

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Five Root Print Co. Electric Fans—Burgess-Grandson Co. Best Dry Cleaning of garments. Twin City Dye Works, 407 South Fifteenth.

CHARLES K. COUTANT DIES

One of Omaha's Oldest Pioneers Passes Away. HAD BEEN HERE FORTY YEARS. Mr. Coutant held prominent place in early affairs of the city. Held office and helped build its commerce.

Knights Prepare for Roosevelt; Many Will Come

No Special Program at Den, and Show is Given and Applauded by Members of Ak-Sar-Ben. Samson proved last night, to his own satisfaction at least, that he can hold just as successful Monday night initiations without any particular guests as he can with a crowd who think they're the whole show.

TELEPOST COMPANY COMES

Locates Offices and Plant in This City Right Away. PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION SOON. Messages to Be Sent on Last Day of the Month, When the Public is Invited to Be on Hand.

Ladies' Oxfords and Pumps that have been selling all season at $2.50, $3, $3.50 & $4 98c. Buys Any Pair. So Come Early. Nebraska Clothing Co. 'The House of High Merit.'

To Passengers Hanscom Park and North 24th Line. Sometime during September Pay-As-You-Enter Cars will be placed on the Hanscom Park and North 24th Street line.

Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway Co.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE. LOST AND FOUND. OFFERED FOR RENT. Thursday is Home Day. See what bargains are set for you on that day by Real Estate Dealers.

STATE FAIR SEPT. 5th to 9th 1910 LINCOLN THE STATE'S BEST PRODUCTS. Wright Bros. Aeroplane in Daily Flights. Lombardo Symphony Band and Opera Concert Company.

South Dakota Wants Pictures

Asks for Films Taken by the Trade Boosters While at Alexandria. An echo of the South Dakota-Nebraska trade excursion reached the Commercial club Tuesday in the form of a request from G. K. Stablin of Alexandria, S. D.

Ties Money to Shin; is Robbed

John Huffman Took Unusual Precaution, but Was Thief's Victim, Nevertheless. The usual precaution of tying his money to the side of one limb when he retired, availed John Huffman, a roomer at the Davenport lodging house nothing, according to his report to the police Tuesday that he had been robbed.

Omaha Corn Crop is on the Blink

Hot Wind Dries Up the Field at Corner of Seventeenth and Harney Streets. Da corn crop is on da blink. Antonio Constantine, who is Omaha's only downtown farmer, is in despair because the sun has scorched the corn which he has been raising on his large farm at Seventeenth and Harney streets on a small section of the W. H. Thomas lot.

NO REPORT IS MADE BY TELEPHONE COMPANY

Railway Commission Says Annual Report of Independent Company is Missing. Reports from Lincoln declare that the State Railway commission has observed that the annual report of the Independent Telephone company of Omaha is among several which have not answered roll call in the office of the State Railway commission. And the attorney general is preparing suit.

ARMY ORDERS ARE ISSUED

Changes Made in Service by War Department—New Duties for Engineers. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Army orders issued today are as follows: Captain Edwin Bell, Eighth Infantry, will relieve Captain Arthur Cranston, Eighth Infantry, of construction work at the Presidio, Monterey, Cal.

OMAHA BOY OCCUPIES PULPIT

Dr. William B. Lower to Preach at First Presbyterian Church in Place of Dr. Jenks. Rev. Dr. William Barnes Lower with his wife and two daughters, Mary and Ruth, arrived in Omaha Monday for a week's visit and for the occasion of Dr. Lower filling the pulpit as substitute for the Rev. Dr. Jenks at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday. Dr. Lower was formerly an Omaha young man. He was graduated from the local high school and the Omaha theological seminary. He was at one time principal of the Bellevue High school. He is the son of W. H. Lower, who for a long time was connected with a local newspaper. Rev. Dr. Jenks, whose place Dr. Lower is to fill Sunday, is away on his vacation.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR BANKERS

Two Extra Cars to Be Put on Special Train to Take Omaha Crowds to Bankers' Meeting. Omaha bankers are to be given an opportunity to join the special train of the Bankers' association which will pass through here September 23. The annual meeting of the National Bankers' association will be held in Los Angeles this year and as the Nebraska association meets here on that day the Burlington has arranged to attach two extra cars to the special train, carrying the crowd to the west at this point and take on those of the Omaha convention who wish to go.

Express Driver Dies from Fall

George Whitmack Succumbs at Hospital to Injuries received in Fall from Wagon. George Whitmack, an express driver who received serious injuries in a fall from his wagon last week, died Monday night at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. Whitmack was 59 years old and lived at 1219 South Eleventh street. He was a large man, weighing over 300 pounds, and in his fall from the seat of his wagon, his great weight caused the injuries which brought death. The bones of one limb were snapped under him and internal injuries occurred. Whitmack was an ex-policeman and has been a resident of Omaha for some time. He was well known and has been in the express business for several years. The funeral ceremony will be held from the Crosby undertaking parlors Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Prompt, Clean and Reliable. THE News You Want to Read. BEE A Daily Mirror of Events.

MRS. ELIZABETH VANOUS DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Wife of Sergeant Anton Vanous Passes Away at Home—Eight Children Survive. After a long and painful illness Mrs. Elizabeth Vanous, wife of Police Sergeant Anton Vanous, died last evening at 8:25 at her home at 1975 South Eleventh street, aged 65 years. She had been a sufferer for over a year from locomotor ataxia, and had several paralytic seizures. Following the last one less than a week ago, her death was hourly expected. Besides her husband she is survived by eight children, all of whom live at home, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pelton, 1221 South Thirtieth street. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CLEANER CONCERN COMES

Palm Vacuum Cleaner Company Makes This Distributing Point for Its Machines. The Commercial club announces the location here of an addition to the mercantile field. The Palm Vacuum Cleaner company, which has its head office at Detroit, has established a distributing agency in Omaha to cover the Nebraska and western Iowa field. F. G. Jahn, who is the manager, has taken offices in the First National bank building. The stock will be carried in warehouses for the present. The agency has sent out six traveling salesmen. The Palm company is making a late type of dustless sanitary cleaner designed for permanent installation in buildings of any size or description.

REV. E. A. ENDERS IS DEAD

Former Creston, Ia., Pastor Probably a Victim of Cholera in India. ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Word reached here today of the death of Rev. E. A. Enders at Fatepur, Haawa, India, after a short illness. It is thought that the Rev. Enders, who represented the Central Presbyterian church of this city, was stricken with cholera, which is now raging in India. After leaving the Omaha Theological school, he took the pastorate of a Creston, Ia., church, which he Building Permits. Antonio Branda, 124 South Twelfth street, frame dwelling, $2,000. Louis Mauns, 207 North Fifty-sixth avenue, frame dwelling, $1,300. James P. Brophy, 203 North Twenty-ninth street, frame dwelling, $1,200. Mrs. Fred Blocker, 2624 North Thirtieth street, frame dwelling, $1,000. Mrs. Anna F. Mann, 225 South Twenty-ninth street, brick dwelling, $1,000. Elizabeth Dufrene, 1315-23 Farnam street, alterations and repairs, $150.