WAR AGAINST COLORED OLEO

Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers So Declares.
DRAFT OF BILL IS AGREED UPON
Will Make an Effort to Stop the Sale of All Oleomargarine Except That Which Has Not Been Colored.

War against fraudulent sale of oleomargarine was declared in Omaha Monday by the American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers, the executive committee of which assembled at the Omaha Commercial club.
The rough draft of a bill was adopted, which will be presented to congress at its next session. Prof. G. L. McKay, secretary of the association, gave out a statement outlining the reasons for the meeting and for the bill, which it is hoped to get adopted.
"I am ready to say," said Prof. McKay, who was professor of dairying at Ames for fifteen years, "that 90 per cent of what is sold for butter in Chicago is oleomargarine. Such a condition exists in many other places also."
"Our association desires to protect the consumer and the legitimate manufacturer as the present law does not. Under an amendment to the food and drug act oleomargarine may not be 'artificially' colored unless a tax of ten cents per pound is paid. But the oleo makers are now using mustard oil and cotton seed oil, evading the tax and passing their product off as genuine butter. The bill we wish to adopt would stop the sale of all oleomargarine except the uncolored. Unless this is done the consumer will never be protected."
At the meeting of the executive committee were those members: J. H. Houghton and Charles Harding, Omaha; J. A. Walker, president of the Blue Valley Creamery company, Chicago; Elmer Forney, Ablesse, Kan.; R. E. Cobin, St. Paul, and George Haskell, president of the Beatrice Creamery company, Lincoln.
Many other Omahans were at the meeting including Secretary Hector of the Omaha association and David Cole.

Pickpockets Are Caught at Work

Sluths Nail Two as They Are Flying Their Trade on Crowded Street Car.

Detectives Emery and Fleming watched two men pick the pockets of three others on a Benson street car while the car was passing three blocks, and then arrested the men at Twenty-seventh and Cuming streets, Saturday evening. The prisoners, awaiting trial, give the names of Louis Beart and Charles Sherwood of Chicago, according to the detectives the pair failed to get anything from the pockets of those they attempted to victimize, changing to pick the pockets that were empty.
Sherwood is the man, the police think, who had a part in the alleged picking of Tony Donahue's pocket some time ago. The charge on that occasion was not proven owing to lack of evidence.
L. T. Hoffman of 959 North Twenty-fifth street appeared at the station Monday morning and identified the two men as the ones he saw on the car, and who were brushing against him as they entered. Mr. Hoffman was holding his child in his arms at the time that the men were attempting to touch him.
Frank Rogers, who was picked up by Detectives Ring and Murphy Saturday night, is still held for investigation. The police believe that in the trio they are holding that they have the men who have been operating in Omaha for the last few weeks. Several hundred dollars have been picked from various pockets during that time and it is probable that many who have been victims will appear to identify the men.

TEAM RUNS FROM TIGERS

Order of Wild Animals Frightens Pair of Horses and Wild Excitement Follows at Parade.
Two big horses hitched to a grader's wagon threatened to break up the Sells-Floto parade as it came down Douglas street this morning. The horses did fairly well until the wagon containing a couple of tigers got on the windward side of them. Then their old range instincts told them. Their name was a combination Dennis, and putting on steam down the street they came dashing through the parade, nar-

You Get a World of Comfort Read Below What People Who Out of a Cold Storage Refrigerator This Extreme Hot Weather. Are Using It and Have Tried Others, Say About the Detroit Ideal.

This is what Mr. Nemetz, 1307 South 12th street, says: "My 160-lb. ice capacity Cold Storage keeps cold with ten cents worth of ice per day in hot weather. Nothing has ever spoiled in it. It is no wonder it was awarded first prize at the St. Louis Exposition. I have charged of leading refrigerator cars at one of the packing houses. The best cars we load are those invented by Mr. Hurd, the same man that invented the Cold Storage Refrigerator. That is the reason I bought it."

Mr. Turner, 2136 Mason, bought a Detroit Ideal gas stove of us the second of last May. This is what he said in June. The fore part of April I bought a gas stove of one of the leading concerns. When I paid my gas bill the first of May I made up my mind that I did not buy an economical stove, so I let it go back and bought the Detroit Ideal. No one will believe what a difference there is in the two stoves until they compare them as I did. I consider the Detroit Ideal the best gas stove made."

MRS. TOM DENNISON THROWN FROM RIG DURING PARADE

Pony Becomes Frightened at Band of Music and Plunges into Pedestrian—Damage is Slight.
A pony frightened by the elephants in the circus parade and rearing suddenly to the band, which began playing as it passed him, and an unwary pedestrian were together responsible for the peculiar accident of which Mrs. Tom Dennison, 1607 Yates street, was the victim, Monday morning.
Mrs. Dennison, accompanied by Miss Marie Freeland, had driven down to see the parade, and were driving east on Farnam street, approaching Sixteenth street. The pony did not like the looks of the elephants and began to be restless. However, Mrs. Dennison controlled him until the band, which was passing, began playing, and then the pony ignored the reins and started forward with a jerk. A man, who was either about to cross the street or to step aside, stepped in front of the wheel and became entangled with its spokes, thereby suddenly checking the pony's progress. This threw Mrs. Dennison from the carriage to the pavement. The abrupt stop also catapulted the little poodle from his place on the seat, but Miss Freeland succeeded in maintaining her place.
Mrs. Dennison was taken to the office of
