

Nebraska TELEPHONE COMPANIES OFF

Thirty-Three of Them Taken from Books of Commission. SEVENTEEN OUT OF BUSINESS

Top of Them Bought by Independent Companies and Seven by Nebraska Telephone Company—More Election Expenses.

(From a Staff Correspondent) LINCOLN, Aug. 25.—(Special.)—During the last year the State Railway Commission has checked out thirty-three telephone companies which were doing business the year previous. Some of these companies have been bought by other companies and some of the commission does not know what has become of them.

Of the companies now off the books of the commission, ten have been bought by independent companies and seven by the Nebraska Telephone company. Other companies which have bought the missing companies may belong either to the Nebraska Telephone company or to independent companies, the commission having no information as to their ownership.

Following are the names of telephone companies which have been dropped from the records of the Nebraska State Railway Commission, and the reasons therefore: Auburn Telephone Construction company (Auburn), sold to Nebraska Telephone company.

Belmont Telephone company (Belmont), sold to Farmers' United Telephone company of Panama. Brown Bros. Telephone company (Brown), sold to Burr Telephone company of Huron. Crab Orchard Telephone company (Crab Orchard), sold to Nebraska Telephone company.

College View Telephone company (College View), sold to Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company of Lincoln. Cambridge Telephone company (Cambridge), mutual. Exchange Telephone company (Big Spring), sold to North Platte Telephone company of North Platte.

Exchange Telephone company (Springview), sold to Springfield Exchange Telephone company of Springfield. Farmers' Independent Telephone company (Lawford), mutual. Farmers' Mutual Telephone company (Ava), mutual.

Farmers and Merchants Telephone company (Hagan), name change to Hagan Farmers and Merchants Telephone company. Greeley County Telephone company (Wolbach), sold to Wolbach Telephone company of Wolbach.

Humphrey Electric Light and Telephone company (Humphrey), sold to Humphrey Telephone company of Humphrey. Humboldt Telephone company (Humboldt), sold to Humboldt Telephone company of Humboldt. Humboldt Telephone company (Walden), sold to Walden Telephone company of Walden.

Home Telephone company (Lyons), sold to Burr County Telephone company of Lyons. Keosauqua Telephone company (Keosauqua), sold to Keosauqua Telephone company of Keosauqua. Lincoln Telephone company (Lincoln), sold to Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company of Lincoln.

Long Distance Telephone company (Omaha), transferred to New State Telephone company of Sioux City, Ia. Lyons Independent Telephone company (Lyons), sold to Burr County Independent Telephone company of Lyons. Nebraska Telephone company (Nebraska), sold to Nebraska Telephone company of Lincoln.

New Home Telephone company (Beatrice), sold to Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company of Lincoln. Oxford Home Telephone company (Oxford), sold to Nebraska Telephone company of Lincoln. Oregon Telephone company (Harrisonburg), sold to Western Nebraska Telephone company of Harrisonburg. Omaha Telephone company (Omaha), sold to Omaha Telephone company of Omaha.

Nebraska Dean Will Run Against Kinkaid

Judge Wins the Democratic Nomination in Sixth District by Five Votes.

(From a Staff Correspondent) LINCOLN, Aug. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Official returns from the Sixth congressional district show that Judge J. R. Dean was nominated on the democratic ticket and W. J. Taylor on the populist ticket. For the democratic nomination Taylor received 2,223 votes and Dean 2,241. For the populist nomination Taylor received 49 votes and Dean 225 votes.

CHURCH BURNED AT STERLING

Henry Delaney, Volunteer Fire Fighter, Fatally Hurt by Fall of Chimney.

TEREKAMAH, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The Methodist Episcopal church at Sterling, this county, was burned to the ground at 8 o'clock this morning. The fire was caused by painters at work on the exterior. A chimney fell on Henry Delaney, a volunteer fire fighter, and fatally injured him. Both legs and arms were broken and he was injured internally. The building cost $2,300 and was insured for $2,500. The roof of the high school building nearby was on fire several times, but this building was saved by the bucket brigade.

