Shamrock Club Gives Boosting Banquet Well Attended.

OUT FOR THOUSAND MEMBERS

Commercial Club Wants Night Window Service at Postoffice—Man with Horse Stolen at Seward Is Captured.

The Shamrock athletic association of South Omaha gave a banquet last night which proved a most enjoyable affair. It was attended by about 100 guests and the occasion was in celebration of the uniform success of the association in its public functions of the past and in honor of the efforts of the promoters who have succeeded in building up the association to its present great proportions.

The program consisted of the usual good feed, and after the banquet speeches were made by numerous members and friends as they were introduced by John Kennedy, the toastmaster of the evening. Judge Callahan, Judge Caldwell, J. C. Trouton, the officers of the club, Marty Forkins of Chicago, who assumed the management of Jack Fitzgerald, as well as Tommy Gary, were among the extensive list.

All of the speeches were of the boosting order, and the greatest enthusiasm was expressed for the continued life of the club. The club proposes to continue the campaign for members, and has already vision of a thousand enrolled. Following that it was announced in the speeches that the organization hoped to erect a suitable club and exhibition building in South Omaha in the near future.

Much of the enjoyment of the evening was due to the good management of the committee on arrangements—Messrs. Kennedy, Cunningham, Daly, Fitzgerald, Curran, and others.

Night Service in Post Office.
The South Omaha Commercial club met yesterday afternoon at the club room in the regular weekly session. Several questions of importance were discussed. Among them was the proposition of a night clerk at the South Omaha postoffice. It was thought that a city of the size of South Omaha should have this accommodation, as at Des Moines. The stamp window and the general delivery are open there all night. Many times such an arrangement would work a great saving and convenience. This matter will be taken up with the postal authorities over the best method of procedure to secure such accommodations for South Omaha.

Alleged Horse Thief Taken.
Jesse Canarian was arrested yesterday afternoon at South Omaha for the alleged theft of a horse at Seward, Neb. He was taken at the South Omaha yards with the horse and buggy in his possession. It is supposed he had planned to get rid of the animal at the horse sale in progress in South Omaha yesterday. A description was sent to the local police and they arrested Canarian on his arrival. Officers Eisfelder, Dworak, and Smith made the arrest. Canarian told a story intended as an explanation of his possession of the horse. He said he had been sleeping in a corn crib with the man who had the horse and that this man had hired him to drive the horse to South Omaha.

Joseph Lawrence Arrested.
Joseph Lawrence, who is charged with having defrauded Mrs. Katherine Hess out of $50, was arrested yesterday at Lenox, Ia. He was traced to that city through his signature. He secured the money through Theodore Larson, 1317 Vine street, Des Moines, Ia., who had the money in his care deposited in a local bank for Mrs. Hess. Mrs. Hess wanted her money, and asked Lawrence to send it for her. He did so, apparently, and when it came to be addressed to himself, so that he collected the draft and left the city with the money. Mrs. Hess had been acting as his housekeeper at Twenty-sixth and I. streets. Lawrence had been a variety actor at one of the moving picture shows. He has two children, whom he sent in care of his sister to Toledo, O. His wife is said to be insane and is confined at Lincoln at the asylum.

He will probably be brought back from Iowa within a few days.

Missionary Returns Home.

DENISON, Ia., July 22.—(Special).—Much interest is felt at Denison, Charter Oak, Dow City and Arion, in this county, over the home-coming today of Miss Mamie Glassbourne, who went from this county three years ago as a missionary to China. She was sent to an island off the coast of China, a hard, but not dangerous, station. Here she made good in every way and won the credit of being one of the best young women ever sent from Iowa. She went from the Northwest Iowa Methodist conference, her letters home, which have found ready place in the papers of this locality, have shown her to be of most superior character, a woman in ten thousand, in devotion to spreading the Bible religion and uplifting the poor people about her. At nearly every Christmas the people of this county made up a box for her children and helpers. She has at times been near death, but rallied and kept on. With her record it is expected that great success will be brought by the church authorities to induce her to return to China. She will probably be expected to speak on missions at many points in Iowa during the fall conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church.

James Dailey of Percival, Ia., Cashes Check

Appears in Council Bluffs with Face Bruised by Footpads, Who Had Robbed Him Near Bridge.

When James Dailey of Percival, Ia., attempted to cash a check in Council Bluffs for $1 drawn by himself on the bank of Percival and met a number of robbers he grew a little impatient, overlooking the fact that his shirt front was covered with blood, a big wen-like bruise was protruding above his right eye, while numerous abrasions about his face indicated that he had been having a serious time. His impatient replies to questions concerning the validity of the check led to telephone communications with the police department, and Mr. Dailey was escorted to headquarters by an officer.

There he related his narrative, and told how he was slugged and robbed by two Omaha crooks, who had followed him to the Iowa side of the river, knocked him senseless by a blow with a bludgeon, robbed him of all the money he has, amounting to $17, and left him lying in the willows. The attack was made Wednesday evening after Dailey had visited many of the Omaha saloons and accepted the advice of two new friends to walk across the bridge instead of taking a street car.

