THREE INFORMATIONS FILED
Local Firms Charged with Selling Bad Ice Cream Cones.

Monday Suits Are to Be Filed

Pure Food Commissioners of Iowa Seeking the Prosecution and Use of Boreto Acid is Charged.

Three informations drawn by Attorney General Byers upon informations filed by the state pure food commissioners at Des Moines for the prosecution of three firms in Council Bluffs have been in the possession of Assistant County Attorney Moss for several days, but not yet served on an account of the absence of County Attorney Hess. Mr. Hess has returned and the suits will be instituted on Monday.

The defendants are the John G. Woodward Candy company, A. Metzger & Co., and J. Muehl. Each is charged with selling ice cream cones in which boric acid has been used as a preservative and saccharin for sweetening. In the information they are charged with manufacturing and selling the alleged objectable cones. All of the cones that have been wholesaled by them are purchased from New York and Chicago manufacturers and jobbers without any knowledge whatever of their composition or process of manufacture.

It is said that a wholesale raid is to be made on all local retailers Monday and all of the cones found and destroyed and that prosecutions will follow in all instances where the cones are found.

MAN CLAIMING TO BE DOWIE'S BROTHER HERE

Says He Was Beaten in Chicago, but Will Start New Jerusalem Down in Mexico.

James Alexander Dowie, who claims to be the brother of John, alias "Elijah II," and Francis Schlater, who says he is the real genuine "divine healer," but who resembles the man who avowed Denver a few years ago about as much as a yellow pumpkin resembles a pineapple, came into Council Bluffs yesterday and announced their intention of doing some stunts in a Chicago Zion. Both attracted some attention as they passed along the streets, owing to eccentricities of dress and hair, each wearing his shirt outside his trousers in addition to flowing robes of many colors.
They were ready to talk freely to all who would listen, and sought to enlist interest in their plans to start a branch healing business in Council Bluffs. They visited the newspaper offices, where they got into touch with persons looking for good jobs as managers.

James Alexander places no faith in the power of the courts to divert the ownership of the Chicago Zion from those to whom Elijah II bequeathed it, and says that he is the chief beneficiary among the beneficiaries. The bill of sale supposed to have been secured by Voliva with the approval of Judge Kohlman of Chicago, he treats as an incident merely to try out the faith of the real Zionites, and he says Mr. Voliva will not only soon be without a job and hungry, but that the whole earth will not be mean enough to supply aaven that will bear him a crumb.

The men claim that they are on route from "Jerusalem, New Mexico," where the foundations of a new celestial city have been laid, and which is extending municipal privileges to a population of 5,000 remedied individuals, and that it is their purpose to organize "branches" of the city "managers" in all the principal towns in the country, who will get the business and quickly make the village a celestial city of "a million souls."

YOUNG UNION WEAVER CAUSES MUCH TROUBLE

Gets Employer Ellsworth Arrested and in Ace High Utah Court Hears All the Facts.

Arthur Ellsworth, who owns a considerable tract of land in the southwestern part of the city near the corporate limits, upon which he raises a large crop of onions each season, was called into police court yesterday morning to answer to a charge of embezzlement and battery preferred by Eugene Mills, a small boy, Ellsworth's force of onion weavers are chiefly boys, and it requires some generalship and a commanding knowledge of boy nature to get along with them. He has succeeded finely for several years until Eugene came into his employ a week or more ago. Eugene proved himself to be an aviatist. He didn't belong in an onion field, and was at war with everything but the weeds. He organized strikes and struck down onion field ethics and discipline. Ellsworth discharged him, but he wouldn't stay discharged, so Friday Ellsworth picked him up in his arms, carried him to his wagon and drove to the lad's home, depositing him tenderly, but firmly on the doorstep. Ellsworth said "Gene's report of the matter to his parents led to a misconception of the real facts, and resulted in his arrest. Judge Snyder heard the story from the lips of two witnesses and dismissed the charge. Ellsworth is a brother of the Fifth ward alderman."

SOCIAL CLUB HAS DIVISION

Young Men and Women Go Into Court to Battle Property Differences.

Upon the legal determination whether the Vance club, an organization composed of young men and women, is a corporation, a partnership will depend the maintenance of a very pleasant social headquarters at Lake Manawa, the ownership of a cosy bungalow and a swift, little launch.

