CATTLE—Receipts of cattle this morning were very large, in fact, the largest of any day since November $ of last year. As might be inferred the big bulk of the arrivals came from the western range, and walle there was a sprinkling of natives and carnfeds there were not enough cattle of that description to cut much figure in the that description where a sould be description to cut much figure in the fore-most before sollers were in shape to show their cattle and before the trade could get well under way.

In spite of the large receipts there was a spiendid demand for desirable becf steers, both cornfeds and western, and the general market could safely be quoted anywhere from strong to 5000c higher than last week. Good cornfeds sold as high as $5.90, with range grassers as high as $5.90. As a matter of course interior grades did not show so much improvement, but the market as a whole was in a very satisfactory condition.

Cows and heifers, at least the desirable condition.

Cows and heifers, at least the desirable kinds, commanded fully steady, and in some cases, possibly strong prices. The market was reasonably active, the most of the offerings changing hands in good reasonable.

Eight or ten loads that came in late found a spent market. 19 if the regular buyers had restired and the ones remaining were indifferent. Any kind or a bid was hard to get and actual sales carried much lower figures than those that prevailed early. In a general way all of the morning's advance was lost, prices closing in laturday's notches.

Heavy hogs of good quality sold at $8.40 and better, with rough and extreme heavies at the low figures. Good mixed of medium weight moved around $8.6008.61 and lights brought the high prices. Selected lights reached $8.50, the highest point reached since the second week in July and 10c higher than Saturday's top.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

in Not Very Active-Henvy Receipts Find Slow

OMAHA, Aug. 22, 1910. Cables were lower again, but advices gave the foreign markets a better tone. Receipts of winter wheat are falling off and values should rally from these levels should cash demand or export sales in-

Buyers.

Weather during the last week has been very favorable for the forcing ahead of the growing crop. Conditions at present are beartsh, but lower temperatures are pre-Wheat receipts were somewhat lighter and demand was more brisk. Sample offerings brought slightly better prices than Saturday. Country bids are not finding ready sellers with prices at these levels. The spot corn maret was qui, demand not very active and heavy receipts found slow buyers. News is mixed as to the result of the growing crop. Should receipts keep liberal a better demand will be necessary to maintain values.

Primary wheat receipts were 2,140,000 bushels els and shipments were 733,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,587,000 bushels and shipments of 82,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 800,000 bushels and shipments were 275,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 510,000 bushels and shipments of 333,000 bushels.

Clearances were none of corn. 6,000 bushels of oats and wheat and flour equal to 128,000 bushels.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT Cooler Weather is Predicted for This Vicinity Tuesday. OMAHA, Aug. 23, 1916. Showers occurred within the last twenty-four hours in the western Canadian prov-inces, along the southern Rocky mountain slope, in the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the upper lake region and south Atlantic states. The rains were generally Atlantic states. The rains were generally light over the sections named, except some neavy falls occurred at points in Kentucky and southern Illinois. Areas of low presure overlie the central valleys and northwest, and very warm weather prevailed throughout the central valleys during the last twenty-four hours. An area of high pressure, accompanied by lower temperatures, is moving in over the Pacific slope, and a continued eastward movement of this area of high pressure will cause slightly cooler weather in this vicinity tonight and cooler Tuesday, with fair tonight and Tuesday.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Wheat opened unchanged to %c off, but quickly recovered the loss in spite of weaker foreign markets and continued heavy would's shipments. There was a noticeable tack of seiling pressure. Many traders took the position that receipts from the winter wheat country will decrease in volume in the position that receipts from the winter wheat country will decrease in volume in the next few days. September opened unchanged to %c off at $8%c-to $8%c and in the first hour worked up to $8%c, resting near the top. December opened with a similar range at $1.02% $1.02% and climbed to $1.02% $1.02%.

The market continued firm through most of the session. Selling pressure was felt in the last hour after the needs of the shorts had been met. The close was firm, with September $1.03% to $6 higher at $9%c. December closed %c to $6 higher at $1.03% 1.03%.

