An' he cuts us some bully poles

An' helps me dir the bait.

An' we start for the fishin' holes An' helps me dir the bait. An' we start for the fishin' Before our breakfast's atc.

He lets me pull in the first flahhad one on his line Fourth, and he just let 'er swish Till I got one on mine.

Before he yanked her out, an' then
Mine was the biggest, to he said: "Gee, there ain't no men
Can yank out fish like you!"

An' he takes off his shoes an' we Wade where the water's thin,
An' last Fourth he jest said to me:
"What! Ain't you goin' in
An' have a swim?" An' in I goes
Jest like a frog—kerblim!
An' next thing he takes off his clothes An' shows me how to swim!

An' every hollerday's like that An' every hollerday's like that
Between my dad and me,
An' one time mother went an' set
Beside an' elium tree
An' done some fancy work an' read
A beek till we come out,
An' had the lunch undone and spreadEsough for five, about.

Dad photergraffed us settin' there Her leanin' by a tree; One hand a-foolin' with my hair, An' smilin' round at me.
