JUDGE ROASTS IOWA COURT

Smith McPherson Says Supreme Court Wrong on Mule Law.

NO RIGHT TO SELL LIQUOR

Holds Federal Court Should Follow State Court's Holdings, and So Refuses to Change Existing Line of Decisions.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 25.—(Special Telegram.) The federal supreme court case in a sharp criticism today of Judge Smith McPherson of the United States district court in rendering a decision involving the Iowa liquor laws. He held that the Iowa court has been going wrong for twenty-five years in proceeding upon the theory that no sales are legal, though immunity from prosecution may be obtained. He also held that the federal court ought to follow the state courts in the matter of interpreting state laws, and he therefore refused to reverse the Iowa supreme court on the liquor laws. The case was one brought on behalf of saloon men of Carroll, Boone and Marshalltown, asking the federal courts to restrain Iowa county and state officials from enforcing the mule law, on the theory that it is wholly unconstitutional. He dismissed the temporary restraining order and held with the state officials, leaving them free to proceed with the enforcement of the law.

Refuses to Make Connections.

The Chicago Great Western railroad refused to put in connections with the Northwestern at Dumont. The claim is made that the sole purpose of the connection is to enable the Chicago Great Western to secure a lower rate on sugar beets for a very short period of the year, and the Great Western protests against being compelled to do so at their expense.

Enforcement of Paint Laws.

The State Food and Dairy department, which has charge of the enforcement of the laws in regard to labels on paint and securing pure paint, will make a showing at the state fair as to the extent to which the makers of paint have complied with the law and especially their manner of changing the labels so that the consumers in Iowa may know exactly what they are getting. It is claimed that this law is being obeyed better than any of the similar laws.

Enigle Divorce Case Appaled.

NEWTON, Ia., Aug. 25.—(Special.) The Enigle divorce case, perhaps the most sensational trial Iowa has ever known, was today appealed to the supreme court. Because of the prominence of Dr. and Mrs. Enigle, the divorce case has attracted a lower court a short time ago, attracted wide publicity. Dr. Enigle was formerly state senator from this county. His wife, Mrs. Mary Enigle, was a rich widow before Dr. Enigle married her. She brought suit for alleged infidelity. Dr. Enigle countered with a petition charging fraud and inhuman treatment. The court denied both petitions and now Mrs. Enigle has appealed.

Idaho Stockman Injured by Auto on Alighting from Car.

DRIVER AS YET UNIDENTIFIED

Genuine Texas Steer Sold at Stock Yards, but It Appeared Minus His Horns—Trainer on Tax Levy.

John Bernanos of Boise, Idaho was struck and knocked down by an automobile at 5:30 p. m. last night at the corner of Twenty-fourth and O streets South Omaha. Mr. Bernanos was dismounting from a car at that point and the automobile was going south. The motorist had just started to throw the switch at Twenty-fourth and O streets, preparing to turn west and so through the Union Stock Yards as the automobile came up behind at a rapid rate. In some manner the stockman stepped in front of the fast moving car and was thrown, the wheels passing over his ankle. He was carried into Dr. W. J. McCrann's office where his injuries were dressed. The doctor found a slight fracture of the ankle bone and bruises on the thigh, arm, side and groin. The driver of the automobile is as yet unidentified. He was driving machine numbered Neb. 10125. He did not stop his machine and was said by Officer Sheehan to be going about 20 miles an hour. Mr. Bernanos is an extensive shipper of sheep and had fourteen cars on yesterday's market. He will be able to continue his trip homeward at once.

The Last of the Texas.

E. D. Gould of Kearney, Neb., had a Texas steer on the market Wednesday, which sold by itself for $7.00 per hundred, the highest price ever paid at the South Omaha market for a grass fed animal. This steer weighed 1,420 pounds and was a clean, deep chested animal, built upon a plan to catch the packer's eyes. Mr. Gould bought the steer from the Reverse 4 Cattle company and it was raised on a ranch in Routt county, Colo. He was almost pure South Omaha blood. His horns had been taken off so he had not the fierce aspect of the old Texas range. Armour & company purchased the steer along with a bunch of cows.

Yesterday's market at the South Omaha was even better in point of prices and the fine demand for stock than any of the good days of the last week. The cattle and sheep were plentiful and sold at fine prices for all grades. One load of fine white faced feeders, twenty-nine head, sold at the high figure for a full load of feeders, bringing $3.80 per hundred. They averaged 1,250 pounds each. Six month feeding will make this bunch weigh fully 1,900 each and they should top the market easily.

Tractor on Levy.

Mayor P. J. Trainor issued a statement yesterday concerning the South Omaha tax levy for the present fiscal year, and explaining why it was necessary to raise the levy this year to meet the demands of the city. The statement is as follows: "The following is the assessed valuation of the city of South Omaha, on account of the State Board of City Taxes and Rail Road Terminal: Valuation for year 1910, $4,267,752.00. Valuation for year 1909, $4,267,752.00. Balance in interest and sinking fund, $25,741.00. Total amount to be levied, $4,293,493.00. It is necessary that our levy be increased a fraction of a mill on interest and sinking fund, so as to care for interest on improvement bonds, paving, curbing and sidewalks. The city has no other resources from the county books (for year 1910) which raised all corporations and prominent business houses to 100 city assessed valuation, which gives the small home owner the benefit.

The new firm will be known as the McCrann Piano and Musical Supply company.

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick I could not get up. I had been laid up for three weeks. I had lost my appetite and I was losing weight. I had been to the doctor and he had given me medicine, but it did not do any good. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I had bought a bottle. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and I was very nervous. I had been told that I should see a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was used."—Mrs. ALVINA SPERLING, 1408 Clybourne Ave., Chicago, Ill.

ZANESVILLE, O., Aug. 25.—Mabel McManis was arrested today and will be held for the New York authorities in connection with the Etherington lynchings. Principal Cause of Sensation States that Religious Obstacles Prevent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Jere S. Lillis, who was bound and beaten in the Kansas City home of John P. Cudahy, denied today that he would marry Mrs. Cudahy, who has just obtained a divorce from her husband on grounds of incompatibility. We have not corresponded and I do not know anything about her. I have no intention of marrying anyone."

UNWRITTEN LAW INVOKED, MIDNIGHT DUEL RESULTS

California Man Discovering Victim in Cottage Uses Revolver—Victim Also Wounded.

GREENFIELD, Cal., Aug. 25.—In a midnight duel last night in a cottage in King City, between Frederick W. Becker and P. Tognazzini, both residents of that town, Becker was killed and Mrs. Becker and her father, W. D. Fowler, were wounded. The tragedy resulted from Becker discovering Tognazzini and Mrs. Becker in the cottage. Becker opened fire through a window, wounding his wife and Fowler. Tognazzini returned the fire with an automatic revolver and when that was emptied seized a rifle and fired a number of shots at Becker. Becker crawled to his buggy fatally wounded, but kept up the fight with his shotgun, holding those at the house at bay until he was overcome by weakness. Becker died today.
