"Give me a young person who is so determined to succeed that he will spend a part of his summer in Boyles College prepar ing for future success, and I will give that person a fine salary tenced road salesmen; most popular line on the market; sells readily to country stores; profit sharing coupon; premium proposition. Every merchant glad to buy. Write for particulars. Old, reliable, well established wholesale house. Our best sales established wholesale house. Our best sales and as high as his determination deserves!"

That is the actual, word for word, statement of one of the most prominent business men in Omaha, made last year

Let us tell you something more: For the past six years we have kept close and accurate tab on every Boyles graduate who started during any part of any Summer Term and we have yet to know a single case where such graduate failed to score signal success in gaining a fine position!

The Mosher-Lampman Business College

Has been offering for any teacher in other business colleges who could equal the writing of a Mosher-Lampman student. That proves conclusively the superiority of the Mosher-Lampman College in penmanship.

Another point of superiority is to be found in the MOSHER-LAMPMAN SHORTHAND WORK. Read this letter from Judge Vinsonhaler, of Omaha, concerning the work of Mr. Travis while he was still in school. Omaha, March 16, 1910.

"I take great pleasure in saying that the bearer of this letter, Mr. Clyde Travis, acted as court stenographer for the Creighton Moot Court for the year 1909-10, and as presiding judge of that court I was called upon to examine and pass upon the bills of exceptions prepared by him, and his work was uniformily excellent, and the records prepared by him compare most favorably with the records prepared by the court reporters of the District Court of ALL KINDS of fancy pigeons for sale cheap. Closing out. Olof Oison, 3 blocks to fill any position where quick and accurate stenographic work is required south of Laurel Hill cemetery, Albright."

"DUNCAN VINSONHALER." A school that gives its students a shorthand system and shorthand Leavenworth, teachers that develop such ability while the student is still in school, would be THE BEST SCHOOL FOR YOU TO ATTEND.

THE MOSHER-LAPMAN BUSINESS COLLEGE. This college has turned out more court reporters, twice over, in the last three years than all the other Omaha business colleges put together. Resuits are what tell; results are what you want and you can get them at the

Mosher - Lampman College

New catalogue explaining all the points of superiority of this school will be ready for mailing by Wednesday. Be sure and get one. Address, MOSHER-LAMPMAN.
