

VETERANS READY FOR CAMP

Encampment of Douglas County Veterans Nearly at Hand.

BIG ATTENDANCE IS LOOKED FOR

Monster Entertainment Planned for Old Soldiers' Gathering and a Picnic at Camp Tucker in Florence.

Over 1,000 persons are expected to attend the annual encampment of the Douglas County Veterans' association at Camp Tucker in Florence, Neb., from August 18 to 19. This is the monster occasion of revery that comes once a year to gladden the hearts of those heroes, who, years ago, risked their lives and who now are passing into old age. There are hundreds of the veterans throughout the county of Douglas and all of them are loyal and enthusiastic followers of their strong organization. There were over 800 veterans in attendance at the last encampment, and this year is expected to see a much larger attendance owing to the vastly increased efforts which have been expended on the preparation of the affair.

About fifty of the visiting veterans will establish themselves in regular camp, and the rest will find lodgings in the ample accommodations at Florence or will make their headquarters in Omaha, the trip to Camp Tucker from the city being a convenience easy one.

On the four days of its duration the encampment will be replete with sessions of entertainment and speechmaking. Some of the best speech makers in the country will be on the program at different times. Dinners and suppers will be served with sumptuousness and the comforts and pleasures of the veterans will be sought at all times.

Besides the various colonels, majors and co-grades, Mrs. E. J. Condon, a noted speaker of Nebraska, who at one time was a campaign speaker for William J. Bryan, will address the assemblage. Music is to be supplied by the Grand Island band.

Probably the most important day of the encampment will be Thursday, which is set aside as ladies' day at the camp, and on which day the big chicken dinner is to be served. Always the annual encampment is marked by the grand chicken dinner, and the veterans turn in right heartily to enjoy it.

Major Tucker of Florence is to open the encampment with an address of welcome, and President Garlick of the veterans, will answer the response. Other speakers of the encampment will be Colonel Ehhardt, Colonel Cole and Mrs. Davis.

Following is the committee of Florence citizens which has charge of the encampment: F. S. Tucker, L. F. Inn, R. A. Golding, Henry Anderson, W. H. Parks, T. W. McClure and E. L. Platz.

GREGORY COUNTY MAN UNABLE TO GET TRIAL

Governor Vessey Asked to Act in Case of James C. Langstrom, Held on Murder Charge.

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 13.—(Special)—Fred Huston, L. L. Loyd, J. D. Hackler and W. J. Hooper, were a party of Gregory county people who were here last evening for a conference with Governor Vessey in regard to the case of James C. Langstrom, a Gregory county citizen, who is held in Arkansas on a charge of murder. He was taken to that state by detectives, who were hunting the murderer for a large reward which was offered, and who claim to have the evidence to convict Langstrom of the crime.

It appears that the parents of the accused man, with a brother are living on claims in Gregory county, and have asked assistance. The murderer with whom he is charged was committed in Arkansas on May 8, and the Oregon county people claim that Langstrom was at Dallas on the evening of that day, and attended the Masonic lodge at that time; that he was not only at Dallas that day, but had been there for several days before and after the date. In June application was made to Governor Vessey for a requisition in regular form, and, as there was no request for an appearance, the detectives went to Gregory county, and secured their man, hurrying him out of the state.

Since that time and up to yesterday the Gregory county men claim that they have had representatives in Arkansas at several times to testify for Langstrom, but have not been able to get his case before the grand jury, and they asked the assistance of the governor in helping to get a hearing.

STENOGRAPHER'S NOTE BOOKS ARE DESTROYED

Attorney for Armour Company Gives This as Reason Why Grand Jury Cannot Have Them.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—That the stenographer's note books of Armour & Co., wanted by the federal grand jury which is investigating the so-called "Beef trust," were destroyed the day before the grand jury asked that they be produced will be the plea of representatives of the company when they face Judge Landis on Monday, it was learned today.