New Telephone Plant at Broken Bow. Broken Bow, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—The new exchange of the Central Telephone company has almost reached completion and the metallic circuit is rapidly being installed. The masonry work on the structure was finished today; in another thirty days the building will be ready for occupancy. President Frank Currie, who is personally supervising its erection, says, when finished, it will be the finest telephone exchange in Nebraska, barring none. Other exchanges may occupy more space, but none will be so complete or more thoroughly up to date. Not counting the cost of the building, over $30,000 is being expended to improve the system and install the new circuit.

Colonel West's Anniversary. RUSHVILLE, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Last night at the home of Colonel J. E. West, twenty-one guests, including five from Chadron and two from Hay Springs, assembled to celebrate his 72d birthday. An elegant banquet was served, after which there was a flow of wit and humor. Two masterful comedians were presented to Mr. and Mrs. West by the company, one coming from Chadron, besides other gifts which gave eloquent testimony of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. West are held.

Archie Goes to See Indiana. VALENTINE, Neb., Aug. 25.—(Special.)—Deputy United States Marshal Seth Bullock, accompanied by Archibald Roosevelt, arrived this morning on their way to Rosebud, S. D. Bullock is taking young Roosevelt over to see the Indians in their native grounds, also to go on a hunting trip while there. Agent Woods and John Anderson met them here and took them over to Rosebud this morning in an automobile.

Nebraska News Notes. NELSON—The annual county fair will be held during the week of September 22. NELSON—An Interstate Granary application to the various counties. As the state board is the one which canvasses all of the returns, he believes that this is the body to which application for a recount should be made. At least he said it was a question which board is the one authorized to make the recount on candidates for state offices.

REARTRICE—The old settlers' picnic closed at Harroston Wednesday. P. C. McGirr, county attorney, was the principal speaker. REARTRICE—Walter Selby of Seneca, Kan., and Miss Pearl Roberts of Central, Kan., were married here yesterday by Rev. U. G. Brown.

REARTRICE—Hugh V. Leatherman of Humboldt and Miss Laura E. Bush of this city were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. D. R. Bush last evening. ST. LOUIS—Miss A. H. Bartlett has been elected St. Louis county clerk.

SUTHERLAND—While assisting in arduous work of a little daughter of G. E. Shane a few minutes after the child's death, Mrs. D. R. Bush, a neighbor, suddenly dropped dead from heart failure. TUCUMSEH—Reports from the Johnson county cornfields are most encouraging. Some farmers here are reporting that the yield will produce more corn than it did last year, in the face of the two months drought.

WELSH—The sugar beet crop has been of late being making excellent progress and there is reason to believe that the yield will be fair. At present the field weather kept the crop backward for a time, but at present the soil is in excellent condition. RUSHVILLE—Fire this morning destroyed two barns and a woodshed belonging to two residences on Leoborn street. The fire was caused by two children playing in the barn, whether they built the fire inside, which were supposed to have been put out.

FREMONT—Mrs. Aimey Kelly has filed a petition for divorce in district court, whereby she asks to be rid of her husband, Arthur Kelly, charging that Kelly, who has been divorced twice, is untrue and has deserted her during the honeymoon the couple was enjoying at a residence to a marriage contracted by means of a newspaper advertisement. The two were married July 2.

FREMONT—In order to prevent the Elkchorn river from cutting through into an old channel and leaving the Nickerson farm on the east bank of the river and the Elkchorn river drainage district will jointly construct a cutoff to carry the water around the bend. The cutoff will be 1,100 feet long. It will be built by the drainage district, the cost to be shared by the district and the county.

TABLE ROCK—Miss Emily A. Cook, primary teacher in our public schools the last year, and who was elected for the coming year, recently sent her resignation to the board, which was accepted and the vacancy has just been filled by the election of Miss Mabel F. Mitchell of Chandler, Okl. Miss Mitchell is a former teacher in our schools. She is a former teacher in the schools of Pook, Buffalo county, Nebraska.