A general inclination among the shorts to cover gave the corn market the same tone and course shown by wheat. The opening figures were unchanged to be off and light offerings, together with a fair demand crowded the market moderately up. September opened 4.55% off at 15% 155% of any proved. pened unchanged to %c down at 57% 037%c change During the Day.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Trading was heavy in tone at the start, but offerings of stocks were very light and losses were confined to fractions, except in Louisville & Nashville, which lost a point. St. Paul, Reading, Union Pacific and United States Steel, as well as other leaders, were down from ½ to ½.

Losses were increased throughout the whole list. Professional operators sold freely on the absence of any concerted support, and the whole list began to run off in a brisk manner. St. Paul and Reading, lost 2; International Pump, 1%; Union Pacific, 1%; Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, Rock Island, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and Brooklyn Transit, 1 to 1½.

News developments were not sufficiently transit.

News developments were not sufficiently News developments were not sufficiently important to affect prices, but the market nevertheless was depressed 1 to 2 points below last week's closing, with the selling of St. Paul, Union Pacific, Reading and United States Steel seeming urgent at times. Noon prices were a trifle above the lowest. Bonds were lower.

Trading was almost moderate and prices hovered close to the lowest of the day. St. Paul made a further decline to $1.20%.

ENDURANCE RUN WEDNESDAY

About Forty Cars Will Be Ready for the Start.

Total Distance of 517.0 Miles is to Be Covered-Run Starts Into Iowa and Soon Returns to Nebraska.

The first annual endurance run of the Omaha Motor club, which is to be contested Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, promises to be one of the most successful ever held in the middle west. The fact that the run is to be made under the rules of the American Automobile association and has received the sanction of through western lows and eastern Nerules for the run have been formulated indicates that there will be in the neighborhood of forty starters in the long grind The start will be made early on Wednesday morning from the Paxton-Mitchell garage at the corner of Twentleth and Harney streets, and the first day's run, which will cover 188.2 miles, will carry the tourists through Council Bluffs, Glenwood, Hastings, Emerson, Red Oak, Essex, Shenandoah, Farragut, Riverton and Hamburg, Ia.; Nebraska City, Dunbar, Berlin, Avoca and Eagle, Neb., to Lincoln, where the first night's stop will be.

On Thursday the tourists will pass through Emerald, Pleasantdale, Milford, Dorchester, Friend, Exeter, Fairmont, Graf-Shelton, Gibbon and Buda, stopping for the night at Kearney, after traversing 137.3

miles. The third day's run will be the longest of the three, the route lying through Shelton, Wood River, Olds, Grand Island, Chapman, PLAY FOR ROME MILLER CUP was held at the post earlier in the summer. Central City, Clarks, Silver City, Duncan, Columbus Renton Schuyler Rogers, North Bend, Ames, Fremont and thence back to Omaha, a distance of 192.5 miles. The whole distance to be covered on the tour is 517.9 miles.

The cars which enter the race must all be stock cars and must be fully equipped as they are catalogued. The drivers are permitted, however, to carry a certain amount of extra equipment, such as windshields, extra tires and the like. Touring cars must carry at least four passengers and runabouts two.

Any tire repairs which are made without stopping the engine will not be penalized but the time so spent will be added to the running time. The cars will be scheduled to run from sixteen to twenty miles per hour, depending upon the class of the car and will not be permitted to check in at the checking stations until sufficient time has elapsed to bring their speed down to this rate.

The first prize for the run is offered by the Omaha World-Herald and the second prize by the Motor club. In addition to these general prizes, three prizes for the winners in each of the three divisions have been offered. For the purpose of awarding these prizes, the cars have been divided into seven groups, the first comprising those costing less than $800, the second, those from $800 to $1,200; the third, those from $1,200 to $1,600; the fourth, those from $1,600 to $2,000; the fifth, those from $2,000 to $8,000; the sixth, those from $3,000 to $4,000, and the seventh, those above $4,000. One trophy will go for the best scores among cars of the first group, another to the best in the second and third groups and a third to the best among the fourth, fifth, and seventh groups. The different towns and cities along the route are planning to receive the tourists in royal style and at the points where night stops are scheduled rather elaborate entertainment is being arranged. Otto Nestman. chairman of the committee which has in charge the arranging of the run, will ride in the official pacemaking car sheed of the other cars and none will be permitted to pass him. There will be one woman driver in the race, Miss Besse Ames, who has entered and will drive her Chalmers "30." She promises to give some of her competitors of the sterner sex a close run for the trophies.
