Pet Dog Digs Up Body of Wealthy Woman in Yard

Brother-in-Law on Way to Germany and Police Are Instituting Caroful Search.

LANCASTER, Cal., Aug. 15.-In a shallow grave sunk in the sand in her front yard, a pet dog uncovered the body of Mrs. Frieda Schultz Castine, a wealthy ranch owner. Every indication points to murder with robbery as the motive, and telegrams have been sent to ports and border cities be-rest the woman's brother-in-law, Otto disclosed the presence of sand in the lungs and bronchial tubes, drawn there by the victim's dying gasps. Mrs. Castine's son found his mother's ody, half uncovered and mutilated by the dog, when he returned from a Trip this 1 morning. A wide wound, evidently inflicted by an axe, in the back of the head showed the work of the slayer, and the young man, who knew his mother had gone to town to receive a large sum, could find no trace

Otto Schulz, the brother-in-law, who came here recently to take charge of the ranch, also was missing, and on being apprised of the search Agent Stoughton recalled the In pursuance to an order made by the fact that Schultz had purchased a ticket Hon. The fire had burned for nearly seven hours and the msafe condition of the wall so impressed Mayor Robinson that he left the sidewalk and approached the building to instruct the firemen to stop further work. As he approached the building a large portion of the brick wall buckled and fell, crushing Robinson and Ware and knocking the other men down. Mrs. Robinson witnessed the accident from the sidewalk. The origin of the fire is attributed to possed wires in the basement, where the