MINNESOTA GETS BUTTER PRIZES

A. G. Schandal of Glencoe Secures First in Whole Milk Class at Mason City.

MASON CITY, Ia., Aug. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Missouri competed today in a national butter contest. In the whole milk class the first prize went to A. G. Schandal of Glencoe, Minn., on a score of 86. The second prize was taken by L. C. Jenn, Schafer, Minn., with a marking of 85. In the cream class Gus A. Kingsley of Cross Plain, Wis. took first by a score of 88, and J. G. Goodnight of Lone Rock, Ia., second with a score of 84. The judges in the contest were A. O. Story, of Minnesota, J. J. Rose of Iowa, and H. A. Mayer of Wisconsin.

IT'S LETTER PUBLIC SOON

Secretary of Congressional Campaign Committee Talks with President. EVERYTHING IS GOING WELL

Nation's Head Will Make Visit with Secretary of Treasury MacVeagh and Stop Stories of Disagreement.

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 25.—Representative H. C. Loudenslager of New Jersey, secretary of the republican congressional campaign committee, spent most of today in Beverly and had a long talk with the president regarding the plans for the coming campaign. Mr. Loudenslager announced that it had been decided to make the president's campaign letter public in New York, probably September 5. This date is not definite, however, Mr. Loudenslager thinks everything is in pretty good shape for the campaign and he is sure the president's letter will prove a big help. He declined to discuss the contents of the letter.

President Taft is going to pay Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh a week-end visit at the latter's summer home in Dubuque, N. H. Mr. Taft's visit to Dublin will be set for the latter part of the month. The two men will meet at the time of a coinless between him and Secretary MacVeagh. These stories have gone so far at times as to intimate that Mr. MacVeagh might retire from the cabinet. They are said to be absolutely without foundation.

Presenta Gift to Yacht Race Winner. The health of the king of Spain and the president of the United States were drunk on board the yacht Mayflower today, when President Taft presented the Taft cup to Charles F. Adams of Boston, owner of the winning Sander, Harpoon, in the recent yacht race, with the Spanish challenge. The president and Senator Riano, the Spanish minister, exchanged congratulations and both expressed the hope that the recent races would bring the peoples of the two nations into closer association. The Spanish crews and the representatives of the yachting clubs of Spain were all the guests of the president. The American crew and officials of the Eastern Yacht club were also entertained on board the Mayflower.

President Taft presented the cup to Captain Adams on the after deck of the Mayflower. The president said he had heard of Mr. Adams' prowess and presented the cup as an evidence of his hard work and because he was the best sailor on the Atlantic coast. At the conclusion President Taft read a cablegram from the Royal Sporting club of Bilbao, Spain, expressing gratification at the reception given the Spaniards here. Spanish Minister Riano responded for the visitors and proposed a toast to the president.

OFFICIAL COUNT CUTS DAHLMAN

(Continued from First Page.) that a recount is in process in many counties and requesting that the official canvass be deferred until until reports are received from these counties. H. P. Leavitt, an Omaha attorney who has been looking up the question, is not sure but what the proper place to ask for the recount is the state canvassing board. He doubts that the board will entertain application to the various counties. As the state board is the one which canvasses all of the returns, he believes that this is the body to which application for a recount should be made. At least he said it was a question which board is the one authorized to make the recount on candidates for state offices.

Beckemeyer Allowed to Testify of Thousand Dollar Payment by Man on Trial for Bribery. CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Judge Kersten in the criminal court lifted more bars in the second trial of Lee O'Neill Brown here today, when he ruled that Representative Robert E. Beckemeyer of Carlyle, might answer questions about the legislative "jackpot" in 1900. Judge Kersten overruled the objections of the defense to the testimony of both Beckemeyer and Representative Michael S. Link.

Beckemeyer declared Brown had paid him $1,000 in the Southern hotel, St. Louis, June 21, 1900, saying "there will be some more in a few weeks." Subsequently Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature of L. O. Brown, June 21, 1900, when Beckemeyer says he got the $1,000 Lorimer money, and the signature of Robert E. Wilson, July 15, 1900. When the "jackpot" was alleged to have been discovered, Beckemeyer said he was called to visit St. Louis, and this time declared he met Representative Robert E. Wilson and received $600 "jackpot" money from him. Wilson is now under indictment for perjury. Subpoena servers are looking for him, but have failed to find him through Beckemeyer, the prosecution introduced a register at the Southern hotel, bearing the signature