Last January, according to a petition filed in the district court of the second judicial district, Florence Sheller, Gladys Jones, Earl Burt, Royce Sargent, Lynch Kroh, Royce E. Merritt, Lloyd Jensen, Ray Meade, Ralph Morse, Grace Kroh, Thille Bonde, Johanna Bonde, Elma Leonard and Josephine Clark, organized themselves into an association to acquire and hold property at Manawa. They gave entertainments, suppers, dances, theatricals and used other helpful means to raise money enough to build the bungalow, buy the launch and pay for the other things, which are alleged to have an intrinsic value of $130,000 with outstanding obligations of only $50. But the decision has been reached by some of the members of the association to wind up its affairs and divide the property. Consequently Miss Sheller and Miss Jones appear in court as the plaintiffs and the others as defendants in a suit to have the association declared a co-partnership and an order for a receiver to divide the property evenly.

ing on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. G. H. Baird, 402 1/2 East Glasgow, Scotland, as an American delegate to the women's Christian Temperance union convention, will tell some of her experiences in Scotland.

Manager A. L. English of the Citizens' Gas company has returned from Des Moines where he motored with a party of friends to examine the new lighting system of that city. The features of the Des Moines system is exemplified in the "white way," a stretch of street where tungsten are flicked at each other, completely supplanting the arc lights. The Omaha Electric Light and Power company is examining this system with a view of adopting it for Omaha and Council Bluffs.
Miss Jennie Smith, national railroad advocate of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., is in Council Bluffs to respond to a request made by the women's chapter of the Broadway Methodist church.
She may again tell the story of a portion of her life, which she has written in a book of the same title. She will speak of her experiences, when she weighed less than be a strong, rugged woman.

R. E. Ilgen, the Underwood aeroplane inventor, spent several hours in Council Bluffs yesterday securing parts for his airship, which is almost completed. So enthusiastic are some of his friends who have seen the device, and who perceive in it possibilities possessed by other flying machines, that they are arranging to form a stock company to manufacture the machine after Mr. Ilgen has demonstrated its practicality by a public flight. Mr.
Ilgen's invention. So far only a privileged few have seen the machine.
Joe Pruitt, a 20-year-old youth, was arrested last night on a charge of larceny as he was in the act of stealing from the office of J. E. Adams, a real estate dealer in the First National bank, and last evening was sent out with a $20 bill to buy a pair of shoes. He was found by the police on A. Avenue E. and Tenth street with all preparations completed to get out of town. When searched at the station he only had $10, but admitted having a joyful time on the remainder. Pruitt has been taken to the reform school.

Elmer M. Reeves of Waverly, Ia., who has been the superintendent of exhibits at the World's Columbian Exposition, arrived in the city yesterday to confer with Superintendent J. M. Brown and the executive committee relative to the same duties this season. Mr. Reeves says that notwithstanding the unhappy conditions that prevailed throughout Iowa and the other middle west states last spring there will still be some fruit available for exhibition purchased and grown by Iowa orchardists.
This will be due, however, to the splendid scientific care that the trees received throughout the season.
Judge S. B. Snyder of the superior court has reluctantly admitted that he has married his second wife, an automobile owner and driver. Until Friday evening his wife died, that he had never had any kind of an accident; that he never went within three miles of his machine, that he never lost his patience or his machine's control, tractability, and that he never caused any one to leave his seat. He has been obliged to confess when confronted by a jury of his machine into another man's and smashed it considerably. But he is able to prove by several affidavits that when the accident occurred his auto was moving at a speed of less than a quarter of a mile an hour. It happened at the Northwestern railroad crossing on Broadway. Judge Snyder was going to Omaha and reached the car tracks just as the gateman signaled an approaching train. The descending gate would have struck his machine if he had not backed. But immediately behind him was J. C. Dixon of Hutchinson, Kan., and the layhaw's machine got a hard bump, that cost $100 to repair.

COST OF COURT PROSECUTIONS

Figures Are Shown by Report of Clerk Brown.

The annual report of Harry M. Brown, clerk of the district court of Pottawattama-mie county, covering the costs of criminal cases for the western half of the county during the year ended June 30, 1910, shows that it costs the taxpayers of the county just $20,848.72 to prosecute the men and women, boys and girls whose conduct aroused the displeasure of the law. This sum represents only the specific court costs without considering the judges' salaries and the pay of the many court and county officers, or the expense of maintaining the court house and jail.
The prisoners sentenced to confinement for felonies took from what should form a part of the productive classes more than eighty years of fruitful opportunity, while jail sentences aggregate fifteen years.
The value of their services should reach an aggregate of $80,000, which, added to the court costs, makes a total of more than $100,000 of irrevocable dead loss.

