PERSONAL NOTES FROM GOTHAM

Gossip Still Connects Kermit Roosevelt's Name with that of Mrs. Vanderbilt's Daughter—Don Jaime Said to Have Real Eye on the Morgan Millions—Newport is Making Real War on the Intrepid Camera Men.

BY MARGARET WAITE DE PEYSTER

NEW YORK, July 23.—(Special Dispatch to The Bee.)—Despite the protestations of Kermit Roosevelt when he sailed away that there was no sweetheart behind his trip to Europe, I learn from Paris that he is paying devoted attention to Miss Margaret Vanderbilt, the daughter of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt.

When Kermit was in Paris with his father and mother on their way home from Egypt he met Miss Vanderbilt and was apparently smitten by her charms at once. They danced together, rode out the city in each other's company and were seldom apart.

Consequently when young Mr. Roosevelt sailed away recently it was immediately suggested that he was going to meet Miss Vanderbilt. However, he said that this was not so.

Miss Vanderbilt is a typical French girl, although she is the daughter of an American woman. Kermit will return to America in September.

The report that Don Jaime has been very attentive to Mrs. Morgan abroad in London, Miss Deacon, a British newspaper agency, sends the following to America:

"It isn't at all unlikely, judging from the frequency with which J. Pierpont Morgan's Norfolk were married Saturday by Rev. J. M. Bothwell. Mr. Allen is editor of a newspaper at Madison, Neb., where they will make their home."

The engagement of Miss Margaret Philipp, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Philipp, and Mr. Frank Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Williams, is announced, the wedding to take place early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alvord will entertain at dinner this evening at their home, 206 Poppleton avenue, in celebration of the first wedding anniversary of their son, Mr. Frank Alvord, and Mrs. Alvord, and to announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Joyce Alvord, to Mr. Julius Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, have gone to Newport. They will occupy Beechwood, the summer home for years of Mr. Astor's daughter, Anne, and Don Jaime of Spain are seen together that they will soon make a match of it.

Reynold's statement is generally considered as the discreet method of repeating a definite rumor.

Don Jaime de Bourbon is 40 years old, the son of the late Don Carlos de Bourbon, and is therefore pretender to the Spanish throne. He is an officer in the Hussar regiment of Grodno in the Russian guards. Miss Anne Morgan is interested in sociological work in New York. She has been in England for two months traveling alone.
