EATON GOES TO ST. PAUL

Iowa Railroad Commission Sends Him to Act for Body.

MACHINISTS GIG BACK ON STRIKE

Rock Island Workmen Were to Have Walked Out Monday, but Valley Junction Men Refuse.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., July 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Iowa Railroad Commission will be represented by Commissioner Eaton in the joint meeting of commissioners of Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and the Dakotas at St. Paul Friday, where it is expected to take steps looking to concerted action in regard to the increase of rates to western points on the railroads.

Trouble Goes to Committees. The master builders and the union carpenters today selected committees to dispose of their troubles by arbitration.

Machinists Will Not Strike. It has just leaked out that machinists on the Rock Island railroad were ordered to strike at various points, the strikers had been in the shops at Valley Junction disobeyed the order and are continuing at work.

Coal Miners' Commission. To take active steps for the social and moral uplifting of the coal miners of Iowa, a commission of ten members in the state's coal industry will be organized tomorrow.

UNION REQUEST IS REFUSED

Court House Contractors Give Flat Answer to Donohue.

STONE CUTTERS MAY STRIKE

Meeting of Union Due Friday, but Special Session May Be Called Sooner to Consider Walkout.

A strike on the new county court house is imminent. The committee representing the labor unions of the crafts furnished employment on the building was turned down cold by Contractor Caldwell Tuesday evening when they asked that the job be unionized.

The contractor refused to make any statements when the committee waited upon him in the office of the county commissioner Monday noon, but at that time a representative of the stone cutters union stated that the stone cutters would back up the iron workers now on strike, and would go out on a sympathetic strike if necessary.

Mr. Caldwell's Answer. Following is the answer made by Mr. Caldwell to Tony Donohue, chairman of the committee from the iron workers' and engineers' unions:

"In compliance with resolution adopted by county commissioners July 9, requesting that George W. Caldwell of our firm meet the committee at the commission's office in reference to unionizing engineers and iron workers on Douglas county court house work, we have this answer and proposition to make to you:

"First—You called a strike on this job while negotiations for unionizing said workers were pending and before conditions of our agreement were completed, showing you had no consideration for our interests as contractors and employers, which action concluded said negotiations.

"Second—If you will have the county commissioners pass a resolution and agree to pay us the difference between the union scale of wages at the time we took the contract for Douglas county court house, and the present union scale of wages, which difference represents to us an additional cost of from $5,000 to $20,000 for labor on the court house, we are ready and willing to recognize and accept to the present terms and demands on this contract."

Board Out of It. The "proposition" made in the last paragraph is considered a joke. Under existing conditions it would be impossible for the Board of County Commissioners to take such action and if they were able, not one says he would vote for it. The matter rests between the contractors and the unions.

Chairman Donohue says the unions will never back down now that they have delivered their ultimatum to the contractors and have received a final statement in return. If conditions remain as they are a strike will doubtless be called. Although the stone cutters do not hold their regular meeting until Friday night, a special meeting may be called to take the matter up.

AUTO TO AID OF CUPID

Past Car Pressed Into Use at Aberdeen, Where Bride Is Delayed by Late Train.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 12.—(Special.)—Through delay in the arrival of a train, the Rev. John W. Hyslop, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, was called upon to officiate at a wedding at which Oscar E. Young, now clerk of courts of Bowman county, North Dakota, was best man, and Miss Zella Palmer of Spencer, Ia., was bridesmaid.

The social dance formerly given by the young people at the wedding ripened into a stronger feeling, and to make the romance complete, they resolved to have the same minister perform the ceremony who officiated at the wedding of their friends. So Mr. Young came to Aberdeen on an early train, secured his marriage license, saw the rector and completed all arrangements for the ceremony, which was to take place on the arrival of the Milwaukee train from the south.

But the train, due at 8 o'clock, did not arrive until 9:30, and the bride and groom, who had been waiting for their bride to depart for their new home in North Dakota, was due to depart at 10:30. The situation was hurriedly explained to the bride-to-be, an automobile broke the speed limits in getting the bride to the station to the rectory, where the ceremony was performed, and the race made back to the station, just in time to catch the west-bound train.

Deserter from Navy Succeeded

MICHOIGAN, S. D., July 12.—(Special.)—Carl Strott, a deserter from the United States navy, was arrested here and tomorrow will be taken back. Strott, who went under the name of Adams, came here a good deal while drunk he confided the fact to a friend that he was a deserter. His reward was going to give him away and collect the reward, but Strott went to a police officer and told the story first and submitted to arrest. Strott deserted from the Missouri while it was lying in the Charleston yards at Evans, causing the ship to be delayed in avoiding detection until he got on a drunk which proved his undoing. He will be taken to Norfolk, Va., and turned over to the commanding officer of the Franklin.

