SPANISH ENVOY GOES FROM ROME

Vatican, for First Time, Gets Notice of Marquis de Ojeda's Abandonment of Relations.

LEAVES FOR SPAIN AT ONCE

Note Says He is to Madrid by the Go. ent.

LIBERAL PRESS INDIGNANT

Secretary of State of Long and Vag. te.

IS SOME DISOR. IN SPAIN

Telegram of Cardinal Merry Del Val Endorsing Threat of Civil War in Biscayan Provinces Provokes Incessant Wrath.

ROME, Aug. 1.—Only at 7 o'clock this morning was the note of Premier Canalejas announcing the departure of the Spanish ambassador, Marquis de Ojeda, received by Cardinal Merry Del Val, the papal secretary of state, at the Vatican, through press dispatches three days earlier. The note, which is long and worded rather vaguely, announced the Marquis de Ojeda would leave immediately, being "called to Madrid for a communication from the government."

Impartial Ideas with Cabinet.

MADRID, Aug. 1.—With Catholics in Rome expressing hope that Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, may raise the standard revolt and the Catholics of the city and provinces rise in insurrection and, with the socialist in Spain threatening disorder, the impartial which has hitherto been unfriendly to Premier Canalejas, ranges itself on the side of the government in the pending conflict with the Vatican.

The liberal press in general continues staunchly to support the cabinet, which has been left a free hand to carry through its policy by the departure of King Alfonso and his queen for England. The impartial says:

"We are faithful members of the Roman Catholic church, but we always have regarded the issue, not as a religious one, but as a national problem, involving the independence of the civil power. Not Spain, but the Vatican has created the present situation."

The liberal press expresses special indignation at the telegram of Cardinal Merry Del Val, the papal secretary of state, endorsing the attitude of the Biscayan Catholics, who threatened to precipitate a civil war.

Former Deputy Lorenos, one of the Carlist leaders in Spain, left today for Froster, the Austrian residence of Don Jaime, to confer with the pretender.

Catholics Preparing Demonstration.

BIB. BAO, Spain, Aug. 1.—The Roman Catholic priests throughout the Biscayan or northern provinces of Spain preached violent sermons yesterday against the policy of the government in its conflict with the Vatican. Preparations for a great Catholic demonstration against the government on August 7 are being made. In spite of the declaration of the government that the demonstration threatening disorders will be allowed.

VILLAGE BEAUTY SEES FATHER KILLED BY LOVER

James Newton of Benton, Ill., Shot by Singleton in Pistol Duel.

BENTON, Ill., Aug. 1.—In the presence of Edith Newton, a 16-year-old village beauty, James Newton, and her sweetheart, Singleton, fought a pistol duel today, resulting in Newton's death. Newton was put in jail here today to await a hearing on the charges of murder placed against him by a coroner's jury.

Newton conceived a hatred against Isom last winter and drove his daughter's suitor out of Sesser, their home, sixteen miles from here. Isom returned Saturday and yesterday, while he and Miss Newton were visiting a sister of Isom, Newton appeared at the house with a revolver.

The association embraces lines west of the Illinois Central Railroad to the Pacific coast. It was instituted before the convention met that an increase in the wage scale might be asked.

FINED FOR SELLING CIDER Pool Hall Man at Desmet Had Apple Juice Testing Eight Percent.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—It cost John Lark, a restaurant and pool hall man of Desmet, the sum of $38 to sell a small quantity of hard cider. It was found that the cider tested around 8 percent of alcohol and Lark was arrested on the serious charge of selling intoxicating liquors unlawfully. As the best way out of the difficulty Lark entered a plea of guilty and was fined $38 and costs, amounting in all to $85.

Following the payment of the amount assessed against him the sheriff visited the place of business and seized two barrels of cider which he took to the street, where the contents were poured into the gutter.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 1.—Governor Mann today signed a commission appointing former Governor Claude A. Swanson, of Chatham, to succeed the late John W. Daniel in the United States senate. The appointment is for the unexpired term which will end on March 3 next.

Millers Must Stop Shipping Bleached Flour

Department of Justice Decides to Prosecute All Cases that May Be Discovered Pending Appeal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Millers must stop bleaching flour, pending adjudication by the higher courts, or stand criminal prosecution for each shipment made in interstate commerce, according to a decision reached here today at a conference between officials of the Departments of Agriculture and Justice.

