

Nebraska SAYS FEE FOR OFFICE ONLY

State Legal Department Gives Position Upon Primary Suit.

JUNKIN REFUSED ADDED FEES

Acting with Advice, He Held Only One Payment Necessary—Franklin County People Are Flourishing.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 22.—(Special.)—Attorney General Thompson will represent Secretary of State Junkin in the suit brought by Victor Rosewater, republican national committeeman, to prevent placing the names of candidates on more than one ballot when only one filing fee is paid.

The legal department will argue that the fee charged for filing refers only to the office and not to the ballots. For instance, the attorney general says the law is that a candidate for United States senator shall pay a filing fee of $50. According to him it makes no difference on how many ballots the candidate's name appears, just so he has paid the one $50.

In the office of the governor the holding is that the county treasurer has no right to ask what office the candidate intends to file for. If he tenders his $50 to file for governor it is the duty of the treasurer to give him a receipt for $50 and the ballot on which he runs need not be designated. Then the candidate may present that receipt to the secretary of state and have his name placed on as many ballots as he chooses.

A receipt was tendered by Mr. Hitchcock as a candidate on the peoples independent party ticket, but it was not accepted, the secretary acting under the opinion of the attorney general. This is taken to mean that last Mr. Hitchcock believed the law contemplated the payment of a filing fee for every ticket upon the name of the candidate was to appear. Deputy Secretary of State Wait this morning said that James P. Latta had also tendered a receipt for filing fee on the populist ticket and it was not accepted.

Mr. Thompson does not expect to file his answer until next Wednesday. Treasurer Brina Returns. L. G. Brian, state treasurer has returned with his family from a trip to Iowa, where he visited relatives and pitched a little hay in order to get in condition for the campaign. Very shortly Mr. Brian will go out to Alton and make arrangements for the construction of a new home on his farm near that city as he expects to remove back there when his term as state treasurer expires next January.

After Patrick Votes. Governor Shallenberger went to South Omaha today to visit the Country club this afternoon and deliver a speech to a Shallenberger democratic club tonight. Representative Krause of Albright has organized such a club and another has been organized in South Omaha proper.

When suggested that it might be considered discourteous for the governor to go into the territory of W. R. Patrick soliciting votes, Dave Rowden, commander of the Soldiers Home at Milford, spoke right out in meeting. "Patrick won't get twenty-five votes in South Omaha, and I'll bet $100 he won't get 200 votes in Sarpy county."

"Do I know Patrick?" "Well, I should say I do," snorted Colonel Rowden, repeating the question. "He knows me, too, but he don't speak to me since I fired him out of the women's waiting room of the Union Pacific depot. I was employed by the secret service department of the Union Pacific and was at the Union station, Patrick and Judge Sutton went into the women's waiting room and began to smoke cigars about a foot long. I touched them on the shoulder and pointed to the sign, 'No Smoking.' Then I went out, thinking they would follow me. I looked back and there they were smoking as big as life. I went back and told them it was against the rules to smoke in there."

"Who are you?" asked Sutton. "I told him I was an officer and he said so am I. Then I said so much the more reason you should obey the law. Then I said if you are gentlemen you will get out and if you don't get out I will throw you both out. You bet they got out. Sutton afterwards apologized to me, but Patrick ain't said nothing since to me. I'd a throwed 'em out, too."

No Calamity in Franklin. In the little town of Macon, on Macon prairie in Franklin county, a town with perhaps 100 houses and no railroad, Colonel Farns, secretary to Governor Shallenberger, who went out there to speak at a political meeting, said he counted twenty-seven automobiles standing around the corner grocery store.

The automobiles were not owned by pleasure-seekers, but belonged to the farmers who live around the town, and some of them were driven into town by farmers who a few years ago settled in Franklin county and used oxen with which to plow. The oxen soon gave way to horses, and now the horse has given way to the automobile insofar as traveling is concerned. The land on which these farmers live is now worth from $100 to $150 an acre, and this year it is producing from fifteen to thirty-five bushels an acre, of wheat. Corn is looking fine and around Macon there is going to be a good crop.