The destruction of the books which the jurors believed would show price-fixing agreements will be admitted, but Attorney Urion, one of the men cited into court, will explain that the books were destroyed according to custom to make room for newer ones.

MAINE SAVINGS BANK CLOSED

Man Fifty Years Treasurer of Saco Institution Short in His Accounts.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Aug. 13.—A sensation was created in Biddeford and Saco today when it was announced that the York County Savings bank of this city had closed its doors because of alleged irregularities in the accounts of Richmond H. Ingerson, for fifty years treasurer of the institution and one of the leading citizens of Biddeford. The bank is in the hands of State Bank Examiner William B. Skelton of Lewiston, who, with President Scott, has been examining the books for several days. The amount of the shortage is not known.

LIGHT CROPS IN EUROPE

Harvests in South and Climatic Conditions Further North Indicate Light Yields.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Foreign crop condition reports, as gathered by the Department of Agriculture and published this day in the Crop Reporter, indicate that the crops abroad will not be so abundant as had been anticipated. The government's report says:

"The results of cereal harvests in parts of the south and recent climatic disturbances in the center and north of Europe indicate that the early prospect for an unprecedented abundant year on the continent is not likely to attain full realization."

CACY FOR GOVERNOR

In announcing my candidacy for the republican nomination for governor, I wish to make a brief statement of my attitude relative to matters of most public concern.

Clean Government Paramount

While it is inevitable that new questions of pressing importance will arise from year to year, the issue of clean and prudent government I deem always to be paramount. Simply because I was the zealous advocate of an issue of passing importance would not entitle me to public confidence. It is not alone what I stand for today, but what has been my attitude in the past that should be the real measure of my value as a public servant. Within the sphere of my limited influence, I have always contended for clean men and clean methods, and I firmly believe that whatever beside may be essential, that unless built on this foundation an enduring republic is hopeless.

Record in Public Life

I have been a resident of Nebraska nearly thirty-four years, part of that time engaged in newspaper work and the remainder in commercial pursuits. My office-holding record is confined to two terms in the legislature—in the house in 1889 and the senate in 1905. In the session of 1889 I was fortunate in being permitted to aid in accomplishing the defeat and downfall of the best organized and most corrupt lobby with which the state was ever infested. I also prepared legislation that prevented exploitation of the state saline lands. I prepared and introduced the bill providing for the submission of an amendment to the constitution creating an elective railway commission, which passed in the session of 1905. The adoption of this amendment, together with the legislation enacted to give it effect, have worked a beneficial reform felt in every department of our state government. I advocated and voted for an anti-pass bill in the same session. Though not a member when passed, I advocated the primary law, believing then and now that it is desirable not alone to bring the government near to the people, but what is of greater importance, to awaken in the individual voter a keener sense of the responsibilities of citizenship. While the law may not have realized in full the anticipations of its most zealous advocates, yet I confidently believe that it is destined to be a tower of strength to good government.

Politics Subordinate to Efficiency

I have always affiliated with the republican party, whose candidate I now aspire to be, but I firmly believe that the highest partisan service is rendered by an honest effort to demonstrate that the party with which one affiliates is the best medium through which to attain good government. I do not believe in making the public institutions havens for indigent politicians, or auxiliaries of a political machine, but that they should be conducted on strictly prudent business lines, always with a view to the welfare of the inmates.

Position on Liquor Question

Personally I have never believed the adoption of county option necessary to control the liquor traffic. The enactment of this law, however, is purely a legislative function, with which the executive has nothing to do until presented to him for his approval or disapproval. If the people through their representatives demanded this legislation, I should deem it my duty, if governor, to approve. I do not construe the power of veto vested in the chief executive to be a personal asset, but a discretionary power necessary to vest in some one, to meet the requirements of grave emergencies and possible invasions of the constitution. To threaten in advance of its enactment the veto of this legislation might consistently be supplemented by the threat to invoke the pardoning power in behalf of every violator of the law, should the veto be disregarded.

