NEBRASKA CROPS SPLENDID

Campbell Reports Small Grain Ripe and Being Cut.

SEED TESTING OF GREAT VALUE

Places Where the Seed Was Tested Show Better Stands of Corn—State Has Had an Abundance of Rain.

"Anyone who visits the Platte valley between Kearney and Grand Island at this time would agree with Chancellor Avery of the University of Nebraska when he said at the Corn show last year, 'It is the most beautiful valley I have ever seen, and I have visited the famous valleys of the world.'" said Will A. Campbell of the Commercial club publicity bureau, who returned Friday from a trip through central Nebraska.

"Small grain is ripe and being cut. It is in excellent condition. The second cutting of alfalfa is now being made and it is more luxuriant than ever.

"While the corn looks good, we did not see a field in a fifty-mile automobile drive but what showed the effects of weak seed. In some places there were three sizes of corn in one field, showing two replantings.

FESTIVAL OF THE BRIDES

Play is superbly staged at Washington Hall and meets with hearty approval.

A large attendance graced the performance of the "Festival of the Brides" at Washington hall Wednesday night. Besides the play a number of solo and duet numbers were rendered by various of the participants.

The stage was splendidly decorated and the costuming of the young women who took part, lent a pretty effect. Dancing terminated the evening of pleasure. The play was produced under the direction of Mrs. Sillas Johnson, who designed the beautiful costume effects.

Champ's Double

Catch Sight of Big Ebony Chauffeur and Set Up "Jack Johnson" Shout.

When a big touring car swung along the Central boulevard, driven by a large negro of real ebony coloring, it attracted the attention of all the kid ball players in that section. The car was proceeding very leisurely, unlike most autos, whose drivers seemingly take a keen delight in raising a dust to obscure the sun, which is no trick at all in that neighborhood.

"Hello, Jack Johnson!" shouted one urchin, up at the California street end of the boulevard. The cry attracted the attention of every lad within half a mile, seemingly, and they went streaming after the big auto with yells of circus-like character.

"Dat ain't Jack Johnson," panted one racing youngster, as he got on a level with the auto driver, who was grinning until his teeth looked like a headlight in a dark landscape.

"Tis too, you mut!" gasped another boy, running even.
