GUARDING STATE ARSENAL

No Attempt Will Be Made to Run Cars Until After the Arrival of the Soldiers—Thousands Walk to Work.

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—Not a street car has been running in Columbus since midnight and thousands were compelled to either walk or ride in any sort of vehicle to get to their places of business today. The cars will not be started until the 2,000 troops of the national guard arrive today to keep order during the strike of the street car men. The famous mounted troop A of Cleveland is among the soldiers called out.

Battery C of Columbus, Captain Harold M. Bush commanding, is guarding the state arsenal, and it will be on duty there as long as the trouble continues. The battery C boys are armed with repeating guns, which shoot buckshot.

Adjutant General Weibrecht today ordered some thirty-five or forty Ohio National guard sharpshooters, who have been practicing at Camp Perry for the coming competition shoot, to come to Columbus at once. They will be detailed to watch buildings and see that no one shoots on the troops.

The headquarters of General W. V. McMeekin of Toledo, commanding the first brigade, who is in command of all the troops, are on the state house grounds.

The third regiment, Colonel Robert G. Catrow of Miamiburg commanding, will be the first to reach the city. The second regiment, which has headquarters at Lima, will not come in until the various companies being rushed here by the shortest routes.

RIOT AT BIG SUGAR PLANT

Two Men Killed and Four Wounded in Fight with Police.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Two men were shot and killed, four dangerously wounded, and a policeman and a score of more less seriously hurt, during a riot at the American Sugar Refining company in Williamsburg, where a strike has been in progress for a month.

Streets of sympathizers threw bricks at the strikebreakers from house-tops and when the bonfire men started out with their trucks to deliver sugar a rush was made for the wagons. The police on the trucks returned the fire of the crowd.

The employees of the plant struck a month ago for an increase in wages. The men killed were Lithuanians. Several policemen were struck and painfully hurt by the bricks thrown from the nearby roofs. Four men suffering from gunshot wounds were taken to the Eastern District hospital.

The entire neighborhood became involved in the disturbance and reserves from nine precincts had all they could do to cope with the trouble. It appeared from the accounts of bystanders that the officers did not fire into the crowd until forced to do so by the ferocity of the attack on them.

TROOPS SENT TO DURAND, MICH.

Strike Breakers Who Quit Work Are Being Threatened.

DURAND, Mich., July 28.—State troops have been called here. There have been no serious disturbances here as yet, but when the soldiers arrive trouble is feared.

Adjutant General Lansing last evening, after a conference with the local authorities which lasted until 3 o'clock this morning, he decided that troops were necessary.

He accordingly, at the direction of Governor Warner, issued a call for companies of the first infantry of Detroit and the second infantry at Grand Rapids.

Many strike breakers are quitting their positions. It is said, and it is from these men that trouble is expected. They are demanding their pay and transportation home. The company officials have refused the demands of some of the men and they threaten violence.

FROST LETS FILINGS STAND

Says Primary Law Ambiguous, but Will Not Overturn Action.

UPHOLDS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Twice Interpreted Law for Secretary of State One Fee for Two-Party Filings Necessary—Court Orders No Change.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 28.—(Special.)—Because the attorney general had ruled that the payment of only one filing fee is necessary for a candidate for office to have his name placed on one or more primary ballots, Judge Lincoln Frost of the district court today sustained the demurrer of the attorney general in the primary ballot suit instituted by Victor Rosewater, republican national committeeman. Mr. Rosewater sought an injunction to prevent Secretary of State Junkin from certifying to the various county clerks the names of those candidates who had filed on more than one ballot and paid only one filing fee.

Assistant Attorney General Agnew and John J. Sullivan and F. J. Doyle, democratic attorneys, who appeared for Mr. Junkin, filed a demurrer to the petition filed by Dr. O. Yeiser for Mr. Rosewater.

In sustaining the demurrer Judge Frost discussed the points raised in the case briefly, holding that in this case, the court would take jurisdiction in matters involving political rights, but that the courts would not go so far as to interfere with rules of political parties such as were formerly in vogue. But in cases where the matter is controlled by statute, as in this case, the court rules do not apply, he said.

The secretary of state has certain specific duties to perform and if he does not perform them, then there should be some way to make him.

Attorney General's Decision.

Continuing, Judge Frost said he would not rest a decision on the demurrer, but without going into the case any farther than his remarks of yesterday he would sustain the demurrer. He did this, he said, because the attorney general had given two decisions to the effect that only one fee would be required of candidates in the primary election.

The secretary of state had been acting in accordance with those decisions. Therefore, he would not overrule them. In reading the statute, however, the judge said it could be interpreted two ways and that was a question which the matter in the attorney general's case was correct, but he preferred not to overrule him unless he was absolutely sure that he was wrong.

The members of the supreme court, except Judge Rose, are out of the city, so Mr. Yeiser cannot appeal the case in time for the primary election.

Not being restrained, Secretary of State Junkin has decided to certify out the names, though he, himself, is of the opinion that the attorney general advised him contrary to law.

Independents in Pennsylvania Try to Get Together

Disaffected Republicans and Democrats Are Attempting to Name State Ticket.

BRYAN DITCHED METCALFE PLANK

How the Famous Compromise Was Lost in the Shuffle.

