In the upper part of New York state it is announced that Theodore Douglas Robinson, a nephew of Colonel Roosevelt, would be a candidate for congress in the Twenty-seventh New York district.

Mr. Robinson lives in Little Falls, Mr. Robinson's opponent for the nomination will be Charles S. Millington, who was selected to fill the term of James S. Sherman, when Mr. Sherman was made vice president.

From the up-state outlook it would seem that Robinson's candidacy is a part of the Hughes-Roosevelt campaign to wrest power from the Barnes-Woodruff combination.

D. F. Strobel, a prominent supporter of the Barnes-Woodruff machine, is backing the candidacy of Millington.

In this city Tammany hall is interested in a new congressional alignment for this fall. The report is that there will be several changes in the makeup of the Tammany delegation.

It is reported that W. H. Hearst will revive his party vote and view to splitting the democratic vote and lessening the power of Tammany in the fall elections here.

OTTUMWA CASE TO COME UP Roosevelt Fails in Milking Trial

State Officials Will Hear Evidence in Charges Against Mayor.

FOR TUBERCULOSIS PATIENTS State Department Issues Bulletin of Advice for Victims of the White Plague—Opposition to Interurbans.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DE MOINES, July 17.—(Special.)—Senator George Casson, attorney general John Fletcher will go to Ottumwa tomorrow morning to take up the case of the effort on the part of certain persons to have removed from office Mayor T. J. Phillips.

The case has additional importance from removal of officers for failure to perform their official duties. In both the other cases the courts ordered removal.

The Phillips case is perhaps peculiar in that the mayor undoubtedly has had back of him a public sentiment that sustains him in his attitude while one of the accusations against him is for intoxication while he is mayor, yet this is least of the charges.

He is accused of having maintained a wide-open policy as to gambling and resorts and to have been guilty of corruption while in office that he collected illegal fees and fines. It is asserted that a system of licensing gambling houses was followed for years and it has been followed until very recently. It has been asserted that resorts were protected.

The matter was laid before Governor Carroll by a committee some time ago and the governor decided that the mayor should be removed. The attorney general was directed to proceed with the case and by agreement it is to be heard by Judge Wilcockson, who only last week was re-nominated for district judge.

The case has additional importance from the fact that Mayor Phillips was the democratic candidate for governor against Governor Cummins a few years ago. He is an exceedingly popular man at home.

ROOSEVELT FAILS IN MILKING TRIAL

Tells of Chasing Cow in North Dakota—Throws Animal with Rope, but Gets No Milk.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 16.—Theodore Roosevelt saw no milk today and talked no politics. He talked of cows and conservation of trees, chopping the state affairs in Africa, and the negro in the south, but there was nothing in his conversation to indicate that he knew the difference between an incontinent and a regular.

Colonel Roosevelt did say, however, that he had decided definitely to speak before the conservation congress in St. Paul on September 6.

The colonel was hard at it all the afternoon chopping down trees. As he finished chopping, three of the Roosevelt cows ambled placidly down the slat, winding roadway on their way to the barn. They were propelled by ropes hitched to a couple of farm hands.

"Do you ever milk the cows?" someone asked. "No, I can't milk cows," the colonel answered. "The last time I tried was many years ago on a ranch in North Dakota, where we only had condensed milk morning and night. I chased a cow lickety-split for every drop of milk she gave me. I rode her, threw her and turned her upside down. But the result was not as good as I expected. I got precious little milk."

For the next week the ex-president hopes to keep away from politics and have a quiet time of it. He expects to have a quiet time of it. He expects to have a quiet time of it.

He expects to have a quiet time of it. He expects to have a quiet time of it. He expects to have a quiet time of it.

COUNTY OPTION

The Front, Back and Side Doors to Prohibition Revealed by Wilbur F. Bryant of Dixon

First Article. To the Editor of The Bee: With your permission it is my purpose to write a series of articles upon an issue which some people seem disposed to force upon the voters of this state in the coming campaign.

The issue is county option. It is with no vain boasting that I may speak for myself. More than a quarter of a century ago the present writer went into office as district attorney of the Sixth district. The so-called Stoumback law had just gone into effect. It was looked upon as a temperance measure; and I say, and challenge contradiction, that I have prosecuted more men, civilly and criminally under that law than any man in this state. It was the writer who obtained the decision of the supreme court that a sale of liquor on Sunday or on election day should be prosecuted by indictment; it was the writer who obtained the decision that that part of chapter 50 which punished intoxication was constitutional; it was the writer who obtained the interpretation of chapter 50, known as the Stoumback law. In 1890 I made seventy-nine speeches in this state in favor of the prohibitory amendment to the constitution. I have been where added eggs were, smelted and tasted them myself, for one struck me in the mouth. I lived on the border of the state and fought shoulder to shoulder with State Senator Robinson of my home town to keep the salaried saloon out of this country. Dakota was prohibition, Iowa was prohibition, Kansas was prohibition, Nebraska was a veritable valley of Gehenna for the prohibition Jerusalem.

As I thought, as a matter of defense, that we ought to have the same popular regulations as the states about us. But today I thank Almighty God for the fullness of my grateful heart that prohibition was not adopted. In the short space of twelve months 120,000 of very valuable citizens and a large amount of capital sought an asylum with us. The nomads left when prohibition was repealed in South Dakota. This state never had such a boom in its history.

Progressive Prohibition. I expect to be called a ronegader, a Judas, a brewery capper and everything but a gentleman, but I will say as Theocletus said to Eurybiades, "Strike if you will, but here." I expect to be criticized for sending these articles to a republican paper. A candidate for democrat, but a citizen, never for one hour of my mortal existence, did I believe in prohibition as an abstract proposition. Now I freely confess that much can be said for county option as an abstract proposition. The argument against it does not lie against the cause of prohibition, but against the embrace a rural district advanced to a city. The objection is that it is cowardly and progressive prohibition. Its advocates do not deny that prohibition is the plus-ultra of county option. No time will be wasted upon county option on its own merits. But I use a little of the old, but not the new, citizen. Never for one hour of my mortal existence, did I believe in prohibition as an abstract proposition. Now I freely confess that much can be said for county option as an abstract proposition.
