CHICAGO MUSICAL COLLEGE,

Free Scholarships to Deserving Young People.

For the last thirty years the Chicago Musical college, the largest music school in America, has offered annually a number of free and partial scholarships, which are awarded to apristically inclined young people who possess peculiar talent, but who lack the necessary means for study. These scholarships have been awarded in cities and hamlets from Maine to the Pacific coast, and students who benefited by them have become great artists of the operatic, the concert and the dramatic stage, as well as teachers of marked renown. This year