At the conference were Acting Attorney General Fowler and Solicitor McCabe of the Department of Agriculture, the latter representing Secretary Wilson. It was decided that the inspectors of the bureau of chemistry should be instructed to procure samples of bleached flour shipped in interstate commerce by millers and jobbers since the date of the decision in the Kansas City case with a view to criminal prosecution. The verdict in the Kansas City case sustained the contention of the government that certain bleached flour seized was adulterated.

The government holds that inasmuch as a jury has decided that bleached flour is adulterated, during the pendency of the appeal and until determination is made by a higher court, bleached flour must not be sent in interstate commerce.

Announcement of the government's intention will not upset or disturb the Utikite Milling company because following the Kansas City trial, the use of the whitening process was discontinued with respect to interstate shipments. This was done on the advice of E. P. Smith, attorney for the millers, who seems to have promulgated with accuracy the government's attitude.

Mr. Smith returned to Omaha Monday from Colorado. He is fully restored to health. "I have had the longest vacation I ever enjoyed in my life," said he. "It is now six weeks since I was forced to leave the trial at Kansas City."

With respect to the announcement that the government is ready to prosecute pending the hearing of the appeal, Mr. Smith declared that he was in no way surprised. "They have the power to do as they please," he added, "although ordinarily, the appeal case would be heard before such action is taken."

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Heavy and extensive prairie fires are reported from the section of the state between the Grand and Moreau rivers in Corson and Dewey counties. This territory is yet "range section" and such fires mean the loss of winter pastures, and the moving of large herds to new locations. So far the territory south of the Moreau has not been affected, but the grass is dry enough to burn and a start with a heavy wind might mean a severe loss. It is claimed by those who have lost by these fires that they were set by enemies of the Purgot Sound lines, using light Montana coal, which they allege scatters cinders far and wide along the tracks, and suits have been commenced for heavy damages not only by the white claim holders who have been burned out, but by the Indian government allotments who suffered equally with their white neighbors.

Murders Husband and Kills Herself

Act of Mrs. Eveland of Denver Due to Insanity Caused by Brooding Over Similar Crime.

DENVER, Aug. 1.—Insane, it is believed, as the result of brooding over accounts of a murder and suicide which took place in Denver eight days ago, Mrs. Mabel Eveland this morning shot and killed her husband, Joseph Eveland as he lay in bed and then killed herself.

The tragedy was not discovered for over an hour. Then the bodies were found by Mrs. G. Connor, the mother of Mrs. Eveland. Mrs. Connor and neighbors believe Mrs. Eveland's mind had become deranged from reading accounts of the slaying by Mrs. Lola Ferris eight days ago of her husband, followed by her own suicide. The Evelands came to Denver from Oids, Ia.

Farmer Put Through Hair Cut Sprec Causes Trouble

Man in the abstract is a very vain and proud creature and will accept any kind of suffering in order to be in the latest style and have the idol of his adoring admirers. He will even go to considerable expense to attain this desired end, but here we have the rural voting district of Nebraska who strenuously object to having a week's good hair cut go down in one fell swoop in a hair-cut spree.

The affair in point happened in a shop on Tenth street just off the south end of the viaduct, the dispute arising in a difference between the haircutter and the customer as to whether a little liquid carrying with it some of the odor advertised as "pungent aroma" is of the value of a dollar and a quarter.

BROWNE ON TRIAL AGAIN FOR GRAFT

Former Illinois Democratic Minority Leader Again Attempts to Quash Indictment Through Attorneys.

ONCE MORE ATTEMPT IS VAIN

State's Attorney Expects to Introduce New Evidence in Case.

GIRL WILL TELL OF MATTERS

Indicted Man Had Given Confidence to Miss Ella Christy.

HUNDRED VENEIREMEN CALLED

Indicted for Bribing Members of Legislature to Vote for Lortner, Browne is Making Another Fight for Freedom.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Lee O'Neill Browne, Democratic minority leader of the Illinois legislature, was on trial today for the second time on the charge of having bribed fellow members of the legislature to vote for William Lortner for senator of the United States. Today's appearance before Judge Korston was the signal for another attempt on the part of his attorneys to quash the indictment. At the former trial before Judge McShure, which resulted in a disagreement after the jury had been out 116 hours, a similar effort was made in vain.

