Denver, 74 Omaha, 4

Omaha, S; Denver, 2, Omaha and Denver broke even in the double-header Sunday, afternoon and each annexed a win to their lists. Denver won the first and Omaha took the second.

The Rourkes had the score tied up in the eighth in the thrat game and were going at a pace that seemed would win, but suddenly in the ninin when the Grizzlies were at but something started error making and when the summary for the round was anpounced it was found that Omaha had given the Mountaineers three runs. An error by Perrine, who came to fill in the cripples place at second, and one by McNell, recently obtained from St. Joseph, and one by Gonding were the causes of the three

Sanders opposed Schreiber on the slab and pitened a fine game. Cadman was went in to but for him in the eighth and Hollenbeck finished the game,

The second game was better all the way along . The Rourkes jumped onto Ehman in the fifth and lambasted him for four hits which netted three runs. In the next Ehman gave thre bases on balls, which filled the corners of the lot, and Cadman whanged out a three-bagger over third that cinched the game.

Denver did not score until the sixth, when one was made off a single and s triple. Rhodes was in the box and had a shade the better of Ehman. In the ninth, though, after Lloyd had singled. Waldron laced out a homer over the right field

Sanders was the assisting kid in the first contest. He get cight assists without mak-ing an error or much fuse. McNeil, who played at third in Captain McNeil, who played at third in Captain Schipke's place, showed more speed than he did when here with St. Joseph. He jumped in front of Cornidon several times to field the ball and mussed the play up.

Nig Perrine, who was with the Rourkes for a short time last season, played at second base Sunday. He did not show his reputed speed, due probably to the fact that he favors the leg injured last year.

Coders same to the results in the sixth

Cadman came to the rescue in the sixth session when runs were needed to cinch the same. He sianumed out a pretty three-sacked along the third base line that brought in three men who had been passed by Ehman.

Archie Persons, the new outfielder re-cured from California, made a hit with the fans when he brought in Gonding in the eighth innings of the first game when a batting rally was attempted. He plays a clean game in the field.

King sild into record in the second in-ning of the second name and broke one of the bones in his hand. He went out into the field the next inning, but when he caught one fly he had to give up, and Thompson was called and the injury was
