recent Rainfall Helped a Little, but Farmers Declare Mach More is Needed Throughout State.

More rain will be of great help in Nebraska. Not only for corn and wheat, but for pastures. The recent rains helped a good deal, but if pasture in particular is to be safe there must be a further deluge. At present cream is coming our from the farmers in good quantities. The farmers are, however, holding onto their corn, but in the face of this, receipts by the Omaha Grain exchange have picked up a little.