State's Attorney John Wayman returned last night from his vacation and said he would have some new evidence, chiefly, it was understood from Miss Ella Christy of Springfield, with whom it is said Browne was confidential concerning the matters out of which the present charges grew. One hundred veniremen have been summoned for service Wednesday.

The opening argument for the defense made by Attorney Forest, who laid great stress on the contention that the Cook county court had no jurisdiction and asserted that the proper place for the trial is in Springfield, Ill., before the Sangamon county court.

The opening argument had not been completed when the noon recess was taken. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 1.—Judge Creighton in the Sangamon circuit court today denied the motion to quash the indictment in the case of Senator Stanton C. Pemberton of Oakland and Representative Joseph S. Clark of Vandalia, who are charged with a conspiracy to bribe.

A demurrer to the indictment was then presented by the attorneys for Pemberton and Clark. This was overruled and the cases continued until the September term of court.

Miss Owsley met Mr. Morton about the time of her debut last winter and an attachment immediately sprung up. They have both recently been graduated from college, Miss Owsley from Merrill School for Girls at New Rochelle and Mr. Morton from Princeton. The date for the wedding has not been definitely fixed, but will occur during the first week of November.

FLY BITE NEARLY FATAL

Experience of South Dakota Educator Shows that Insects Carry Infection.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—The experience of Prof. St. John, a well known educator of Deuel county, demonstrates that flies can carry infection. To vary the monotony of his vacation he assisted in harvesting potatoes on a farm. While at work in the field a fly bit him on one of his fingers. He paid little attention to the apparently trivial injury at first, but in a remarkably short time inflammation set in, and this speedily extended to his hand. Blood poisoning was feared and he without delay consulted a physician, and it was lucky that he did so or his life may have paid the forfeit. By vigorous efforts the physician has been able to afford him some relief. The nature of the poison injected into his system by the fly is a mystery.

WESTERN NEBRASKA BOOMS

That Section of the State Was Never in Better Condition.

CROPS AND CATTLE THRIVE

Ranchmen Stand to Make Fortunes on Cattle Bought in Other Sections at the Prevailing Low Prices.

"Western Nebraska men are finding themselves in a position to do some crowing this season," said J. M. Barro, at the Merchants. "I have lived in and about Gordon since 1884, and never did things look better than right now. We raise a good many potatoes in our section, and the yield this year promises to surpass anything we have ever had. That's saying a good deal, but the prospects are really great."

"We have been blessed with about all the rain we could reasonably ask for, and the result is a crop of wheat grain that will not be beaten by any other section of the state, I believe, when the figures are all in. I myself have some corn that will turn out forty bushels to the acre, unless some extremely unlikely condition arises, and many farmers in our section make a similar report."

Pastures Are Good.

"In the matter of grass, too, western Nebraska has it on any other section this season. Today cattle feeders are buying and shipping stock to my town and to other places on all the railroads. Very little of the finished stock has yet been sent to market, while from the Wyoming ranges, as I understand it, most of the old stock has been shipped."

"Just think of these things and then hark back to the days of '94, when the western part of this state was almost depopulated. It is a wonderful story; and we believe our cattlemen are right when they claim they can raise a 3-year-old steer cheaper in western Nebraska than a 1-year-old can be raised anywhere else."

"Ervy Eddy, formerly of Fullerton, but now a land owner in Sheridan county, was ready to back up what Mr. Barro had said: 'I had to be shown for many months before my brother and others could convince me I ought to buy land in western Nebraska; but today, in my judgment, we have the best prospects in the land. Having just come down from Gordon, I know the crop outlook is nowhere better in this state. Down as far as Ainsworth the crops look quite so good and this side of Norfolk only an occasional field looks as promising as the crops in our country.'"

RACE FOR SAFE DEPOSIT BOX

New York Attorney and Policeman Are Making Hurry-Up Trip to Detroit.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—William Howard, Jr., attorney for Dr. Harry B. Keeler, is racing to Detroit against a New York policeman, with the prize at stake a safe deposit box which is thought to contain the Keeler-wood from many trusting widows.