For Taft-Roosevelt Policies

I believe that President Taft is in full sympathy with the policies of Mr. Roosevelt, and that his administration will merit and receive general commendation. There has been no wiser legislation in recent years than that creating a tariff commission, giving assurance that future legislation will be based on a more impartial, scientific and less sectional and partisan basis.

With this purely personal statement, I submit my candidacy. Should the people see fit to nominate and elect me governor, I will devote to their service whatever of experience and ability I may possess, animated by the sincere desire to administer their affairs in a dignified, economical and business-like manner.

A. E. CACY.

Republican Primaries Tuesday, August 16th

AN OPPORTUNITY

The business men and laboring men of this city will have an opportunity next Tuesday to vote for the nomination of two good men for congress, namely, G. M. Hitchcock for the upper house and Laurie J. Quincy for the lower.

It would be hard to find two men who would be better fitted to represent capital and labor. One is a business man and believes in the rights of labor, and the other is a laborer himself, and in the rights of business. If the fair-minded business men and fair-minded laboring men cast a decisive vote for this unusual undertaking, then they are sure to do great things.

This chance ought to appeal strongly to every voter on both sides of the capital. Let us all quit quibbling and let each of either who vainly imagines that a whipping of the other side will settle industrial strife, let us all quit class antagonisms. Let us all unite in the cause of progress.

If the fair-minded business men cast a decisive vote for this unusual undertaking, then they are sure to do great things.

We hope every business man will do his duty next Tuesday in this matter, and the workingman to get out at the polls and do his.

Committee Typographical Union No. 190.

Hon. R. I. JARVIS

of Michigan,

Will address the Democratic meeting at South Omaha Monday evening. Mr. Jarvis is a well known man over Michigan and Indiana and other states as an orator, writer and lecturer.

He was postmaster of Benton Harbor, Mich., under part of Cleveland's last term and was decapitated because he made a Bryan ratification speech in 1906. Mr. Jarvis was a candidate for Congress in the Fourth Michigan district in 1896, 1898 and 1900, and reduced a majority of 14,000 to 3,000.

He has sacrificed much for Democracy. Let all turn out and hear him.

W. A. GEORGE

FOR STATE TREASURER

To the Republican Voters of Nebraska:

I was born at Danvers, Mass., May 12, 1861, came to Nebraska in 1871, when 10 years old, with the colony that came to Gibbon in Buffalo county and organized the county of Buffalo; have been a resident of Buffalo and Custer counties ever since; have always been a republican. Served the party three terms as Supervisor of Custer county, was elected and served two terms as County Treasurer, was elected three times Mayor of the city of Broken Bow; was a delegate to the National convention in 1908, and was in that convention elected a member of the Notification Committee to notify William H. Taft of his nomination.

These positions have been largely honorary and I feel highly honored in having held them. I now ask the support of the party for the nomination of State Treasurer. I realize that under the primary law one has to make two campaigns; one to get the nomination and the other to get elected. I know of no better way to do this than through the press. Therefore, I am giving the press a small part of my life work from a public standpoint, and I ask every voter who wants to vote right to look me up and satisfy himself as to my ability and the statements herein made. Should I be nominated and elected I will fill the office to the best of my ability and for the interests of the whole state, and will thank you for your support.

C. E. ADAMS

OF SUPERIOR

Republican Candidate
U. S. Senate

Has lived in Nebraska for thirty years and has always worked for Nebraska's best interest.

There was never before in the history of this city a more interesting subject than the taking over of the Omaha Water Plant by the taxpayer should be interested in the men who will be placed in charge of its affairs. I have lived in this city 32 years and all I own in this world is in Omaha. I am directly interested in the city's welfare and lowering of taxes, as I am a very heavy taxpayer myself, and if I am elected I will pledge my honor that I will give this my entire attention as I have given my own business and make this a success. I am a candidate for the position at this time and your vote will be appreciated on August 16th, and I remain,

Very respectfully yours,
P. C. HEAFEE.
