

CLAIMMONT.

AN ADDITION TO THE CITY OF OMAHA

CLAIMMONT AT LAST

For twenty years we have been trying to purchase what is known as the Creighton tract of land at the intersection of Military and Institute Boulevards (45th Street.) All things considered, it was even twenty years ago altogether the most desirable tract of land for division into residence lots in the City of Omaha.

We at last made the purchase on a basis which enables us to offer the lots at prices that we can confidently recommend. There is nothing else like it, high, sightly and beautiful, commanding a view of the river and the bluffs in Iowa, miles away.

Right in town. Street railway on two sides of it, with four minute service. Boulevard 150 feet wide traversing it from one end to the other. Park board will begin work on new boulevard at once. Reasonable restrictions as to the cost of buildings. Prices range from $300 to $700. Terms, $10 to $25 a lot cash, balance $7.50 to $15 a month. Never before has such high class property been offered at so low a price and on such easy payments.

Let us put our time against yours and show you this property. Take the Benson or institute car line or call at our office. Representatives will be on the ground to show property from 4 p. m. till dark every day till all are sold.

Wayne School Start Made Possible by Decision.

CHANCE FOR CHADRON, TOO

Board Will Meet at Peru July 27 to Elect Faculty Members—Democratic Committee in Rev.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, July 7.—(Special.)—The Wayne Normal school purchased by the state will be opened September 19. This is made possible by a decision from Attorney General Thompson just filed with the board in which he holds that it is legal to use the remainder of the $50,000 appropriated for the purchase of the school to maintain it.

The board will meet July 27 at Peru for the purpose of electing the rest of the faculty and completing the details of the work in opening the school. At this meeting it will also open the bids for the Chadron Normal. On July 28 at 10 a. m. the grand lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons will lay the cornerstone of the new administration building. Henry Gibson of Kearney, the deputy and acting grand master, in charge. It is also the closing of the large summer term. Senator E. J. Burkett will be the speaker and by request will give his well-known letter, "The New Woman and the Young Man."

The board has under advisement a plan by which it may be possible also to open the Chadron Normal this fall.

Varner Signed Statement No. 1.
L. A. Varner did sign statement No. 1, though he is credited in the newspapers with having failed to sign it. Mr. Varner lives at Sterling and is a republican candidate for state senator. He sent in his application to have his name placed on the ballot in a special blank which contains the statement to be signed.

Democracy to Meet Tuesday.
When the democratic state committee meets next Tuesday afternoon there may be a very lively fight pulled off. The object of the meeting, as set out in the call, is for the purpose of selecting a temporary chairman of the state convention. But there probably will be other matters taken up and discussed. Usually the executive committee selects the temporary chairman, but this position is so important at this time that democrats that Chairman Brynes did not want to take the responsibility of having the chairman selected by the executive committee, so he called in the entire committee. Mr. Bryan is figuring on starting on a political speaking tour of the legislative districts Monday, so it is no certain that he will be here to impress his views on the committee.

Band Mustered Out.
The second regiment band, located at St. Paul, has been mustered out of the service of the National Guard. This action was taken by Adjutant General Hartigan at request of the band members, as so many had resigned there were only nine or ten members left.

Private Promoted.
Privates Joseph F. Cole and John W. Newman of Company H, Second regiment, have been elected first and second lieutenants respectively.

Not Ready to Talk.
Governor Shallenbarger returned to his office this afternoon after having attended the meeting of stockmen at Alliance. "I have not yet read the statement given out by Mr. Bryan," the governor said in answer to a question. "I shall read it after I have answered some correspondence." The governor said he would have nothing to say about the statement today.

Hartigan Issues Order.
Adjutant General Hartigan has issued the following order:
1. The rifle and revolver teams authorized by general order No. 2 will report at the state range on July 13, 1910. Company commanders will send with rifle teams from their commands a detail of one enlisted man as marker, and all will be equipped for field service. Tentage and subsistence will be provided at the range.

2. The commanding officer of the hospital corps will detail one medical officer, one noncommissioned officer and two privates to report at the range on July 13, 1910, with necessary medical supplies and equipment.
3. The commanding officer of the signal corps will detail one noncommissioned officer and five privates to report at the range on July 13, 1910, with necessary equipment for the installation of telephone service on the range.

4. The following officers are assigned to duty: Executive officer, Brigadier General J. C. Hartigan; chief range officer, Major E. H. Phelps.
I Would Bar Fight Pictures.
If there is any law by which I can stop the exhibition of the Johnson-Jeffries prize fight pictures I shall certainly prevent them being shown in Nebraska.

"I shall consult the attorney general tomorrow and see just what the law is and what we can do. I am opposed to the exhibition of such pictures."

Saunders' Name Filed.
Charles L. Saunders of Omaha filed his name today as a candidate for congress in the Second district. Mr. Saunders is a republican and this is his second trial for the nomination.

Bryan Will Run County.
It was announced this afternoon that Mr. Bryan would deliver a speech at the county convention Saturday afternoon. He will attend as a delegate from Normal. While there is opposition here to an endorsement of county option, it is generally conceded it is not strong enough to prevent Mr. Bryan from having the convention do as he pleases.

WORK ON FLEDGE MURDER
Officers in Charge of Inquiry Expect to Make Arrest Within Day or Two.

OMAHA, Neb., July 7.—(Special.)—The investigations in the Fledge murder case are going on quietly and with some success. Detectives Smith and Davenport were here consulting with County Attorney Kingsbury and they feel hopeful that soon they will be able to let the public into their confidence.

Most of the theories have been given up. It is believed that robbery was the motive, and that the criminal belongs to the locality of the crime. William Fledge, brother of the murdered woman, brought the detectives to Ponca for the interview with Kingsbury. It is expected that an arrest will be made soon.