Nor is this all of the heavy toll that crime has exacted from the people of the county within the last year. The total is not reached until the expenses of the Avoca district and the costs of the juvenile courts are added. The trial jurors drew $1,550 and the grand jurors $1,461.96.
If the costs of representing city crime are added, together with the justice fees throughout the western half of the county, the total for the west half of the county will probably reach $150,000, reckoning the loss of time of the persons sentenced.

Books of the City in Best of Shape, Accountant Says

M. F. Cox Completes Task of Looking Over Records—Pays Compliment to Officials.

M. F. Cox, municipal account examiner from the Iowa state auditor's office, and who recently finished the investigation of the books and accounts of all the city departments in Council Bluffs, has forwarded a copy of his report to Mayor Maloney. It is a voluminous document, detailing every item of purchase and expenditure of the city's financial condition, for the full fiscal period covered by the investigation. Mr. Cox worked here several weeks with his assistant, W. P.
Ellis, and when he left complimented the principal heads of departments upon the excellent method of bookkeeping, which made it possible for them to do the work in considerably less time than was anticipated. The bulk of the report comprises statements of receipts and expenditures, showing where every cent collected went, and giving the full statement of the city's financial condition.
The reports for each of the two years begins and ends with April 1, and consequently is not as near up-to-date as the regular monthly financial statements made by City Auditor McAneny. One statement made in this connection is perhaps not meant to be taken literally which makes the state accountant say that he does regard the tax for paving, sewerage, etc., "as a legal debt." In closing his report, Mr. Cox pays the heads of departments the compliment of stating clearly that the books could be taken as models for other cities. Following are his closing observations:

With but a few exceptions, the system employed by the officials of the city of Council Bluffs is a model in its method of keeping the books, and each individual department seems to have been handled in such a way that nothing is left unrecorded. It is very evident that a connected with the city's management has endeavored to reach the point of efficiency, whereby it may be known that every dollar collected fulfills its proper mission.

An effort is now being made to get the accounts and affairs of the police department in such a condition as to be shown in other departments. There should be no money received except upon the giving of a receipt which is a carbon copy duplicate of the numbered stub kept for proof.

The above may apply to any department that does not now use such receipts.
The clerk's cash book in one of the best we have found and the system used may be applied to the police and park departments.

Some criticism has been offered as to the methods used by the treasurer in purchasing the gas meter. The method used by the treasurer in purchasing the meters was to place an order for a certain amount, then have a warrant drawn by the auditor in favor of himself for the amount of the order. We have investigated this and can see no objection, as in each case the auditor has noted the exact amount of the receipted orders, while it disposes of the scaler and broker, as the orders are made payable to himself.
The park board is a hard working body and is endeavoring to make as good a showing as possible in the amount of work done at Fairmount park. Nature has been very generous in shaping this spot of ground, and in traveling over the park of Iowa certainly no more picturesque place can be found as no views from its heights are hidden by mountains.

While calling attention to the park board it is thought that more than a usual care had been expended by both the librarian and the library board in keeping the accounts in such a way that they are able to follow the work of this department with satisfaction.

Others in charge of the affairs of the city of Council Bluffs are all from the "top down" working to the end that definite statement be made with reference to each department, as to whether or not a true accounting has been made.
"Bringing this about it will be necessary to concentrate, as much as possible, the collecting of all bills, so that the auditor be made an auditor in fact as well as in name, by giving him power to audit the accounts of the various departments, so that a balance is obtained.

LEOPARD CLAWS SMALL BOY

Reaches Claw Through Cage and Lacerates Face—Tears Scalp from Head.

RIVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 14.—John Eggenberger, aged 5, is dying from wounds inflicted by a leopard that was on show at a street carnival today.
While the boy's father was looking in another direction the leopard reached through the cage and clawed the child, lacerating his face and body and tearing the scalp from the boy's head. The boy was lifted clear from the ground, and the animal was drawing the body through the bars, when attendants effected a rescue.

Iowa

INFANTILE DEATH RATE HIGH

Iowa Board of Health Calls Attention to Unusual Mortality.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS CHECKED
Dr. Frost, Who Has Been at Mason City for Two Weeks, Will Make His Report Thursday—
Some New Cases.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 14.—(Special.)— There is no subject which has engaged the attention of the people of the state the past few weeks as that of the general health of the state. The fact was disclosed in a rather clumsy manner by the secretary of the State Board of Health, that there is an alarming fatality this year among the infants of the state. This brought down upon his head the criticisms of the "boosters," who will always insist that everything is right, no matter what the situation. But later statistics received at the office of the State Board of Health have proved that the death rate among infants, located in Des Moines, has been inexorably large the present year.

