NEBRASKA CITY—Nebraska City is making big preparations for a big celebration on the city June 29. The celebration will be held at the new city park, where auto races will be held for the big purses which have been hung up. The big league teams will play a double-header that day.

CAMBRIDGE—The harvesting of the wheat crop has begun in this section of the state, and while the crop will be light, the local grain dealers, who have carefully investigated the conditions, think there will be a greater yield and a much better quality than many of the farmers reported. The condition of the wheat could not be better at the present time.

Yesterday morning he got away and laid down on the railroad track, presumably with suicidal intent.

GENEVA, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—J. R. Cain, Jr., is considering entering the campaign for re-election as senator from Richardson and Pawnee counties again this fall. Heretofore the candidate has alternated each year between the two counties, but Pawnee seems willing to stand aside this year and let Richardson have the senator for two terms.

GENEVA, Neb., July 1.—(Special.)—During the Wilber-Geneva ball game yesterday afternoon Tom Clements of Wilber became offensively loud and when called down by Sheriff Ashton he abused that officer. The sheriff arrested him and brought him to town. He was tried before County Judge Fulton and fined.

AXTELL—There is considerable talk about moving the Swedish Lutheran church from its present location, three miles southeast of Axtell, to this village. Recently the church, which was used in this village, was burned to the ground. A few years ago a daughter of the family was drowned, and just a year or two following her tragic death a son was shot and killed, accidentally, and now Mr. Wolfers and his other son are both lying seriously ill from injuries received in an auto wreck while they were enroute to Chicago the early part of the week. Mr. Wolfers is president of the Hopkins bank.
