Famous Pug is Ordered Away

Big Jim Hall, Who Once Beat Bob Fitzsimmons Arrested in Omaha.

Big Jim Hall, once a heavyweight champion of Australia, and who defeated Bob Fitzsimmons in a famous battle, was ordered out of Omaha by Judge Crawford Monday morning. Detective Helfield and Donahue arrested Hall as a suspicious character Saturday evening.
The former pugilist whipped Fitzsimmons in 1890, and was himself defeated by Fitz in New Orleans in 1895. Since his downfall Hall has led an obscure life with fair prosperity as a card player on Pullman trains. His appearance in court indicated misfortune, as he was poorly dressed and with but scant funds on his person.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Eagles' Directors Meet Tuesday to Buy Site for Hall.

FAVOR METHODIST CHURCH SITE
City to Sue Nebraska Telephone Company for Alleged Delinquency in Payment of Occupation Tax—Pivonka's Injuries Serious.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles will have a called meeting of the board of directors Tuesday evening to decide on the purchase of a site for the new Eagle hall. Of several propositions offered the offer of the property of the Methodist church at Twenty-third and N streets appears the most promising of any. This property, it is believed, can be secured for $2,500, and it is to decide on the advisability of this purchase that the meeting is called.
Many propositions have been offered, including property in all parts of the business section of South Omaha. Most of these offers were too high to be considered. It is proposed to build a fine three-story building on the site, including many of the most modern features of a club and lodge room. A large audience chamber and, perhaps, a theater will be included. This audience room will also be constructed with a view to dancing and drill team work. It is proposed to complete this building within two years. There is at present a substantial fund in the treasury which can be turned to this account.

Telephone Company to Be Sued.
The city of South Omaha, through its attorney, is about to bring suit in the district court against the Nebraska Telephone company for an alleged delinquency in the payment of the occupation tax of the company. The company is required to file a statement of the gross income before July 1, upon which the occupation tax is levied. This, it is alleged, the company failed to do, and the city attorney fixed the legal tax in such cases at $400 per month, or $2,400 per year. The company later attempted to file a statement and tendered the city $650 for the year. It is for the balance of the assessment that the city is beginning its suit.

Joseph Pivonka Badly Hurt.
The developments in the case of Joseph Pivonka, who fell from an Albright car Saturday night, show that he was more seriously hurt than was thought at first.

The concussion was quite severe and the rupture of some of the blood vessels of the ear may prove a serious complication. It is feared that blood clot may develop on the brain. Should this occur the case will be serious indeed. Dr. W. J. McCrann stated Sunday that the case was much more serious than he had thought.

Pastor Given Present.
The parishioners of St. Martin's church gave their pastor, Alfred G. White, and his wife what was termed a "gold shower" Thursday evening. The formality consisted in presenting the pastor with a purse containing over $100 in gold coin. The presentation was made by Colonel A. L. Lott and he accompanied it with a speech in which he expressed the great liking of the congregation for the "little minister," as he called him. He intimated that his recent marriage while on his summer vacation in Canada was the wisest move he had made. The marriage was celebrated at London, Canada. They visited Montreal and Toronto before their return. They have been at the rectory in South Omaha for about two weeks.

South Omaha Man is Wounded in Both Legs by Accidental Bullet.

While toying with a loaded revolver, Andrew Maleschewitch accidentally shot himself through both legs at his home, Twenty-ninth and R streets, South Omaha, Monday morning. The cartridge exploded and sent its pellet through the fleshy part of the man's limbs, inflicting a trivial wound. He was taken to the South Omaha hospital and pronounced in a not serious condition.

R. S. HALL A VERY SICK MAN

Physicians and Family Have Practically Given Up Hope of His Recovery.

A grave turn for the worse is reported in the condition of Richard S. Hall, the attorney, and it is now thought that Mr. Hall will not live many hours.

Members of the family said Sunday that hope had not been abandoned, but since then Mr. Hall's condition has grown worse and the invalid has sunk into a semi-comatose condition, from which the attending physician has deemed it not best to attempt to rouse him.

"There is little hope," said J. H. McCulloch, his former law partner, who hurried here from California when he heard of Mr. Hall's illness.

Small Burglar Escapes from Detention Home

Ike Cahn, Ten-Year-Old Prisoner Steps to Door to Shake Duster and Then Flees.

Ike Cahn, a member of the gang of five boy burglars arrested last week, made a spectacular escape from the Detention home Saturday night and has not been seen since. He was in the charge of one of the teachers and was dusting one of the rooms. After working quietly for some time he innocently asked if he might step to the door and shake out his dust rag. The moment he reached the door the 10-year-old culprit was speeding for tall weeds and liberty as fast as his juvenile legs would carry him. A crowd of small boys at the home immediately gave chase, but Cahn was fast on his feet and reached the cover of the weeds and made good his getaway.

At the special session of juvenile court held Monday morning for the trial of the boys, Fred Kelly, aged 13, the oldest of the gang and said to be the leader, was sent to Kearney by Judge Sutton. It developed that young Kelly was the lad sought by the juvenile officers about ten days ago after he had made a violent attack upon his mother.
George Martin, 15 years old, was paroled to Father Flanagan of the Benson orphanage. Parnell Norton and Carl Martin, the two remaining members of the gang, were left at the Detention home, as they are so young, each 8 years of age, that Judge Sutton was not inclined to be severe. It is believed that the younger boys were influenced in their burglary operations by the older boys.

