GOULD FAMILY WINS SUIT Different Members Given Judgments Aggregating Four Millions Against Texas Road.

DEBARKING. June 30.—In the crowded car of the Mercantile Trust company of New York, trustees, the Farmers Loan and Trust company, George C. Gould, et al., complainants, against the International & Great Northern Railway company, heard yesterday before William F. Flippen, special master in chancery, common claims aggregating several million dollars were allowed against the railway company. The larger claims allowed were: Gould estate, $3,698,784.93; Frank J. Gould, $183,941.48; George Gould, $128,534.84; and in the last four years increased their lead to three lengths and won by that margin.

CRIMSON OVER YALE BLUE (Continued from First Page.) coxswain raised the stroke, Yale to 23 and Harvard to 20. Then the New Haven youngsters showed the first signs of weakening. Slowly the Harvard shell crept ahead until with only a quarter of a mile to race left the Cambridge crew led by half a length.

HYMENEAL. A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Meigs, when their daughter, Vera, became the bride of Mr. C. Petrus Peterson of Wahoo. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock, by the Rev. C. A. Turnquist. Miss Martha Wesin sang "Oh, Promise Me," after which, to the strains of the Lohegrin wedding march, played by Miss Signe Christensen, six girls, carried a rope of similes, formed an aisle through which the bride party passed to the improvised bower of palms and ferns.

Kimball-Winsor. MITCHELL, S. D., June 30.—(Special.)—Dr. George G. Kimball and Miss Florence Winsor were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. F. B. Barnett, rector of the Episcopal church. The bride couple are two of Mitchell's popular young people, and both stand high in the community. They left on the evening train for the Twin Cities and go east for an extended wedding tour. A modern residence will be completed by the time of their return for their occupancy.

Father-Wallace. Miss Emma E. Wallace, daughter of Lemuel B. Wallace, and Mr. William B. Fuller were married by Rev. Charles W. Savage at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday. The attendants were Mr. John F. Struck and Miss Mary Carroll. The marriage took place at the new home of the contracting party, 297 Ellston avenue. A small company of guests was present. A wedding supper was served.

RAIL COMPANY'S SHOWDOWN

Railroad Commission Seeks to Learn Its Authority.

SUIT AGAINST GREAT WESTERN

Point at Issue, Whether Road Must Accept Loaded Coal Cars of Other Companies as State Business.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Attorney General H. W. Byers today instituted suit in the district court that will in effect test the authority of the Iowa Railroad commission and determine the exact difference between state and interstate commerce in certain important cases.

Jewelers' Officers. The Iowa Jewelers' association elected the following officers: President, H. Neilson, Fort Dodge; vice president, John Hinds, Iowa City; secretary, Fred Shephard, J. M. Goldstone of Bennett. The optometrists elected the following officers: President, George A. Feige, Des Moines; vice president, H. Replogle, Shenandoah; secretary and treasurer, George L. Goodale, Lenox.

Parade for Missionary. Miss Annette Newcomer of Des Moines, for twelve years state secretary of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was presented with $600 by the Iowa Christian convention in session at Boone, to take a trip around the world, in which she will visit many Christian missions, she will leave Des Moines this fall on her trip.

Rate Question Interest. The announcement of the decision of the Interstate Commerce commission in ordering a reduction of freight rates in the western territory created much interest among shippers here. The local shippers are preparing, through the office of the attorney general, to commence suit in federal court to open up the question of freight rates and to get in some manner before the courts or the commission the issue of alleged discriminations against Iowa Iowa points. They regard it possible that the last decision of the commission will make a change in the situation, but they are going ahead with preparations to make a showing as to discriminations. They were disappointed that the roads did not restore the old rates prior to June 1, as had been promised when the federal suits were dismissed, but say that this will not affect their suits.

Bank Change. The secretary of state received notice of an increase in the capital of the Iowa Savings bank, Fairfield, from $50,000 to $100,000. The German State bank of Wall Lake, capital $25,000, was organized, with C. M. Hering, president, and W. N. Clausen, cashier.

Cancel Chautauqua Engagements. Senator Cummins today canceled all his chautauqua engagements prior to July 30, owing to ill health. He came home after the arduous work of congress and found he was nearly broken down. His doctor has advised him to make no speeches all summer.

Opposed to New Constitution. The temperance forces of the state find themselves suddenly divided in the matter of how to proceed to secure state-wide prohibition in Iowa. The representatives of the Anti-Saloon league have issued a statement to the effect that the most important thing is to secure a constitutional convention next winter. The representatives of the amendment association and of the prohibition political party are out in denunciation of this scheme and say they will fight it. They say the most important thing is to secure a convention and there would be no assurance of a good constitution.

Moving to Repeal Law. It is expected that at the county convention to be held Saturday resolutions will be adopted by many of them in opposition to the primary system of making party nominations, thus paving the way for repeal of the entire law. There were a great many who opposed the primary at the outset and who have never been satisfied with it. The greatest opposition is in southern Iowa, where in many counties the old system of holding "mass conventions" prevailed and where county primaries had never been held. The friends of the law will, however, make resistance to any move for repeal. Some amendments will be made to the law.

Quarrel Among Democrats. Senator DeArmand's opponent is out in an interview denouncing Judge M. J. Wade for his attitude in the recent primary in support of I. S. Pepper of Muscatine, when according to the Scott county senator, Pepper had promised to support DeArmand. He accused the democratic national committeeman of bossism and betrayal.

BLEACHED FLOUR EXHALES THE BLEACHING GAS

Dr. Alway Says, However, It Does Not Affect Unbleached Flour in Same Room. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 30.—Federal Judge Smith today told the attorneys in the bleached flour trial today that the case must be brought to a close as soon as possible. The trial has been in progress for more than three weeks and Judge McPherson complained that too many corroborative witnesses are being introduced.

FATAL AFFRAY AT TAHLEQUAH

C. E. Pratt, Banker, Shoots Former United States Deputy Marshal Terry. TAHLEQUAH, Okl., June 30.—The culmination of the rivalry of C. E. Pratt, cashier of the bank of Kansas at the town of Tahlequah, Okl., shot and fatally wounded Robert Terry, a former United States deputy marshal here today. Pratt was in the collector's booth and