Instead of holding a regular delegate convention, Franklin county democrats met in mass meeting at Macon, which is near the center of the county. A resolution was passed by the delegates to the state convention. The meeting was held in the school house, which is also the town hall. There is no railroad within eight or ten miles, but the hall was crowded and many stood at the windows, unable to get inside."

BUFFALO COUNTY WANTS CAPITAL. Judge Oldham Bitter in Denunciation of Optima Move. KEARNEY, Neb., July 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The democrats of Buffalo county met in convention today and selected seventeen delegates to the state convention. County option was ignored and left out of the convention for a score of reasons. A resolution was passed in favor of submitting the question of capital removal to the people to vote upon. Judge W. D. Olmstead addressed the convention just previous to its closing and declared, in a burst of eloquence, that the republican party was trying to stir confusion and dissension among the democrats by bringing in minor issues of a moral and religious nature which have no part in partisan politics. The convention was punctuated by many speeches of office seeking democrats.

No Instructions for Republicans. SIDNEY, Neb., July 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The republican county central committee selected the following unopposed delegates to the state convention at Lincoln: County Commissioner L. R. Barlow, Dr. Lincoln, Simon and Adam Gurderson. The county central committee for the ensuing year is Paul R. Borgquist, chairman, and Fred Gassen, secretary.

Most sales flash up like a meteor on a dark night—and command attention about as long. Their force is usually spent in the first advertising flash and late lookers see nothing where a lot was supposed to be. How different this sale of ours.

Our determination to start 1911 with a stock entirely new—our generous and "fair-to-all" reductions—the high quality of our suits—the enormous stock concerned—the pleasantness and efficiency of our most modern store service—are but component parts of the unseen force that removes this sale from the "Meteoric" class and makes it revolve around into view week after week with an attractiveness such as only a King-Swanson sale can have.

Any Straw or Panama Hat

1/2 Price $1.50 to $7.50 Hats for 75c to $3.75

Last year we sold every hat in the store. Not an old one left when we started the present season. We propose doing the same thing this year. June 1st, we had 410 dozen. Today we have 39 10-12 dozen. We feel that the fairest way to sell them is at half price, rather than to let the "wise" buyer pick the "plums" at a low price and the "unwise" buyer pay within 5c or 10c of the regular all season price.

Less Than Half Price

In fact, some of the pianos to be offered in this sale will be sold at not less than one-fourth of original cost. Read carefully our reasons for sacrificing the pianos offered and you will see that by taking advantage of the low prices and purchasing a piano from us at the present time, we are, besides doing you a favor, only doing for ourselves what we are compelled to do.

Our first reason is, that, having contracted with decorators to redecorate our rooms, we have also decided to rearrange our display room. It is necessary, in order to do the work of rearranging and decorating, that we sell at least 250 of the instruments now on hand.

Reason number 2 is, that we have received word from the factories that manufacture the Knabe, the Sohmer, Chickering Bros., Fieher, Estey, Wegman, Schaeffer, Price-Teeple, Milton, Smith & Bond pianos, also the makers of the Knabe Angelus, Emerson Angelus, Angelus pianos, Angelus piano players that within the next ten days they will begin shipping orders placed for fall delivery.

Reason number 3, having disposed of our warehouse, we have no other place suitable to place these large shipments except at an enormous expense. Instead of paying storage, we prefer to give our friends and customers the benefit.

A careful perusal of the following bargains offered will be of interest: Terms of payment can be arranged with us to suit the pocketbook of the purchaser. We guarantee every piano sold for a period of 5 to 20 years. We guarantee during this sale to give you more and better quality for less money, on easier and more suitable terms, than has ever been offered in the history of the piano business of Nebraska. An investigation will prove to the investigator that everyone of the foregoing statements is the truth.
