Much preliminary work has been done all over the state and branch leagues are reporting excellent progress. The federation of all German societies in Omaha, South Omaha and vicinity took place some months ago. Officers were elected at the time."

HIDDEN DISEASE TAKES TWO

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Beeman Die of Unknown Cause.

WERE AT A SUMMER RESORT

Boy Dies and on Day of His Funeral His Little Sister is Also Taken Away—Doctors Are Puzzled.

Two children, no more than babies, the only son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Beeman of 2716 Cuming street, died within the last five days as the result of some unknown disease which attacked them while on a summer trip to a Minnesota lake. Walter Harold, the boy, 8 years old, died at Ellow Lake, Minnesota, last Monday, from what the local doctor thought was spinal meningitis. The parents started for Omaha with the boy and Winifred, the daughter, 4 years younger, took sick on the train. The parents telegraphed to Dr. McClanahan to meet them when they arrived Wednesday. He told them immediately that the little girl did not have meningitis, as they had supposed. The funeral of the boy was set for Friday afternoon, but Friday morning the girl died and it was decided to postpone the other funeral and hold them together.
The boy's illness had lasted only two days and the girl's was eight hours shorter, and the uncertainty of the nature of their diseases led to an autopsy, which was performed at the Bralley and Doranah undertaking rooms Friday morning by Drs. Clyde Moore and C. R. Kennedy. The results Friday noon had justified the conclusion that the children had died not from meningitis, but from some acute in-

The funeral of the late Z. B. Knight, who died Thursday evening, will take place from the residence at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and will be private. Burial will be at Prospect Hill cemetery.
Mr. Knight was one of the oldest residents of Omaha when death overtook him from old age. He was nearly 80 years old. An attack of illness came upon him about ten days ago and he never fully recovered.
Mr. Knight was a probate judge in Michigan for a number of years. He became connected with the Union Pacific land office in Omaha about 1884. Later he took an interest in the Omaha Herald. He retired from active life about twenty-five or thirty years ago.
Mr. Knight was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, on November 1, 1831. In the early '50s he moved to Michigan and in 1864 married Miss Sarah Richardson, a daughter of Governor Richardson and a brother of the late Lyman Richardson, one of the founders of the Omaha Herald. Mr. Knight came to Omaha in 1868 and, with a short absence in St. Louis, had made this his home.
He leaves his widow and three children, Miss Julia Knight, Mrs. George F. Rebbins and Frederic Knight. Mr. Knight was a lovable type of the good citizen and
