NEAR DEATH IN LOCKED CAR

Two Little Girls Spend Three Days in the Dark Without Food or Water.

Two small sized girls who were penned in a pitch dark refrigerator car on Sunday last week by boys with whom they had been playing in the railroad yards at Buffalo were found lying in the car when it reached Hoboken three days later. They were not able to walk. It was some time before they were able to speak. They had been without food or drink or sufficiency of air. That they were alive at all was a thing to wonder at.

Extreme Low Dutch Neck Frocks

Are Not For Wear on the Street

Borne upon me is the necessity for saying something about Dutch neck frocks girls are wearing in the streets. Cut as the model was originally, the gown is good form in public places, but when it is made extreme, so that it may be called "low," it is not good form, and one does not see girls of refinement wearing them in shops and trains.

The Tired Business Man Tells Friend Wife to Resort to Summer Resorting.

BY WALTER A. SINCLAIR.

"Isn't it about time we made up our minds where I am to go?" demanded Friend Wife.

"Hooraay! hooraay!" sang the Tired Business Man. "I'm afraid the hang-over of that song from last year prevented a lot of wives from starting as early as usual this year. Not that they're suspicious—oh, no! But with so many roof garden shows and green table show-downs—However, if you think it is time to do some choosing of the right place, why, get a hatpin and start this resort list against summer in the place the pin hits will be just as good as the next one.

FOR SHOPPING or other so-called "business" we will not be considered well dressed if the waist of her gown is cut Dutch. The girl in town must regard the model as for informal social afternoon engagements and adapt it accordingly.

"That any normal minded girl would adopt the extremes of Dutch necks and wear gowns that are decidedly cut out at the throat in the street is one of the amazing things one has to believe. Nothing could be more vulgar than such exposure of the neck and, added to that, the waist is finished in not cleanly to wear. The neck becomes incredibly soiled, catching all the dust of the street, and the skin becomes stained and discolored. An though that were not enough, the girl so dressed always gives the impression of having no proper place to wear such a gown, and so is obliged to put it on unsuitably.

American Story Tellers and Their Yarns

LESLIE M. SHAW recently said of a silly argument against a great American merchant mariner:

"This argument is groundless. It reminds me really of old Mother Talliferro. 'Mother Talliferro lived in a dugout in Virginia was changed it shifted the old woman's dugout into the later state.

"Well, mother, said a surveyor to her, 'you don't live in North Carolina any more. You live in Virginia now. How do you like it?'

The Boss of the Establishment

He Picks Out a Special Ocean for His Two Weeks' Vacation.

BY AMERE MAN.

The train dragged slowly into the little station at the end of the line, seeming to sink into the surrounding sand heaped as a weary traveler might drop into an arm chair.

"For an hour or more the Boss of the Establishment and his wife had been the two lone passengers of the parlor car. They were alone, that is, except for the ever present odor of fresh fish which had assailed their nostrils as they pulled out of Long Island City and which had seemed to be growing stronger every minute.

Items of Interest to the Women Folk

The English thread is always a graceful design in silverware, and this season the simple lines are much in favor. I saw recently only $5.50 that was most attractive. The plating on hard white metal was most substantial, the decoration a group of threads running around the center and the top edge of the different articles. The handles were very graceful in design.

If one wishes, a coffee pot of the same design can be furnished at the additional cost of $1, and a single initial will be engraved on each piece free of charge.

General Wood's Army of Veterans

"They were attending a review of the army."

"You take a great interest in these military affairs," said the guest from abroad.

"Oh, yes," the fair girl replied. "It's ever so much more interesting than the ordinary inspection at the veteran's home. You know my great-grandfather is one of the youngest colonels."

"Indeed?"

"Oh, yes. And my great-great-uncle, Hannibal Green, is an artillery major, and my great-great-grandfather is on the general staff."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

What caused her to stop at the water jump? Was she afraid?

"No, sir. She was thirsty!"