New Station for Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, S. D., July 12.—(Special.)—Newspaper reports here are to the effect that the Milwaukee road will erect a $250,000 station in which will be housed the division and general offices which will be located here. The story is not officially confirmed, but it is known the road has long been planning the construction of a new station to replace the one built seven years ago, which is no longer large enough to meet the demands of the present situation.

DIRIGIBLES AT OMAHA MEET

Chief Signal Officer Wires Consent to Their Appearance.

"WIND CHECKS" TO BE ISSUED

Management of Meet Determines to Issue Return Coupons in Case Air Too Blustery Any Day of Meet.

All kinds of flying craft will be seen at the big aviation meet, including dirigible balloons as well as aeroplanes. General James Allen, chief signal officer of the United States army, yesterday wired Victor Rosewater of The Bee, giving his consent to the appearance of the Fort Omaha craft.

The following telegrams were exchanged in regard to the matter: OMAHA, Neb., July 12, 1910.—General James Allen, Chief Signal Officer, War Department, Washington, D. C.: Curtiss aviation meet will be held in Omaha five days commencing July 23, under auspices of Fort Omaha and Aero Club of Nebraska. We respectfully request authority to have dirigible and No. 2 balloons sent from Fort Omaha to participate. No expense to government incurred. Officers of post unofficially assure no objections and willingness to help. If permissible, your consent will be gratefully appreciated. VICTOR ROSEWATER.

WASHINGTON, July 12, 1910.—Victor Rosewater, Omaha, Neb.: Have recommended to the department that authority be given for use of dirigible and captive balloon from Fort Omaha to participate in the Curtiss balloons on account there being no qualified pilot available for conducting flights. JAMES ALLEN, Chief Signal Officer.

Will Give "Wind Checks"

"Wind checks" are a novelty to be introduced for the first time in Omaha in connection with the aviation meet. They will correspond to the more familiar "rain checks" issued at ball parks. Admission tickets will be good for any one of the five days of the meet and in case of weather conditions particularly the wind, being such any day that flight is impossible, the wind check will be given out to entitle the holder to admission on another day.

To facilitate the handling of the large number of tickets, the Curtiss aviation meet will give the local people an opportunity to buy their tickets before reaching the grounds and avoid the usual rush at the box office. In this manner the large out-of-town attendants can be handled more easily by the small army of ticket sellers at the grounds.

Fifty thousand people from out of the city are expected to attend during the five days as the publicity given the meet in Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Northern Kansas has been well handled. Tuesday morning Manager Powell sent out six thousand large posters advertising Omaha and the aviation meet to all of the principal cities and towns in the four states mentioned and each one will be conspicuously placed on its arrival.

Blackburn Still Writing Letters

He Thinks This the Cheapest Way to Work the Newspapers for Free

Trying to get as much free advertising as possible by the expenditure of a 2-cent postage stamp, Tom Blackburn sends the following copy of a letter addressed by him to Judge Eaton and Charles L. Saunders: OMAHA, July 12.—Hon. A. L. Eaton, Omaha, Neb.—My Dear Judge: Since I wrote you last, from Charles L. Saunders has sent me to my case into the congressional field, thus complicating the situation. Like you, Mr. Saunders has been at the post office for many years, and you and Saunders are men beyond anything I can hope for. You are both men of integrity and of high character. What I have and what I hope for must depend upon your personal ability and effort, and hence I cannot afford to express much hope in this connection.

However, I am willing to venture what is essential to a proper course of campaigning. If you will resign the judgeship and Mr. Saunders will resign as county supervisor, I will help to make up the financial sacrifice this involves to each of you, to the extent of meeting you both in joint details at my own expense in any halls or halls you may select, or any county in this congressional district.

I think it is only fair that you both drop the public before we begin to discuss details, so that we shall all be on common ground in this particular.

Should you wish to discuss national topics, I suggest that I will take the affirmative of the following burning question: "Why should a man holding a judicial position or a civil service position resign the job before he asks the people to give him another?"

This topic will enable you to double team the job before he asks the people to give him another."

Meanwhile I want to understand that I am a republican without prefix or affix. I think you ought to define your position on county option, initiative and referendum, prohibition, commission plan of government and annexation of South Omaha, should you wish to announce yourself on vital national questions.

I trust that this third letter will bring a prompt answer to me, at least an acknowledgment of its receipt. THOMAS W. BLACKBURN. Carbon copy sent Mr. Saunders.