New Buildings on Farnam Street

Martin Bros. and Joseph Barker to Build Between Eighteenth and Nineteenth.

A four or five-story brick and terra-cotta building will be erected by Martin Bros. and Joseph Barker on the lot owned by them on the south side of Farnam street between Eighteenth and Nineteenth. The excavation contract for the work has been let and the foundation contract will be let in a few days.

The building, which will cost about $4,000, will be devoted to stores and offices, and most of the work probably will be done by the first of the year, provided the early winter is not too severe. At all events a considerable part of the building will be completed by the time named.

The Martins and Mr. Barker have a full lot, the dimensions being 66x132. The property is at present vacant except a one-story brick building of small dimensions formerly used as an office by the Bloom company.

"This property is too valuable to lie idle," declared Charles Martin, "and we plan to go ahead at once with the improvement." The property next west to the Martin brothers' lot is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Dufrene and this also is to be improved. A contract has been let to Thomas Herd for $30,000 worth of work. Stores will be put in on the Farnam side of the building, which is now used as a hotel, and which sits back some distance from the street.

It is planned to extend the stores on the Nineteenth street side also, possibly as far back as the alley.

It is announced the W. H. Thomas company, which owns the old Coal lot at Seventeenth and Harney streets, is having plans drawn for a six-story building there and the decision to build is likely to be for a building of this height.

GENERAL SMITH RETURNS FROM MANEUVER CAMP

Sanitation is Good and Conditions Surrounding it Are Almost Ideal.

Brigadier General Fred A. Smith, commanding the Department of the Missouri, has returned from the maneuver camp at Pole mountain, thirty miles west of Cheyenne. Captain A. LaRue Christie, acting aide, came home with him.

"The camp is a most delightful place to visit," said General Smith. "The weather has been all that could be desired since the opening of the camp, and the conditions surrounding it are almost ideal. Sanitation is very good, and the water supply, of which some doubt was entertained early in the season, is proving entirely adequate and of excellent quality. Permanent reservoir and pipe lines have been constructed. At the present time about 4,500 troops are in camp."

General Smith says the trip to the camp has done him a world of good and his looks seem to prove it.

HITCHCOCK HAS NO SLATE

Joel W. West Gives Up Hope of Satisfying Factions.

JOHN REAGAN IS A FIXTURE

Dahlgren Insist He Remain—Tanner or Howard from South Omaha—Main Thing is to Elect Dahlgren.

Joel W. West, working in the interest of Congressman Hitchcock, has finally given up hope of arranging a Hitchcock slate for the legislature in Douglas county.

Mr. West has been at work on this task for the last ten days, but without success. The only two men of the whole bunch who have pulled out are John A. Moore, who quit early in the game, or rather, refused to stand after being filed, and E. M. Honce, a sanitary inspector in the employ of Health Commissioner Connel. The latter is making no bones of the fact that he is in an angry mood over being sidetracked, while everybody else has remained on the list.

The negotiations had got so far that but four of the candidates for senator were to be left at the primary. John E. Reagan was conceded to be a fixture at the start, because the Dahlgren men insisted that he must be one of the candidates. Then a compromise was reached as to South Omaha, which would leave Jerry Howard and "Doc" Tanner to fight it out.

The great stumbling block came on the elimination of C. S. Montgomery or "Dick" Horton. Friends of both men regarded them as the best timber offered by the democrats and insisted both ought to be slated as against any of the other candidates. No agreement could be reached and at this writing the whole field of senatorial and house candidates is on the track, and to stay.

Chairman Flynn of the Dahlgren campaign committee, asked as to the legislative ticket, said: "Beyond insisting that John E. Reagan be one of the men, if a slate was to be made, we are taking no hand in the legislative fight at all. Our particular work is to nominate Mayor Dahlgren, and we expect to do that."

So the democrats go into the primary next week with seven candidates for the senate and seventeen for the house, except it is generally understood that Hitchcock's friends are now shaping up a list to which he will give his endorsement and for which his supporters will be urged to vote.

Roosevelt to Bring Friend

Personnel of the Party Which Will Accompany the Ex-President While in Omaha.

General arrangements for the entertainment of Theodore Roosevelt in Omaha, September 2, are being made for two days, pending information as to whether the Omaha club will be available.

There is, of course, no inclination to withhold the use of the club, but alterations and decorations planned in the building may make it undesirable.

In the meantime, Frank Harper, the former president's secretary, has written John L. Kennedy, who is secretary of the committee on arrangements, regarding the personnel of the party. It will include, besides Mr. Roosevelt, William B. Howland, who is treasurer of the Outlook company; Ernest Hamlin Abbott, son of Lyman Abbott, and Harold J. Howland. These two are members of the Outlook's editorial staff. Besides these, Mr. Harper will be in the party.

Why Omaha Real Estate Is a Good Investment

I think there is no other city in the United States that offers a safer combination investment and speculation.

In the last five years I have visited many of the leading cities of the United States and I find the income from property is not so large a percentage of its value as it is in Omaha. In some instances in other cities the values are so high that the net income does not exceed 3 or 4 per cent on the money invested.

Here in Omaha it is hard to find any man with capital who expects to pay for property a price sufficiently low to produce 10 per cent.