When Keeler with his wife was arrested at Detroit he had $1,000 hidden in his vest and $300 in his shoe.

Today Inspector Russell got a letter from the Detroit Safe Deposit company, saying that Mrs. Keeler had forwarded written directions that the contents of a box held in the name of her husband and herself be turned over to their attorney. The company asked for instructions.

The police department telegraphed to the company to do nothing until a policeman could reach Detroit.

Ten days before their arrest at Detroit the Keelers rented the box and put a package in it.

Governor Harmon Fails to Settle the Street Car Strike

Concession Offered by Company Not Accepted by Men—Two Cars Attacked by Mobs.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 1.—Governor Harmon has failed to settle the street car strike here. The company offered to take the union men back as individuals if they would discard their union buttons. This the strikers refused to do.

Two Leonard avenue cars were attacked by mobs today and had to be abandoned. The police stopped an attempt to burn the cars.

The street car company has called on General Dick, the commanding officer, to place detachments of troops at certain points early in the morning, where large bodies of men pass en route to their places of work.

Troops again are patrolling the streets and few people are riding in the cars.

Woman Killed in Auto Accident

Runningboard Cuts Off Part of Head of Mrs. Quackenbush of Turin, Ia., When Car Turns Over.

ONAWA, Ia., (Special Telegram.)—An automobile accident near Turin last evening resulted in the instant death of Mrs. William Quackenbush and serious injury to Mrs. Fred Reese.

In attempting to make a sharp turn, Fred Reese, who was driving the big car, sighted a piece of iron sticking up in the road and steering to one side the ditch dike gave way and precipitated the car and occupants several feet below. Mrs. Quackenbush was killed instantly, the running board cutting the upper part of her head entirely off.

Reese suffered a broken arm and some bad bruises, but will recover. Mrs. Quackenbush was a bride only a few months, and resided on a farm south of Turin. Fred Reese, the owner of the car, is the leading merchant in the little town of Turin.

Gov. Deneen Calls Board of Health

Charge of Chicago Tribune that Effort is Being Made to Corrupt Board to Be Looked Into.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 1.—Governor Deneen has called a meeting of the State Board of Health to be held in this city at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning to inquire into charges made in the Chicago Tribune this morning that Representative Edward J. Snodgrass had been promised $1,000 by the National Medical university as attorney fees in an endeavor to bring about the re-instatement of the institution by the Board of Health.

He has also requested Dr. Louis P. Rogers, vice president of the National Medical university, and Dr. Lyman W. Rogers, secretary of the university, to appear before the board at that time.

Captain Identified Crippen by Pictures in Newspapers

QUEBEC, Aug. 1.—Captain Kendall of the Montrose, who discovered the identity of the suspects after they had eluded the police of the other side for eleven days is a popular hero in Quebec today.

The captain said that he suspected Crippen the moment he laid eyes on him shortly after the man boarded the steamer at Antwerp on July 25.

"The English papers were full of the case while we were on the other side," said the captain, "and I became very much interested in it. I bought all the papers and used to lie in my bunk and read them. Look here—" and opening the drawer of a desk in his cabin the skipper produced half a dozen papers, each containing pictures of Crippen and Miss Levee. One of the dentist's pictures had the black moustache blocked out with white chalk.

"I did that," continued the captain, "the first day I saw the man aboard. He was clean shaven then and I wanted to see how

LOOKING INTO COAL CLAIMS

Entries in Alaska to Be Reinvestigated by Christiansen.

CUNNINGHAM GROUP EXCEPTED

Everyone to Get a Fair Show, Including the Government—Nine Hundred Contracts Are Involved.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—All of the Alaskan coal land claims, with the exception of the famous Cunningham group, will be reinvestigated by order of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger.

The work will be in charge of Andrew Christiansen who succeeded Louis R. Clavin when the latter was dismissed as chief of the field division of the general land office with headquarters at Portland, Ore., which has charge of the Alaskan district.

It was Mr. Christiansen, who during the Ballinger-Fletcher investigation, directed the opening of a box stored in the federal building in Seattle and belonging to Mr. Clavin, which resulted in the finding of twenty-four letters that had been missing from the Juneau land office. Clavin claimed the letters were put there without his knowledge and the action was a "frame-up" arranged by his enemies. The two men have been bitter foes ever since.

