Davis, Kane, Thompson and Moriarty Wallop Iowa Band of Ball Par

Omaha, 19, Sioux City, 3. Omaha took a lead over Sioux City yesterday, beating two pitchers out of the box and dropping the Indians to second place in the league.

In the first inning the Towhites took four runs and all through had things their own way. After the pitchers had been retired in one-two-three-order Davis, the first batter for Omaha, fished out a two-bagger. Corridor was hit and Flood sacrificed Davis to third and Corridor to second. Kane was next and with a slight three-time hit in one way. After the pitchers had been retired in one-two-three-order Davis, the first batter for Omaha, fished out a two-bagger. Corridor was hit and Flood sacrificed Davis to third and Corridor to second. Kane was next and with a slight three-time hit in one way.

On a three-base hit by Thompson and three errors by Sioux City, Omaha gathered in three more runs in an inning for the locals in the fourth. He sent out a drive to right field for two bases, was sacrificed to third and came in on a balk by Freeman.

Baron Dillon, Jr., Wins Race with Colonel Axycene

Iowa Trotting Stallions Battle Five Heats at Nebraska City—De Ryder Breaks Ankle.

NEBRASKA CITY, July 21.—(Special Telegram)

Baron Dillon, Jr., defeated the great little trotter, Colonel Axycene, in a five-heat race here yesterday. It was one of the hottest, fought battles over seen on a half-mile track before it was over.

Both horses are owned in Iowa, the winner at Centerville and Colonel Axycene at Weldon. Both have always been noted for their steadiness and courage as well as their good speed. The latter stallion is a full brother to Axycene, that wonderful gelding that has a chain of victories to his credit, both on half-mile and mile tracks.

The Centerville stallion, however, was not done, and though both horses had the keen eye worn off their speed, he fought out the race like a demon and trotted two winning heats in three days.

The 2:30 pacing race there were twenty-six entries. Of these, twenty-five started. In the first heat, Lucyene, a brown mare, owned by H. H. Brown of Parsons, Kan., won in three straight heats, with Billy Link, a brown gelding owned by P. H. Albright of Parsons, a close second.