One direct result of this has been agitation on the part of doctors of Des Moines of a plan for the establishment of a certified milk depot in the city to furnish milk for infants of a standard quality and guaranteed to be good. It is proposed in this connection to provide that in case of the poor people the milk to be secured, upon the order of a physician, without cost. This movement is declared by the physicians to be absolutely necessary for the protection of the health of the state. It is in fact a contention also that the health conditions are not as good as they should be.

Report on Paralysis.

A great deal of interest attaches to the coming report of Wade H. Frost of Washington, on the epidemic of infantile paralysis in northern Iowa. He has been at and around Mason City for two weeks. Indeed, it is known that he and other physicians believe that the epidemic has been checked in that part of the state, largely by sanitary care. From July 30 until August 6, there has not been a new case. But news is being received from all quarters of the state of the spread of the disease. To the minds of the fraternity it is not known whether it is really a spread, or whether the doctors are now more awake to a knowledge of the prevalence of the disease.

Rockwell has two cases, had three, one is recovering.

Norton had two cases and both patients died.
Lincomb has one case.
Waterloo one case, one death. This is the home of Dr. Manassah of the State Board of Health, himself a victim of the disease.
Sidney, one case, one death.
Carroll one case, child now at point of death.

Northwood one case, resulted in death.
Clinton two cases.
New Hampton one case, resulted in death.
There are a great many more cases, no doubt, over the state where doctors have failed to report, but it is the desire of Dr.
Frost and the State Board of Health to get all the material there is and make as clear an as full a report as is possible to make.

Sam Dutton Guest of Honor

Denver Man at Banquet Given by the Hotel Men and Hotel Clerks of Omaha.

Sam Dutton of the Albany hotel, Denver,
"the man who kept Denver from going dry," talked to a gathering of hotel men and hotel clerks last night at the Han-shard. He will probably be the president of the first organization of hotel men in the whole country. To take steps toward the formation of an association that will embrace the entire United States is the object of Mr. Dutton's visit to Chicago.
The meeting will be held there August 22 and 23.

Most Food is Poison

If such an organization becomes an accomplished fact," said one of the hotel men, "it will be entirely owing to the efforts of Mr. Dutton."

I. A. Medlar acted as toastmaster at the banquet. There was little speech making.
It was an altogether informal function, indicative of the feeling entertained toward the guest of honor.

Sanatorium Head is Abroad.

Dr. H. E. Kirschner, superintendent of the Iowa state tuberculosis sanatorium at Oakdale, arrived in Germany, Germany, August 2 on his four months' trip abroad.
He spent twelve days on the ocean, choosing a slow boat rather than the faster liners.

Dr. Kirschner went from Hamburg to Berlin, where he inspected the tuberculosis sanatorium and epileptic colony. Traveling into Bavaria, he expected to witness the "Passion Play," and on September 7 he plans to be in Vienna. According to the doctor's schedule he will return to Oakdale October 1 to resume the fight against the "white plague" in Iowa.

Gustave Carlson

Ends Wanderlust

Starves to Death in Freight Car While Going Over the Western Mountains.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Knuckles and elbows battered to pieces and the entire body showing the effects of four days' frantic pounding against the sides of a box car that held him prisoner, the lifeless body of Gustave Carlson, a former Pittsburgher, who far sixteen years essayed a remarkable role as a soldier of fortune, was found by trainmen at Hoquiam, Wash., yesterday.
Starvation and injuries had left Carlson weakened to die of cold in the terrible death trip during four days of tortuous, winding journey over the Cascade mountains on the Northern Pacific. Happy with his conquest of the entire world to satisfy a wanderlust for travel that seized him sixteen years ago, Carlson is thought to have headed for the Yukon country on the last lap of a wonderful life of globe-trotting. His next journey was to have been to Pittsburgh to rejoice his white-haired mother, Mrs. Johanna Carlson.
Railroad officials in the northwest think that somewhere near Portland, Ore., the man boarded the car. The boiling and sealing of the car on the outside and the start of the big freight train over the Cascade mountains left him to die a slow death of starvation as the heavy train treaded its way over the slopes and ranges of the mountainous journey to Seattle.

A. D. S. Peroxide Cream For Particular People

Particular people who value their appearance take a great deal of pains to keep the skin soft, clean and healthy, as it not only reflects one's physical condition, but it is a key to one's characteristics. A pimple on the end of the nose would make a beautiful woman appear grotesque, with a soft, clear skin lends attractiveness to a plain looking person and generally denotes cleanliness.
