Twenty Members of Country Club Poisoned by Eating Chicken. BOONE, Ia., July 16.—(Special Telegram.)—A score of members of the golf and country club of this city are suffering from ptomaine poisoning caused by eating pressed chicken. Several are violently ill. It was feared for some time that several would not recover, but all are improving, and are practically out of danger.

SEEK CAUSE OF DEATH OF FISH Iowa and Minnesota Officials Investigating Upper Iowa River. MASON CITY, Ia., July 16.—(Special Telegram.)—With both Iowa and Minnesota authorities interested, it is quite probable that the cause of the death of an early fish in the Upper Iowa river will soon be established. The Minnesota State Board of Health was the first to move in the matter and a representative was sent to LeRoy, Minn., where several jugs of water were secured for analysis. A great many of the fish are dead and the water thus polluted is regarded as extremely dangerous.

MASON CITY—While James Popolar was endeavoring to stop a car at the cement plant by driving beneath it, the wheels he lost his balance and fell beneath. One of his legs was cut off above the knee and other injuries were inflicted. He is now at the hospital and it is not expected that he will recover.

CADY ISSUES HIS PLATFORM every violator of the law, should the veto be disregarded. "I believe that President Taft is in full sympathy with the policies of Mr. Roosevelt, and that his administration will merit and receive general commendation. There has been no wise legislation in recent years when creating a tariff commission, giving assurance that future legislation will be based on a more impartial, scientific and less sectional and partisan basis. "With this purely personal statement, I submit my candidacy. Should the people see fit to nominate and elect me, governor, I will devote to their service whatever of experience and ability I may possess, animated by the sincere desire to administer their affairs in a dignified, economical and business-like manner. A. E. CADY, St. Paul, Neb.

FLYING MEET SATURDAY. Saturday afternoon begins the five-day aviation meet, conducted by the Aero club of Nebraska, through the Midwest Aviation Meet company. With half-way decent weather this meet will turn the eyes of the country upon Omaha, for Glenn Currier will then make his first appearance since his successful flight at Atlantic City. The meet will bring untold crowds to Omaha, for interest in aeroplane flight is the principal interest in the United States today, as it is throughout the civilized world. Every passenger train running into Omaha from any point of the compass will bring visitors here to see these flights, which will include everything known to the aviating art.

SHOT THROUGH WINDOW. JOHN O'CONNOR, Deputy Game Warden of Springfield, Ill., Assassinated. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 16.—John O'Conor, a deputy game warden and member of the Sangamon county republican committee, died at St. John's hospital today from the effects of a bullet wound fired last night through the window of the dining room of his home when O'Conor and his family were at supper. Before his death he made a statement to Sheriff Werner that led to the arrest of Frank Stout, an employe at the Chicago & Alton roundhouse here. O'Conor, after being shot, ran out of his home and chased the man for a block, but the assassin escaped. Stout admitted threatening O'Conor's life, but declares he was at work at the roundhouse at the time the shooting occurred.
