THE BEE: OMAHA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1910

Word had been pest to Mrs Caynor at tysburg. The plans call for a two-story a bakery and after several years traded its her country place in St. James, L. L. and basement building, the footings and shop to John C. Buess for a brewery and foundation to be of concrete and the walls conducted this brewery for many years and and she started in an automobile on the directions were given the police all along time.

 and built up a good business and seven years ago the plant burned and was never rebuilt. He was a prominent factor in the early history of this city and held offices
B. F. Miller, general freight and passenger agent of the Northwestern, arrived in Omaha from his vacation trip Tuesday. He spent a couple of weeks at Lake Gogebic in Michigan in Tishing. tong ride to the hospital in Hoboken. Her The structure will be almost entirely firs- years ago the plant burned and was never chauffeur was instructed to hurry and proof. The contract will be let in a abost rebuilt. He was a prominent factor in the

FOR SALE-A five legged Heifer, 15 months old, weight

WM. G. NECKEL, 1444 South 18th St., Omaha, Neb.

THE RED CROSS NURSE

THURSDAY, "LA BELLE MARIE."