SMYTH AND HARRINGTON TELL MEN WHO HANDLED DOCUMENT AFTER IT WAS TURNED OVER TO THE GOVERNOR BY ITS ORIGINATOR EXPLAIN ITS FATE.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Prior to the opening of the independent state convention called by republicans and democrats disaffected with the candidates placed in the field by the two old political organizations there was much uncertainty as to who will head the ticket for governor. Three candidates most frequently mentioned during the last few days are William H. Berry (democrat) of Delaware county, former state treasurer; Dr. Clarence Giboney (independent republican) of this city, head of the Law and Order society; and George W. Guthrie (democrat) former mayor of Pittsburg.

The real contest seemed to be between Berry and Giboney, and the lines were so tightly drawn that Rudolph Blankenburg of this city (independent republican) was brought forward as a compromise candidate. Mr. Blankenburg, it is said, does not desire the nomination.

Berry, who was elected state treasurer in 1908 on a fusion ticket and exposed the capital frauds after getting into office, has a large following among the delegates from the interior of the state. Giboney has several times headed reform movements in Philadelphia as a candidate and met defeat each time.

Today's convention is a rather unique affair in Pennsylvania politics. A certain element in the republican party disaffected with the republican state candidates suggested a "third ticket." At the same time there was dissatisfaction among the democrats with the democratic nominees and a demand was made that the democratic convention be recalled. The disaffected democrats held a meeting and decided to coalesce with the independent republicans and place an independent ticket in the field.

The two elements then began campaigning, the democrats to place a democrat at the head of the ticket for governor and the independent republicans urged that one of their own men be named for the place.

Because of a lack of organization all of the sixty-seven counties in the state were not represented in the convention which was scheduled to open in Witherspoon hall at 11 a. m.

Besides the office of governor the convention will select candidates for lieutenant governor, state treasurer and secretary of the internal affairs.

Missing Cashier at White Plains

New York Police Have Located Man Charged with Theft of $800,000 from Bank.

NEW YORK, July 28.—When the grand jury today began its investigation into the theft of $800,000 worth of securities from the Russo-Chinese bank discovered recently, it reported that the police not only know the whereabouts of the missing cashier of the bank, Erwin Wider, but have under surveillance the houses in White Plains, where he is said to be. Officials at the district attorney's office would not deny the report.

The grand jury began its investigation with eight or ten witnesses under subpoena. Among these was Leon B. Ginsberg, counsel for Wider, and a chauffeur whose name was not learned, but who is said to have an important story to tell regarding the movements of Wider as recently as last Saturday.

DIRECT LEGISLATION IS LAUDED

Significant Language is Used by the Deposed Leader, with a Covert Threat that His Opponents Will Get No Quarter.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., July 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Mr. Bryan issued a statement this morning calling on the voters of both parties to nominate for candidates for the legislature only those who are pledged to county option and the initiative and referendum. County option, he said, should not enter into the congressional or senatorial fight, nor cut any figure on the nomination and election of state officers, except the governor. It is the duty of Mr. Bryan, as expressed in his statement, that a governor will be elected who is either for county option or pledged to sign a bill. He does not designate the politics of the candidate he believes will be elected.

The statement in full reads: "While the failure of the democratic convention to endorse county option was disappointing, still the fight for county option in the democratic party has not been in vain. In the first place it has helped to secure a declaration of favor of the initiative and referendum in both parties, and now that all parties have declared for it there is no doubt of the necessary amendment being submitted at the next session of the legislature.

"The populist party declared for county option two years ago, and it was to be expected that it would favor it again. The work now to be done is to secure county option candidates in every senatorial and representative district. The democrats who favor county option should turn out at the primaries and nominate a candidate favorable to county option. The republicans in favor of county option should be as active in securing the nomination of republican candidates favorable to county option. County option candidates should be nominated by all parties in each district, and I have no doubt that this can be done in a great many districts. If the democratic convention had endorsed county option, the issue would have been eliminated from our campaign for state officers, congressmen and senator. But even as it is it will not be a controlling factor except in the case of governor. There is no reason why anyone's vote on other state officers should be influenced by the attitude of the candidate on the question of county option, and there is no reason why we should not vote for our congressman with a view to securing representation on national issues."

Expelled from the Rank. It is widely known that Mr. Bryan is expected to have no one in his party organization who is not thoroughly in accord with his views at this particular time, if he can help it. He has severed ties that bound him to P. L. Hall, one of his most faithful and long-suffering champions. Dr. Hall, the safety-valve of democracy, has been passed out in the cold to make room for Bryanites of the later type. He was left off of the newly organized state committee by the Lancaster convention, which chose Judge Tibbets and Fred Shepherd, two recruits who have been beating the toms during the late short and decisive battle.

Dr. Hall, the retiring committeeman, recalled only the bitterest words of recollection when his name was proposed by Mayor Brown, another of the old guard who is a member of the democratic down-and-out club. Dr. Hall is a member of the national committee and vice chairman of the committee in grace of Mr. Bryan. He beat no drum for county option.

GUTHRIE, Okl., July 28.—Guthrie was re-established today as the capital of Oklahoma in practically all respects, following the decision of the state supreme court yesterday. The only officials who followed Governor Haskell to the city were William Gross, secretary of state, and Charles Taylor, state examiner and inspector of public accounts.

What Governor Haskell will do has not been stated. As the supreme court has held the injunction of the lower court to be in force, and held that it would be illegal to transact official business at any other place than in the capital, he is expected to come to Guthrie to perform such duties as must be done here.
