Sleeping Car Order Suspended

Circuit Court of Appeals Holds It Up Pending Rehearing as to Its Justice.

CHICAGO, July 8.—By an order of the United States circuit court of appeals here today reduced sleeping car rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission cannot go into effect for several months. Judges Seaman, Grosscup and Baker granted a stay order pending a rehearing by the commission as to the justice of its judgments.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Some weeks ago the Pullman company and certain roads operating their own sleeping cars sought an injunction to restrain the carrying out of effect of reduction order. This was denied. A re-hearing by the commission, however, was allowed.

In the present instance new evidence was placed before the court to show that in some cases sleeping cars were operated at a loss at present rates. The Santa Fe was alleged to lose $86,000 a year, on one train. The St. Paul road declared that it operated its sleeping cars at an annual loss of $500,000.

The court ordered that the companies affected furnish a bond to the court out of which passengers paying the present rates shall be reimbursed should the commission, upon re-hearing adhere to its first position and insist on the reduction.
