Another point of superiority is to be found in the MOSHER-LAMPMAN SHORTHAND WORK. Read this letter from Judge Vishonhaler, of Omaha, concerning the work of Mr. Travis while he was still in school.

To Whom It May Concern: I take great pleasure in saying that the bearer of this letter, Mr. Clyde Travis, acted as court stenographer for the Creighton Moot Court for the year 1909-10, and as presiding judge of that court I was called upon to examine and pass upon the bills of exceptions prepared by him, and his work was uniformly excellent, and the records prepared by him compare most favorably with the records prepared by the court reporters of the District Court of Douglas County. I am satisfied that Mr. Travis is qualified by experience to fill any position where quick and accurate stenographic work is required.