Dahlman's Hit in Reminiscence of Sand Trails

Mayor Tells Stock Growers' Convention He is Proud of "Cowboy" Title.

ALLIANCE, Neb., July 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The third session of the stock growers' convention was poorly attended yesterday, this being probably due to the fact that the people are tired out with the continual grind of festivities.

Frank E. Beemer of Kearney, candidate for congress, and Willis F. Reed of Madison, candidate for the United States senate, on the democratic ticket, were introduced to the association and each made a short speech.

Mayor Dahlman of Omaha was then introduced and spoke for an hour. His speech was for the most part anecdotal and reminiscence of his early days in his part of the county. He was vigorously applauded before, during and on conclusion of his speech.

He touched upon the way he was frequently criticized by the press, citing the incident of roping Bryan in New York and a cab horse on Broadway, and said that he was very proud of this accomplishment and that when he was ironically referred to as "Cowboy Jim," he was proud to think that he could honestly claim title to the epithet. He eloquently expounded his principles of home rule and concluded by extending a cordial invitation to the stockmen to visit Omaha.

The session was then adjourned to afternoon. President H. M. Hampton and other officers for the ensuing year were elected.

TURTLE MEETS AN OLD FRIEND

Impressive Greeting Given to the Man Who Carved "1886" on His Shell.

Although a large turtle and Hillard Throckmorton of Upper Missouri, N. D., had not seen each other for twenty-two years, the turtle, when it met Mr. Throckmorton yesterday, recognized him and showed its affection. In the meanwhile, Mr. Throckmorton had grown from a boy to a man. The turtle had increased in size from a small-sized turtle to a twenty-pound candidate for the soup pot.

When Throckmorton was a boy he spent a summer at Green Pond. Then he caught the turtle and cut his initials and the date, 1886, in the shell. The turtle showed a great fondness for him even then, but one day, tired of being cooped up, it made its escape.

Throckmorton looked for it, and failing to find it gave up the hunt. Yesterday he went to bathing. Thousands of persons have gone swimming in Green pond since the time the turtle was caught and branded, but it was the first swim Throckmorton had had in the pond in twenty-two years.

He was swimming about yesterday when he felt something grasp his toe and throw a pair of legs around the calf of his leg. He yelled for help, and made for the shore, swimming the best he could with his one free leg. When he got to shore campers came to his aid.

The turtle had taken a firm hold on his leg. As Herbert Crutcher and Andrew Tlemann, fellow campers, with a poker and a cold chisel, worked to get its jaws open, Throckmorton looked at the back of the reptile. There cut in the shell was "H. T., 1886."

Tears came into the eyes of Throckmorton as he thought of the affection of the creature and of how it had recognized him as the friend and playmate of the years ago. He spoke to it, telling it to let go, and about the same time its jaws were pried apart by one of the pair with the cold chisel.

"Think of it! It knew me after all these years," said Throckmorton. "It came to me as soon as I went into the water," and he petted it affectionately with the cold chisel until he nearly cracked its shell as his joy in having recovered the long-lost pet of his boyhood.

Woman's Work

Activities of the Organized Bodies Along the Lines of Undertaking of Concern to Women.

A motor car ride to Calhoun was the treat enjoyed Thursday morning by twenty-six of the children of the Social Settlement Vacation school. The party started at 9 o'clock, going by the Century road, and every bit of the trip was much enjoyed, even the few raindrops which sprinkled them just before they reached the settlement house at noon.

The cars were donated by Mrs. J. A. Sunderland, Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick, Mrs. E. W. Nash and Mrs. G. W. Noble.

Each day emphasizes the important need which the Visiting Nurse Open Air Camp for Babies meets in summer life. Each day new babies join the number of those placed in the care of the nurses at the camp where fresh air aids the skilled care in restoring good health. At present there are seven babies at the camp, two of whom are quite ill. There are each day numerous calls of inquiry and the number of little patients increases. Twelve can be accommodated comfortably but, if more apply, room will be made for them and accommodations increased. The nurses' tent and the supply tent are now about completed.

An empty trunk or chest of drawers in which to keep supplies is a present need of the camp and a gift of one or both would be much appreciated.

Mrs. Dorey, Miss Kelly and Miss Sweeney and Miss Andrews are now at the camp looking after the little people. During the day the mothers of the babies are there, both assisting and learning how to care for the little ill people. The babies themselves seem to appreciate their good fortune in being so well cared for and express their feeling by being for the most part quiet.

The picnic which was the Fourth of July celebration for the children of the Creche is to be the first of a series of picnics. The directors at the July meeting decided to see that the children had a picnic every three weeks. The outings are to be in charge of different members of the board and are to be held in the different parks. According to present plans the president, Mrs. T. L. Kimball, will have charge of the next picnic.

By invitation of the children themselves, Mr. Farnam Smith was the potentate of the festivities Fourth of July. Passing the Creche, the children, who look upon Mr. Smith as their most special friend, hailed him with the information that they were going to have a picnic. Upon further talk about the picnic Mr. Smith asked to be included in the plans, and then took hold and made it his picnic, taking the twenty-five children and the five caretakers to Riverview park, providing the picnic began in the morning and lasted all day.

Hardships of Modern Explorers.
The Arctic explorer smilingly met the first delegation of Eskimos.

"Howdy?" he said, as he opened a stout canvas sack. "Permit me to show my friendliness by offering you a choice assortment of mixed gundrops."

To his surprise the delegation scowled darkly.
"Gumdrop no good," said the igloo chairman. "Too much gumdrop. Make blubber man slocks. All time gumdrop. Bah! Why no chocolate cream? Like chocolate cream. No like gumdrop."

The unhappy explorer realized with a sickening sensation that he must return home for a supply of the coveted luxury.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