Put in Separate Class.

In view of the importance of the Alaskan coal fields, the investigation of the claims has been separated from the Portland office and Mr. Christiansen, with the title of field supervisor in charge of the Alaskan coal land investigation, will examine the nine hundred or more entries, averaging 100 acres to the claim. Some of these claims will be excepted from the investigation because they have already been re-investigated and the record is now in the general land office awaiting action by the commissioner.

Mr. Christiansen, in Washington conferring with the officials of the interior department regarding the work, says he has received instructions from his superiors to that every one gets a fair show, including both the government and the claimants.

Remanded Fifteen Days

It was a broken man that stood before Judge Angers in the provincial court of special sessions. In a voice so weak that it scarcely reached the bench, he answered questions put to him. The proceedings were brief and at their conclusion the prisoner was remanded for fifteen days. With the expiration of that time he will be sent back to England.

Following the receipt of instructions from Scotland Yard today, Inspector Dew visited the court house and conferred for some moments with the judge. Then he held a whispered conference with the Canadian detectives, after which the latter hurried away to the jail.

A report that they had gone after Crippen filtered through the mass of humanity that sloped down in every direction from the Palais de Justice, high on the historic plains of Abraham.

Presently the detectives, with Crippen, drove up to the court house in a carriage and fought their way through the crowd to the judge's chambers. Crippen was brought at once to the bar. He was heavily manacled. It was apparent that he had passed a bad night.

CRIPPEN YIELDS TO AUTHORITIES

Doctor Arraigned in Quebec and Case Will Go Over Fifteen Days.

Girl's Family in London Active in Aiding Her.

ACCUSED UNDER FUGITIVE LAW

Every Opportunity to Defend Rights Will Be Afforded Prisoners—Crippen Appears Broken in Spirit.

QUEBEC, Aug. 1.—It seemed today as though half the city's population had deserted their usual pursuits and climbed the heights to the Palais de Justice in anticipation of the arraignment of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen and Ethel Le Neve, who after a flight across the Atlantic were arrested under such dramatic circumstances as the steamer Montrose approached the city yesterday. It had been announced that the prisoners would be brought before Magistrate Angers at the court house today. The master of their deportation to England quickly disposed of.

As the hour set for the arraignment approached the crowd that covered a wide area about the Palais de Justice grew greater. Everywhere bitterness toward Crippen was exhibited, but the attitude toward the woman in flight, the case was strangely different. Everywhere one heard words of sympathy for the girlish creature who had pinned her faith to the man now charged with a shocking crime.

Miss Le Neve is described as having sobbed and moaned as she passed on her cot during the early hours today.

When she arose this morning she was handed a cablegram which read: "Tell all you know." Those who saw this message say that it was signed "Papa."

It is known that Miss Le Neve's father in London had insisted that his daughter was innocent of any knowledge of the crime and that she believed herself to be the lawful wife of Crippen, supposing that his first wife had met a natural death after deserting the doctor.

Will Not Resist Extradition.

Dr. Hawley H. Crippen announced in the provincial court today that he would not resist his return to England.

Crippen's companion in flight, Miss Ethel Le Neve, who has been first arraigned today, but her extradition reported to the court that she was too ill to appear.

The authorities are confident that the woman will give no more trouble than Crippen promised to give. She was charged with the fifteen years of grace provided by the extradition laws of Canada have expired both prisoners can be returned to London without any hitch.

When Crippen and Miss Le Neve were arrested on board the incoming steamer, Montreal, yesterday they were charged with identical crimes, the murder and mutilation of an unknown woman. It had been expected that both would be arraigned at 10:30 o'clock this morning and deported on the steamer, Royal George, that will sail for England Thursday. However, Inspector Dew received instructions that changing the program.

The English officials do not wish anything done that will give the appearance of "railroading" the prisoners. They wish the formalities of extradition followed to the letter.

When this became known here the arraignment of the accused was delayed until a new plan of procedure could be mapped out. It was finally determined to bring the prisoners before the court as fugitives from justice and to set a later date at which they might make any proper protests against extradition.

It is supposed they will be permitted to have counsel. The girl's family in London appears to be doing all possible to aid her and at the same time promote the cause of justice.
