All night long little groups of people gathered in front of the hospital to abtain the latest news of the mayor's condition and even smart showers which occasionally fell did not disperse them.

Gallagher, the would-be assassin, was carefully guarded in his cell in the Hudson county jail at Jersey City, to prevent him from making any possible attempt at selfdestruction. Gaflagher shows no remorse for his attempt on the life of Mayor Gaynor and, in fact, seems to regard himself as a hero.

It is not unlikely that the grand jury of Hudson county may meet today and draw an indictment against Gallagher felonious assault. In the event of the mayor's death the indictment would be changed to a charge of homicide.

Prompt Action Against Gallagher. Prosecutor Pierra Garven of Hudson county, New Jersey, today began the preparation of his case against Gallagher. Mr. Garven said: "The grand jury fortunately has not wound up its current session or I would have to wait until the last of September to ask for Gallagher's indictment. There will be no trouble in indicting Gailagher as we have plenty of witnesses and

'According to my hastily formed plan now, Gallagher will be on trial not later than the first of next week.