A telephone query to the Bank of Percival proved that the check was good and that Dailey had $500 on deposit there. Reference to the police court books showed that Dailey owed $3 on a fine imposed in police court some time ago for intoxication. The check was accepted and Dailey was given $2 to pay for his ticket home.

New Device for Curtiss Planes
Mechanics Say They May Change Whole Appearance of Air Craft in Omaha.

When the five workmen assembling the Curtiss aeroplanes out at Creighton field got well under way in their work yesterday it became known that new devices probably will be seen on the machines. Though it is not definitely decided the innovation will be used, the mechanics feel almost sure of it.

Elmer Robinson, chief mechanic, explained that the new devices would completely change the appearance of the machines and would render them more easy to handle, with less front resisting force.

Mrs. M. J. and the McCurdy machine were both completely fitted up Thursday. The Curtiss machine was expected to be up Friday.

KIRCHNER SEEING GIRL WITH ANOTHER MAN, TAKES AID

Bell Boy Tries to End Life, but Police Surgeon Pulls Him Back to Life.

Despondent over the apparent unfaithfulness of his girl, William Kirchner, who stated that he had been acting as bell boy at the Rome hotel, attempted to commit suicide last night at 321 South Seventeenth street by swallowing carbolic acid. He was seen by his roommate, James Miller, to look at the photograph of the girl, then put the bottle to his head, drink part of the contents and lie down on the bed. Miller, who was coming into the room, examined the bottle, and seeing that it contained carbolic acid, called up the police station and Surgeon Standeven was able to save the man's life. Miller stated that Kirchner had become despondent after seeing the girl walking out with another man.

DRIVES GOATS MANY MILES
California Man Teams Angoras Over Four Thousand Miles on Wager.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Having driven a team of six goats a distance of more than four thousand miles, as the result of a wager, Captain V. Edwards, a ranch owner of San Diego, Cal., arrived here from San Diego today. With Captain Edwards are about twenty goats, and a team of three Mexican burros, hitched to a canvas-covered wagon.

Iowa News Notes.
ESTHERVILLE.—Albert Thompson, a former resident of Estherville for fifteen years, died of typhoid fever at his home in Minneapolis. He was 22 years of age.

GRUNDY CENTER—In a twelve inning game, Grundy Center defeated North English by the score of 2 to 0. The batteries were: Grundy Center, Croxon and Myers; North English, Hardy and Roller.

ESTHERVILLE—Haying in this locality is about finished and the farmers are now busily engaged in harvesting the oat crop, which is the best for a number of years. Harvest is at harvest, being a fairly good crop. Corn is growing nicely.

LEO OAK—Charles Clark, of the firm of Oakes and Clark, of the Red Oak man for the last twenty-six years, has sold a half interest in the paper to P. J. and C. W. Boil for $200. William Boil, senior member of the firm, will be a member of the new firm also. He has been connected with the firm interests for forty years.

DENISON—Mr. R. A. Romane, one of the most successful business men of Denison, has departed for Aberdeen, S. D., where he is president of one of the national banks of that city. Mr. Romane has been a heavy investor in Dakota lands and has made a large amount of money in and about Aberdeen. On buying a controlling interest in the bank it became necessary for him to move to Aberdeen.

LOKAN—Sheriff Rock, whose business keeps him on the road much of his time, reports the small grain in Harrison county as good, especially the wheat, short straw, but the heads well filled. Mr. Rock also reports the corn crop of Harrison up to standard for this time of the season. It is thought that the acreage of corn this year will surpass that of any previous year in the history of the county.

MUSCATINE—Judge James Howell Vail, a prominent jurist of the west, is dead at Muscatine, after a long illness. For several years he was a member of the city council of St. Louis and assistant circuit judge of the St. Louis judicial district of Missouri and judge of the court of appeals. He was also district judge in North Dakota for a number of years. His wife was one of the most prominent W. C. T. U. workers in the west.

MARSHALSTOWN—Growers of the city, representing the Marshalltown Retail Grocers' association, have launched a movement here for a standardization of quality in butter and eggs, and propose to establish a uniform price to be paid the farmers for these products. The intention is not to corner or beat down the price but rather to have one price for each grade so that all farmers of the city will pay the same price for produce of the same grade on the same day.

CRESTON—Roy Fuller, a former resident of this place, has just won a $10,000 damage suit against Budd M. Robinson, a wealthy mine owner of Joplin, Mo., for the alienation of his (Fuller's) wife's affections. The Fullers were married in this city several years ago, it being the childhood home of both. Soon after going to Joplin trouble began at the suit was instituted, which has been hanging fire in the courts many months. During that time the couple were divorced, and Mrs. Fuller married the mine owner, Robinson. The suit has just terminated in Fuller's favor.
